Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, May 28. [To the Editor of The Times:] Next to the discovery of a cancer cure there couldn't possibly be anything of any more value than the claim in the papers today that John Hays Hammond had discovered a television that will penetrate fog, and that an airplane pilot can look at his television and see exactly what is through the fog.

If they got that, why that's all they been needing—finding a way to eliminate fog. The next big discovery is find a way to get prohibition out of politics.

CURB URGED ON WASTE

Oil Conservation Body Reports

Unit Plan of Operation and Use of Police Power by States Advocated

Case in California Cited to Show Need of Checking Further Losses

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Conservation of oil and gas through the "unit plan" of operation and action by the various States to prevent waste were recommended today by the Federal Oil Conservation Board in a report on petroleum conditions submitted to President Hoover.

The unit scheme is an arrangement under which all operators tapping a particular oil pool come to an agreement on the amount of oil that is to be produced within a given period.

The board also says that a particular need at the present time is "specific recognition by the courts of this community of interest by all the landowners in the content of the oil and gas pools, in the oil and gas as separate marketable commodities and in the energy of gas."

STATE ACTION NEEDED

The prompt exercise of the police power of the State is urged to prevent waste in the unnecessary escape of gas from oil wells.

The need of protecting both public and private interest is shown, the board continues, by the recent

DRY ACT FOG TO HOVER

Chance for Test Vote Wanes

Blaine Says He's Too Busy to Press Show-down on Repeal Move

Senators Walsh and Jones Assert They Will Line Up as States Direct

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Prospects for any show-down on the prohibition issue in Congress this session diminished today when Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, author of the resolution for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, said he will not press his measure until opportunity is had for hearings.

Blaine said he will not have the opportunity for hearings at this session on his resolution because of other duties.

With leaders looking restlessly to adjournment it was agreed on all sides tonight there is no prospect of any kind of a vote on prohibition at this session.

WON'T FORCE ISSUE

Dry leaders have said they are ready to vote at any time on Blaine's resolution, but there is no disposition by either side to force the issue.

The constant discussion of prohibition and the nation-wide polls are being watched closely by members of Congress. Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, a dry, who is up for re-election this year, made it known today that if Montana by a duly authorized referendum asks for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment he would stand by the decision.

Both Walsh and Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, another dry, who said yesterday he is willing to submit to the voters of his State the question of repeal, said they are not advocating referenda in their States.

Senator Jones today expressed concern over the newspaper publicity given his declaration and reaffirmed his prohibition stand.

"I am perfectly willing to give my people an opportunity to pass upon it," he said, "but I would not vote for repeal and I would not vote for modification. After the proposition was submitted to the people of my State I would vote against it myself and I would use all my power to induce the people of my State to vote against it; but I will vote at the request duly made by the people of my State for a proposition in the Senate to submit the question to them."

Jones, who made his statement after the Republican convention of his State had adopted a wet platform, said he is satisfied with conditions.

"Those who want to change legislation are the ones who can try, if they desire, to take advantage of the referendum laws of my State," he said.

HEADLINE DRAWS LAUGH

The Senate joined in laughter as the dry champion read a headline from a newspaper stating: "Jones Will Go Wet if State so Directs."

"If anybody can find any justification for a headline like that in anything I have said they are welcome to it," he said. "If the wets are so anxious to find something consoling in statements that these things bring them consolation they are welcome to it."

Other prohibition developments included the introduction by Senator Hawes, Democrat, Missouri, of a bill to require bonding of prohibition agents for $10,000.

"The bond," he explained in a statement, "would be for the payment of damages for wrongfully or negligently causing personal injury or death by damage to or loss of property or for trespass to persons or property by prohibition agents under the color of discharge of their duty."

The Hoover law-enforcement commission is opposed to present passage of the Andrew bill for it to study prohibition with a view to recommending any changes in the laws found necessary.

Chairman Wickersham so notified the House Judiciary Committee and the bill was tabled today despite arguments for it by Representative Andrew, Republican, Massachusetts.

Wickersham informed Chairman Graham the matter was discussed at length in the commission, but it "saw no need for the passage of such a bill at present."

FAST PLANE TO BE USED BY BRITAIN

[Copyright, 1930, Chicago Tribune]

LONDON, May 28. (Exclusive)—The fastest war plane in the world, the Hawker Hornet, has been adopted by the Royal Air Force after competitive tests of the new "interceptor fighter" type of airplanes, it was learned here today. The tests have been carried out secretly, but it is understood the speeds up to 190 miles an hour have been attained at very high altitudes, while these planes climbed to the height of 20,000 feet in a "very few minutes."

Experts assert the new war plane is superior to any foreign machine in its class. The "interceptor" machines are required to mount quickly and oppose attacking craft of whose approach there is very short notice. One squadron of the Royal Air Force will be equipped with Hornets as soon as they can be built. Two additional squadrons will also be supplied with this type of plane later on.

The Hornet is fitted either with the Rolls-Royce supercharger engine of 490-500 horsepower, or with air-cooled Armstrong-Siddeley "Jaguar" engines. The Hornet is described as a remarkably graceful machine. It is a biplane with the engine cowling projecting as a sharp nose in front of the wings. The latter are largely metal. The fuselage is entirely of metal with the exception of a fabric covering.

BAPTISTS CALLED TO ARMS

Cleveland Convention Hears Plea for War Against Wave of Atheism

CLEVELAND, May 28. (AP)—Thousands of delegates who opened the Northern Baptist Convention here today heard Dr. Alton L. Miller of Boston declare in his presidential address that the forces of atheism are a menace challenging the Protestant denominations of the world.

Pointing out the magnitude of the forces opposed to Christian doctrines, he said the greatest danger comes from organizations purposely spreading the seeds of atheism.

RUSSIA MENTIONED

"In denying the very existence of God, they strike at the heart of the Christian message. Such efforts have found the peak of their success in Russia, where the soviet government is fostering atheism in order to loosen the hold of the organized church on the Russian people," Miller said.

Other conditions which the speaker called dangerous to religion are the "mysticism of the East, the materialism of the West, and the cynicism of youth."

Dr. Miller held hope for world peace from treaties and urged Baptists to turn their attention to seeking the germs of war and to eradicate them. He sees as underlying all war, all race and class hatred, but one factor, selfishness.

PRISONS ASSAILED

Prison conditions were attacked by Dr. Miller with a statement that "it is shameful that America's prisons should continue in such a state of rottenness. Let our legislators seek with all due speed and directness, scientific solutions of our problems in penology at home. It is puerile silliness to blame prohibition for conditions in the jails brought about by the ignorance and carelessness of a selfish public."

Clarence A. Barbour, president of Brown University, delivered the keynote address, cautioning Baptists not ABOARD THE GRAF ZEPPELIN (En Route to Havana) May 28. (Exclusive)—We made a smooth start at Pernambuco, taking advantage of a lull between light ground winds.

The airship took the air gently and evenly, and then circled a few times over the city and the suburb of Olinda. A few enthusiastic spectators tried to follow us by running across the air field, but they were soon outdistanced.

We now are slowly gaining altitude, being back over the ocean on our course. A good tail wind is aiding us. We expect to land at Havana, Friday evening, weather permitting. The passengers are quite glad to have escaped the unaccustomed tropical heat.

The Graf is carrying an additional 500 pounds of mail from Brazil. We have twenty passengers.

After passing at 2 p.m. the last Brazilian city at Natal and the last land at Cape Rock we sailed in perfect weather at a speed of sixty-five knots and crossed the equator at the 40th deg. west at 9:45 p.m. We will reach the first land probably Friday morning at Porto Rico.

HARRIS BILL HARD HIT

Futility Exposed in Reports

Committee Minority Brands Mexican Exclusion Plan as Needless Move

Enforcing Present Law Will Serve Same Purpose and Not Offer Offense

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 28. (Exclusive)—Representatives Free of San Jose, Cal., and Dickstein of New York, riddled the Harris bill, proposing an immigration quota on Mexico, in minority reports today from the House Immigration Committee.

They showed that the legislation passed by the Senate and reported favorably by the House Immigration Committee would accomplish nothing save to give offense to a neighboring nation now on good terms with the United States, as the State Department by stricter scrutiny of visa applications already has reduced Mexican immigration to negligible proportions.

They also emphasized the fact, recognized by all students of the Mexican immigration question save those who look at it from the standpoint of gaining a political campaign issue, that the constructive way to hold down entries from the southern republic is to supplement the present rigid visa requirements with a strengthening of the border patrol.

PROPOSAL OFFERED

A bill for extending the border patrol and increasing the pay of its personnel was introduced today by Representative Johnson of Washington State, chairman of the House Immigration Committee, as though in answer to the minority views of his committee colleagues. Johnson proposed an appropriation of $300,000 to increase the border immigration force and give it better pay during the coming fiscal year.

In sponsoring this bill Chairman Johnson, who has been a leading advocate of Mexican exclusion for reasons deemed political, was seen as acknowledging that the one practical and only necessary measure this government has to take to curtail Mexican immigration is to increase the border patrol to guard against surreptitious entries.

LITTLE CHANCE

There is little chance his bill can be passed in the session now drawing to a close. It might be gotten through, if Johnson were prepared to go the whole route and recommend to the House Rules Committee that it be considered as a substitute for the Harris-Box bill now knocking at the Rules Committe's door for right of way on the floor.

But it is not believed Mr. Johnson is willing so easily to abandon the fight for a Mexican quota with a stiff campaign for re-election just ahead and union-labor organizations looking to him to carry out his promises to them with respect to this legislation. All that can be said is that he has taken the first step toward a constructive rather than destructive solution of the so-called Mexican immigration problem.

WHAT FREE SAYS

Representative Free in his minority report declared enforcement of existing laws and regulations already has proved sufficient in the case of Mexico.

"The very limited number of Mexicans coming into this country during the last few months," he said, "demonstrates the fact that enforcement of our present laws is all that is necessary to control Mexican immigration. Under the circumstances, it seems unnecessary to pass legislation which will antagonize a sister country, and bring about bad feeling and possibly loss of trade. The mere passage of a law does not accomplish limitation of immigration. It is the enforcement of our laws which makes them effective."

ANOTHER OBJECTION

Representative Dickstein said his objection is based mainly on the fact the bill places the proposed Mexican quota of from 1200 to 1900

BAD MONEY TRIO HELD

Spurious Bills Total Million

Jeweler's Glass Needed to Show Bogus Quality of Currency Seized

Brooklyn Building Spied on by Secret Service Men Before Final Raid

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—A million dollars in spurious gold notes, a lithograph press and paper enough to print $4,000,000 more in bogus currency were taken today by secret service men in the largest counterfeiting haul made in New York in years.

They were taken to the customhouse, and with them were taken Pericles Mannerini, Giuseppe Di Negri and Matteo Mattera—caught "inky-handed," the Federal agents said, over the gleaming plates of a money-making machine in the upper floor of a Brooklyn apartment-house.

KEPT BLINDS UP

The three counterfeiters hadn't even taken the precaution to pull down the blinds on the windows behind which they worked, and for days secret service men had watched their operations from a room across the street.

A few minutes after midnight, as the three men congregated about the great press which filled one side of a wall, Special Agent Fiori of the secret service staff, led his men across the street, up the stairs, and through doors that yielded quickly to sledge-hammer blows.

PLATES CLEVER

The three men within gave themselves up quietly and declined to talk even after their arrest, but the Federal squad said it knew all it needed to know about them.

Mannerini, according to Allan G. Straight, secret service chief in New York, was the guiding head of the counterfeit ring. Di Negri was its distributor of false gold notes and Mattera the engraver who fashioned plates so cleverly that the money was studied with a jeweler's eye-glass to bring out its variance from genuine currency.

CURRENCY STILL WET

Sheet upon sheet of still wet currency was in the room the agents raided—sheets which each contained $540 in counterfeit $50, $20 and $10 gold notes, the fifties bearing Madison's portrait, the twenties Grant's and the tens Andrew Jackson's.

The notes were to have been delivered, Straight said, to "dealers" who would buy them at 15 cents on the dollar and sell them to "distributors," who would pay 25 cents on the dollar; and the "distributors" would get them to "passers," who would buy the money at 40 cents on the dollar and put it into circulation at face value.

Evidence against Mannerini, Di Negri, known also as "Joe Rosa," and Mattera—"the doctor"—will be presented tomorrow to a grand jury. The first two have been arrested before for counterfeiting, but not convicted.

Reedley High Students Still Out on Strike

REEDLEY, May 28. (Exclusive)—With only sixty-four students appearing in their classes today, approximately 75 per cent of the enrollment of the Reedley Joint Union High School and Junior College continued adamant in their demand that the school trustees resign.

The student body is maintaining an attitude of watchful waiting for action by the school trustees on their demand.

The school trustees are to meet Friday night in an adjourned session for the expressed purpose of considering the annual budget submitted by Principal E. W. Hauck, whose dismissal by the trustees precipitated the student strike.

SIX DROWN IN DIXIE FLOOD

Hundreds of Residents of Two Louisiana Parishes Prepare to Flee for Their Lives

NEW ORLEANS, May 28. (AP)—Hundreds of residents of Grant and Rapides parishes tonight were preparing to flee before the advance of the devasting flood down the Red River Valley which has taken six lives, inundated 200,000 acres in Northwest Louisiana, driven 6000 persons from their homes to refugee camps and caused property and crop damages of several hundred thousand dollars.

The flood has claimed the lives of a Negro near Rodessa, another near Minden, two white children at Bienville, a Negro near Haynesville and a white youth, William E. Laffon, who drowned while driving his cattle to safety through flood waters from Sandy Bayou in Grant Parish.

RED RIVER RISES

The Red River rose five inches in twelve hours at Colfax, in Southwest Grant Parish, cutting off the main highway to the north by flooding through Rock Bayou. A levee is being strengthened west of Colfax to prevent the flooding of a wide expanse of rich farm lands. Colfax proper is believed safe from immediate danger.

At Alexandria, thirty miles downstream, the river rose a half-foot in the last twenty-four hours, reaching 37.7 feet, a foot and seven-tenths above flood level. The newly strengthened levees in the section are holding satisfactorily.

CONDITIONS ACUTE

The most acute conditions still center in Red River parish around Eastpoint, one of nearly a half-dozen towns standing in water. In the Eastpoint section of forty square miles only about fifty acres of high ground remain above the water line.

Reports say families by the half-dozen are packed under a single roof, provisions are scarce and unless relief is realized soon, the situation will become alarming.

MEXICAN CURB BILL RIDDLED

Present Law Held Adequate to Bar Undesirables

entries a year within the 150,000 limit fixed on European immigration, instead of giving Mexico an independent quota of its own which would not cut into the European allowance.

"Out of the avalanche of bills which the House has had to contend with for several years on this subject," said Dickstein, "the bill known as the Harris bill is the only one that survived our committee outside of H. C. R. 10343 by Chairman Johnson, which sought to establish quotas for all countries of the western hemisphere.

"I cannot possibly see any merit in it and in fact I have before me an official report of the Department of Labor showing that this bill is entirely unnecessary and if it seeks to limit immigration from Mexico it misses its purpose entirely."

UNION STAND HIT

Representative Dickstein declared that he sympathizes with the American Federation of Labor in its fight to prevent cheap labor coming into the United States to compete with American working men.

"I cannot, however," he said, "agree with some conclusions reached by the leaders of the A. F. of L. with reference to this proposed legislation. I do not think they are attacking the problem with reference to the proposed Mexico quota in the manner which will protect the interests of the United States. In fact, the hearings before the committee clearly demonstrate the futility of this proposed legislation."

He called attention to the fact that the State Department, through administrative action carrying no offense to Mexico, has succeeded in reducing immigration from that country to a point where practically no common laborers are crossing the border.

FIGURES GIVEN

He quoted the last State Department report showing that during the last ten months only 11,023 immigrants have entered from Mexico, and that of this number only 1199 were common laborers without previous residence in this country who would be subject to a quota if one were imposed. The great bulk of current Mexican immigration, Dickstein pointed out, consists of returning residents, their close relatives, educators, students, business men and pleasure travelers who could come into the United States on temporary visas regardless of the population quota.

The most significant utterance on this subject, Dickstein said, "is to be found in the hearing of the 15th inst., last, where Hon. Joseph P. Cotton, Undersecretary of State, appeared before our committee and gave us a clear-cut presentation of this entire problem in so far as it affects our social, political and diplomatic relations with Mexico. Mr. Cotton was not sparing in denunciation of the bill. He called attention to the decrease of immigration month by month since the beginning of 1930 and analyzed the nature of the immigration which has been reaching this country from Mexico since the beginning of this calendar year.

GROUPS LISTED

"He divided the entire immigration, amounting to about 11,000, into the following groups:

"About 2238 are now residents of the United States who returned to Mexico for the purpose of regularizing their status.

"More than 1600 are persons who have resided in the United States and are, therefore, not in the category of new immigrants.

"Sixteen hundred are students who are coming to the United States to attend school and will not be affected by any quota.

"So that practically half of the 11,000 who came in during 1930 are not immigrants at all. Of the remaining half about 2500 are wives and minor children of admitted aliens and, of course, will likewise not be affected by the proposed legislation.

"According to Mr. Cotton's figures, there remain only about 3000 immigrants who may be stopped by the Harris bill. These 3000 are the ones who have been examined by the consuls, who are not contract laborers, and not persons who are likely to become public charges.

IS IT WORTH IT?

"The net result of the proposed legislation will be that no more than 1000 Mexican workers will be kept out of the United States each year. It is for these 1000 Mexicans that the entire machinery of our existing immigration laws is sought to be disarranged; that existing quotas are to be radically revised and all existing legislation thoroughly upset.

"Is it worth while to antagonize our friendly neighbor only for the purpose of keeping out 1000 aliens? It is clear that no further restriction of immigration from Mexico is needed and that strict enforcement of the literacy test and the other requirements of our present laws has already served the purpose of this proposed bill. Our future relations with Mexico are in peril under this legislation and responsible newspapers like the New York Times have sounded the warning."

Dickstein said that Representative Vincent of Michigan would have signed his minority report but for the fact he is ill in a hospital and that Representative Cooke of New York, another member of the immigration committee, also would have signed had he been in Washington today.

RETALIATION FEAR VOICED BY CAPTALIST

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (Exclusive)—Any American action toward exclusion of Mexicans from this country, or a reduction in the immigration quota, probably will be met by Mexico with retaliative business measures, in the opinion of Fritz W. Schiller, Mexico City capitalist, here on a survey of conditions in this State. Feeling in Mexico is strong against the attempt of certain Congressmen to limit Mexican immigration, he said.

Bay City Given Traffic Hazard by Slight Rain

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—A low-pressure area off Puget Sound dampened Northern California today, but the Weather Bureau tonight said its strength is weakening. Today's rain varied from a disagreeable drizzle here, providing a distinct traffic hazard, to appreciable showers in the north. By tomorrow, Forecaster Reed expects California to escape further moisture, although the Pacific Northwest is likely to have showers.

Cherry growers, concerned during the morning, were cheered when the rain ceased.

SHOALS LEASING PLAN ACCEPTED

Private Operation Favored by House Action

Reece Bill Now Goes Back for Senate Vote

Sale of Property's Power Battled Vigorously

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Thrusting aside protests against private operation of Muscle Shoals, the House today accepted the Reece plan for leasing the project as a substitute for the Senate resolution proposing government operation.

The bill now goes to the Senate for agreement to the change. Its chances of approval there are believed slight and it is expected to be sent to conference.

As finally adopted by the House by a record vote of 196 to 114, the measure would authorize appointment by the president of a board of three persons to negotiate leases with one or more companies within a year and a half. The lessee would be required to produce 10,000 tons of nitrogen for fertilizer in three and one-half years, and to increase this production annually as market demands warranted.

WOULD SELL POWER

Surplus power would be sold, first to the States, counties or municipalities, and then to private companies. Construction of the Cove Creek Dam at the headquarters of the Tennessee River also would be required of the operator as a measure of increasing the power production and to aid flood control and navigation.

The leasing board would be given discretionary power to order construction of dam No. 3, about fifteen miles upstream from the existing dam No. 2.

Through two long days of dispute, the plan was alternately commended as the "most rational" solution of the problem ever offered to the House, and assailed as a "gift" to the power interests.

ACRIMONIOUS ATTACK

The most acrimonious attack came from Representative La Guardia, Republican, New York, who asserted the plan "would be a forerunner of taking Boulder Dam away from the government by the power trust after it had been completed."

Laying down his assault immediately after failure of an attempt to replace the Reece bill with the McSwain plan to provide for government operation if a satisfactory lease could not be negotiated within six months, the New Yorker said:

"Congress has been charged with doing nothing for Muscle Shoals for ten years. I deny that charge. For ten years Congress has protected the people from having this priceless piece of property turned over to the power interests."

HOOVER VETOES VETERANS' BILL

during that day suffered injury or impaired health became eligible for pensions. This law, however, provides that if a man should incur any disability at any time in his life he may claim pension with only seventy days of service. The ninety-day minimum service has been maintained against the Civil War Veterans all these years because less service than this was not considered to imply personal danger or risk which warranted pensions. If injury or impaired health incident to service is clearly proven, other laws cover such cases.

"(3) It seems to me that in the interest of justice to the taxpayer and to maintain the fine body of citizens comprised in our war veterans free from stigma of encroachment upon the public treasury, there should be a requirement of 'need,' as well as disability as a basis for these pensions.

"It is to me the height of injustice that citizens who are less well placed should be called upon to support from taxes those whose station in life enables them to support themselves or to live in independent security. The whole spirit of the pension system is that of a grateful nation rising to the support of those who have served in war, were injured or who have met with legitimate difficulties in after-life which impose privation upon them. While many veterans may refuse to accept such pensions when they can get along otherwise, yet the cases of selfishness are bound to cause a constant irritation of feeling against a pension system that permits these unmerited and unnecessary payments."

ADVENTISTS OPEN WORLD CONFERENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (AP)—The forty-second session of the General World Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists opened here tonight. It will close June 12, next.

President W. A. Spicer of Washington, D. C., reporting on his stewardship of the past four years, exhorted the delegates to "revive the simple advent message everywhere," and warned them that modernism in religion is "sweeping away the old foundations in all Christendom."

Church Merger Set for 1931

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—The merger of the Congregational Church and the Christian Church, with a total membership of nearly 1,000,000, will become effective in 1931, it was announced today at the annual convention of the National Congregation Home Boards at Plymouth Institute, Brooklyn.

The merger of the two denominations has been decided upon for some time, but the official date for the alliance had not been agreed to until today.

FITTS INVADES ALAMEDA CAMP

Attack Centered on Inaction of Young Regime

Candidate Promises Better Prison Conditions

Work of Governor's Tax Commission Scored

OAKLAND, May 28. (Exclusive) Buron Fitts, Los Angeles District Attorney, brought his fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination into Alameda county today with an uncompromising criticism of administration procrastination, doing it at a time when the political situation is broiled, baked and scrambled from graft trials involving officials. Fitts spoke at the Hotel Oakland under the auspices of the Republican War Veterans, Inc.

He presented his analysis of the public condition of the State government, charging a steadily risen tax rate, increasing cost of government and asserted solution of the State's major problems has been hampered unreasonably by procrastination and delay. He spoke of water problems, prison conditions, the "bureaucratic system" of present State government with its attendant "army of job holders" and touched directly on graft conditions in this county by paying tribute to Dist.-Atty. Warren for his fearless prosecution of public officers who have failed in their trust.

TOUCHES ON PRISONS

California's prisons are overcrowded, he asserted, and it has been recognized for years that our penal system needs reform and Gov. Young recognized it four years ago. "But what has been done?" Fitts asked, and then answered by saying, "Like other problems of our State, it has been intrusted to a commission. Four years of inaction on a problem like that." He also declared there is no assurance that anything will be done with the commission's report, once it is made.

"The habit has grown up in Sacramento in the last four years of appointing commission after commission to check up on the findings of its predecessors delegated to study the same subject. When it gets to the point of action, of doing something, we remain just where we were four years ago," Fitts said.

Fitts promised that if he is elected Governor he will begin immediately on solving of this problem, utilizing such information as the commission has gathered and not waiting for further reports.

SCORES WATER DELAY

Concerning water, he declared the State has become "an expert in the business of studying the water problem. We have been studying it since 1921, and the end is not yet, the construction of dams is still to begin." He denied the present administration interested President Hoover in the California water problem, saying the President "has been interested as an engineer in California's water problem for years. The present State administration cannot use President Hoover as an alibi for its failure to do something on the water problem. No one will quarrel with the attempt to secure Federal aid to finance the development of our water-conservation problem, but seeking Federal aid, cannot be offered as an excuse for failure to make a start."

Fitts averred the first message Gov. Young sent to the Legislature four years ago was on taxation, at which time he emphasized the need for immediate action. The Legislature appropriated $75,000 for a study of the problem, Fitts declared, which appropriation was exceeded by the commission, which, among other things, hired a tax expert from the East at a salary of $100 a day.

"At the last session of the Legislature many demands were heard from legislators anxious to receive the report prior to the legislative recess so they might discuss the matter with their constituents before returning for the final session," Fitts said.

TAXES DISCUSSED

"It was delayed until after the constitutional recess and then nothing really came of it except a proposal for another investigation to check up on the first one. This proposal was refused, the Legislature taking the matter out of the Governor's hands and appointing its own committee to study the problem."

The real achievement of the Tax Commission, according to Fitts, was two pieces of legislation, the bill to tax tangible securities and the bank and business corporation tax. The speaker pointed to the battle forced on holders of real estate to put through an amendment granting a real estate offset, thus eliminating "one of the gross inequalities of the bill."

"But other inequalities were not eliminated," said Fitts. "Some corporations still pay not enough, some pay more than their share, but the sad part of the present arrangement, enacted at the behest of the present State administration, is that some of the big fellows escape with a payment of only $25 a year, while the little fellows are hit harder than ever. One particular corporation, to cite an example, was assessed more than $350,000 last year and this year paid only $25."

The candidate then turned to the creation of the office of State tax commissioner, who works, he said, "at a fat salary doing the work which you elect and pay the State Board of Equalization to do."

EXPENSES INCREASING

The speaker charged that increases in government expenses are outdistancing the increase in population and in assessed valuation and declared the population increase from 1911 to 1928 was 107.64 per cent, while the cost of State government over the same period increased 436.95 per cent, and the increase in assessed valuation for the time was only 212.12 per cent.

"We must stop the orgy of spending at Sacramento," said Fitts, "and get the State government back to a sane basis."

Special assessments not only have reached the point of a burdensome evil, he asserted, but have transcended local conditions and have become a matter for Statewide attention.

The State administration, he said, should be run in a businesslike manner, but with an individual at its head who is forward looking and can prepare for development and growth to come.

ROLPH FILES CANDIDACY PAPERS

SACRAMENTO, May 28. (AP)—Mayor Rolph of San Francisco filed with Secretary of State Jordan today his declaration of candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in the August primary election.

The papers were presented at the Secretary of State's office a few minutes after it opened this morning by William W. Griffin, custodian of voting machines in San Francisco.

Today is the first of the twenty-five-day period during which candidates for office must file declarations. June 21 is the final date on which signatures of sponsors may be circulated, sponsors' certificates and declarations of candidacy filed.

Mayor Rolph's declaration was the first filed by candidates for the Governor's office. Word from Gov. Young's office today was to the effect that the incumbent will file his declaration papers "fairly soon." It has not been decided whether this will be before sponsor signatures all are collected or after the list is completed.

Paul Collins, San Francisco, who declared he is a political economist and an expert on governmental administration, filed with Secretary of State Jordan his declaration of intention to seek the nomination as State Controller. Collins will oppose Ray L. Riley, the incumbent, who has announced he will seek reelection.

TAME FISH BAIT FOR PRESIDENT

Vancouver Offers to Open Stream Long Closed for Hoover

VANCOUVER (Wash.) May 28. (AP)—A fishing hole that has not been stirred by a fisherman's hook for two years today was held out by the Chamber of Commerce as a lure to tempt President Hoover to visit this city during his proposed western tour.

The fishing hole is in the center of the Clark county golf course, and although the inumerable trout that infest the stream have nibbled at numerous golf balls, they have yet to taste a fisherman's fly.

Chamber officials said they hoped the first taste would be of the Presidential variety.

GAS WASTAGE CHECKS URGED

record of two wells in California, which the report says, have already turned into the pipe lines nearly $5,000,000 worth of oil and gas but from which gas and gasoline vapor worth more than $10,000,000 "have gone up into the air—a total loss to present and future citizens of the State."

SELF-REGULATION

"It is to prevent more losses of that magnitude that the idea of self-regulation by voluntary co-operative action is winning increasing support within the industry," the report continues. "Self-regulation in the handling of an oil pool means both efficiency in development and operation and the determination of equities among the owners, and this can best be accomplished by unit-operation. Justice to all owners and benefit to the public can both result from this observance of natural and economic law in recognizing the oil pool as the natural unit."

The report says the purpose of conservation measures urged by the board is primarily to "delay the coming of the day when an impending shortage of crude oil will cause a heavy advance in the prices of the refinery products the public buys." At present, the board believes, the large margin of safety between domestic demand and supply calls for a considerable degree of restraint in producing from newly discovered fields and sands.

GOLETA BEACH PLEA MADE BY SHORTRIDGE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 28. (Exclusive)—Senator Shortridge today appealed to the Interior Department to reject drilling applications by the Standard Oil Company of California and W. C. Paulton, which would destroy Goleta Beach in Santa Barbara county as a public outing place and restore it to entry under the oil and mineral prospecting laws.

Shortridge sponsored the bill enacted by Congress four years ago making Goleta Beach a public bathing and recreational resort and he appeared at a hearing before Assistant Secretary of the Interior Edwards today asking that the efforts of oil prospectors to turn the area to commercial purposes be thwarted. He submitted photographs showing the popular use of the beach and the improvements placed there by the Santa Barbara County Supervisors.

TARIFF FRIENDS LAMBASTE FOES

Conferees Await Meeting to Fix Up Flexible Item

Professors' Criticism Draws Hotly Worded Answer

American Workers Held to be Prime Consideration

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Friends of the $630,000,000 revenue-producing tariff bill struck back at its opponents today as the conferees awaited a meeting tomorrow to negotiate a new flexible provision that will be impregnable against further points of order.

Senator Hatfield, Republican, West Virginia, asserted in the Senate that the 1000 college professors and economists who recently protested against the Hawley-Smoot measure "seems to be more concerned with the prosperity of the foreigners than the welfare of our own people."

LONG LETTER READ

The West Virginian had read a lengthy letter from Matthew Woll, head of the American wage-earners' protective conference, replying to the economists' appeal for a Presidential veto.

"The position of the economists and college professors on tariff legislation is generally well known," the letter said. "With few exceptions they are free traders. They are neither producers nor creators of any commodity or article of trade. They are generally cloistered in the atmosphere of the schoolroom and their mental wares do not enter into the competition with producers where lower wage levels and longer working hours prevail and where standards of living are not only lower but in other respects much inferior to the standards built up in our own country under the American tariff policy.

"There, indeed, we have a frank and eloquent appeal for international capital and capitalists, for international industrialists and commercialists, and not a word of sympathy for America's wage-earners," the letter continued.

EXAMPLE GIVEN

It reads:

"In many cases investments of American capital have been used to promote industries in foreign countries simply because they can dump the products of the foreign countries on the American market and receive from the sale of these products a larger profit than is obtainable through the sale of similar products produced in their American factories."

Meanwhile, it became known that the State Department has received approximately 160 communications from more than thirty foreign nations containing protests and observations on the bill. Only a small fraction, however, express the views of the governments themselves, the remainder embracing contentions of foreign trade organizations and individuals.

All of the communications have been transmitted to the Senate Finance Committee.

He Feels Fine In Morning Now Says Edwards

"When it comes to a real strengthening and invigorating tonic—something that takes a fagged out, rundown system—and reconditions it—in my opinion there is nothing that will equal Sargon," recently said E. D. Edwards, 725 Westlake, Los Angeles, retail salesman for a large concern. Read his full statement:

"After the winter was gone I felt all run down and 'played out.' I wouldn't have called myself a sick man, but there was a very noticeable lack of my usual strength and energy. I never felt good! I'd tire easily my work became a daily drudge and I was generally 'fagged out.' My appetite was poor and nothing seemed to taste right. My nights were restless, and mornings it was all I could do to muster up enough energy to get out and attend to business. I heard so much about the strengthening and invigorating effects of Sargon that I decided to try it, and I'm certainly delighted over the way it set me on my feet again feeling fine. The very first bottle strengthened and invigorated me, and by the time I had finished the fourth bottle, I was feeling like a different man. My food tastes good to me now, I have a splendid appetite, sleep like a top and mornings I get up with all the strength and energy any man needs and feel good all day.

"Whenever I hear a man say he doesn't feel 'so good,' I want to tell him to get Sargon, for I know from my own experience what it will do for anybody that is run down, and needs a real building up."

Sargon may be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

MORO REBELS REPEL ATTACK

Hundreds of Mortar Shells Fail to Shake Fort

Uprising Among Outlaws Growing Serious.

MANILA, May 28. (AP)—Replying with shotgun and rifle fire to a bombardment of 300 mortar shells by the Philippine Constabulary today, a band of Moro outlaws held their mountain fort in Lanao Province, Mindanao Island. They have resisted capture since the 7th inst.

Fearing a night counter-attack in the bamboo thicket the constabulary retreated in the evening to Dansalan. The constabulary is expected to renew its attack tomorrow. Meanwhile, it is guarding Lake Lanao and roads to prevent Moro reinforcements.

One constable was wounded in the leg. Moro losses, if any, are unknown.

The constabulary wished to attempt the capture of the fort by assault, but were refused permission by Col. L. R. Stevens, district commander. He preferred not to expose his men to the Moro fire which two weeks ago killed four constables and wounded ten.

The futile bombardment lasted from dawn to nightfall and increased the belief of the Moros that their fort is impregnable.

The trouble, whcih befan two weeks ago, has become increasingly serious. Starting with the chase of lawbreaking Moros into the mountain fort by constabulary, it has become almost an uprising. The rebel Moro Sultan Mamur has rallied a considerable number of men about him in the fort under Datu (headman) Ganashi.

REGISTERED AS WIFE OF FORGETFUL MAN

Jocelyn Lee

DIRECTOR'S WIFE STILL 'BRIDE-TO-BE'

Luther Reed in East on Honeymoon But Forgets Marrying Jocelyn Lee

NEW YORK, May 28. (Exclusive) The strange case of a bridegroom who couldn't remember where he was married, or even if he was married, but who nevertheless was registered with his bride at the sedate Plaza Hotel was revealed here today by friends of the couple.

The bridegroom is Luther K. Reed, Hollywood film director, and his will-o'-the-wisp bride is Jocelyn Lee, film actress and former Follies girl whom he met while directing "Shanghai-Bound" in which she played.

Seen at the Plaza, Reed had a naive explanation for his air-rail trip across the continent. It wasn't a honeymoon trip, he explained. No, he flew those 3000 miles merely to see his dear old father who was hit by a taxicab here last week.

Asked about the notice of intention to wed he and Jocelyn filed last Friday in Los Angeles, Reed gravely announced that his father's injury changed his plans.

"I'll probably not marry until after my next picture," was his explanation. "I fly back to start that next Sunday."

M'GONEGAL SELECTION EXPLAINED

Civil Service Commission Lauds Handless Veteran Given Postmastership

WASHINGTON, May 28. (Exclusive)—The appointment and confirmation of Charles C. McGonegal, handless World War veteran, to the postmastership of Bell, Cal., was an outstanding effort to overcome fearful physical handicaps, the Civil Service Commission said today in its first comment on a case which may set a precedent for other disabled veterans seeking offices under the commission's jurisdiction.

The post was awarded McGonegal on the findings of the Civil Service Commission following a long and hard-fought battle by Representative Evans of Glendale to convince the commission that McGonegal was really in the field for its consideration.

McGonegal lost both hands in the war. He entered the competition under the Civil Service Commission for the Bell postmastership as one of eight competitors. After searching investigation the Civil Service Commission certified him as one of the highest three eligibles, his business experience entitling him to third place.

The evidence gathered by the Civil Service Commission showed that in spite of the loss of his hands McGonegal was able to perform by means of mechanical devices all normal manual functions practically as well as anyone.

McGonegal has just taken up his new duties. The salary of the office is $2700 a year.

COURT FIGHT BEGUN OVER BOY PRODIGY

Father Seeks Custody of Ruggiero Ricci, Violinist of San Francisco

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—Nine-year-old Ruggiero Ricci, San Francisco violinist, who attracted attention by his playing in Carnegie Hall and other places, today became the object of legal contention.

His father, Pietro Ricci, obtained a writ of habeas corpus requiring Mary Elizabeth Lackey, guardian of Ruggiero, to show cause why the boy and his brother, Giorgio, also a violinist, should not be given into their father's custody.

Ricci charged the children's health has been endangered by exploitation of their musical talents by Miss Lackey. He also attacked the validity of Miss Lackey's guardianship, saying she was given papers of guardianship in California in 1928 by Judge Rich of Alameda county, who did not have jurisdiction.

He also said the signatures of himself and his wife on the adoption papers were obtained by false representation, and added he and his wife have not seen their children for more than a year, nor received any money from their earnings.

INDIA HAS TWO NEW FLARE-UPS

Comparative Quiet Follows Tuesday Riots, However

Rangoon Dock Strike Leads to Bloodshed and Death

Bombay Reported Returning to Normal Once More

BOMBAY, May 28. (AP)—Turbulent India was much quieter today than yesterday, when disastrous riots in four large cities piled up a toll of eighty-two dead and more than 800 injured, but tension still exists despite the fact there were few casualties.

Two new flare-ups occurred at Rangoon, the Burmese capital, where bloody fighting grew out of a dock laborers' strike Monday and Tuesday. One conflict developed when police opened fire on Moslems who had held up a street car and assaulted Burman passengers. Two persons were killed and many were injured, the rioters meeting the police fire with stones.

POLICE OPEN FIRE

The police opened fire on another occasion when a band of Burmans attacked residents in the vicinity of the contagious diseases hospital, but dispatches here say it has not been determined whether there were any casualties.

Prominent Burmese and Indians have attempted to calm the racial antagonism aroused by the dock strike. They decided that Indian and Burmese coolies should not accept work from shipping companies, except for coaling, until Burmese laborers are given treatment satisfactory to the leaders of both groups.

RETURN TO NORMAL

Bombay resumed its normal aspect today, with police and troops alert to prevent a recurrence of the Moslem disorders in Bhendi Bazaar yesterday, where the fighting developed over a dog and resulted in four deaths and fifty-six injured. The government officially confirmed reports that a dog caused the trouble, asserting that a police sergeant who found a Moslem beating a dog struck the man. The Moslem sought out friends and advanced to police headquarters, where the fighting took place.

At Dacca, where fights between Hindus and Moslems caused the deaths of fourteen and injuries to forty, numbers of residents have fled on account of the disorders and there is a food shortage because shops are remaining closed.

SALT DRIVE CONTINUES

While the recent riots have been principally between dock strikers and Moslems and police, thus not being connected directly with the civil disobedience movement, the salt campaign of the Nationalists is continuing.

Police arrested 117 volunteers today at Dharasana, where numerous salt raids last week caused the arrest and conviction of Mrs. Sarojini Naidu. Twenty-four of them had been arrested at Dungari Station yesterday, but were released and then returned to the camp at Untadi, whence the forays against the Dharasana salt works are launched.

Nahari Parek, one of the leaders of the Dharasana volunteers, was sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment today, while Ambal Patel and Dr. Trishuvandas were given six months' rigorous imprisonment.

Court Grants Damages Over Bank Note Art

PARIS, May 28. (AP)—Art is art, and even such a powerful institution as the Bank of France must respect it, so ruled the Seine Tribunal today.

The bank must pay 1 franc damages, the full amount asked, and remove the name of Luc-Olivier Merson from the 50-franc note which he designed.

Heirs of Merson charged that the manner in which Merson's design was engraved was a veritable mutilation of a work of art. The court ordered that the name of the artist must be removed immediately. The note when issued two years ago drew wide protest from artists and the public.

Tar-and-Feather Group Indicted

HAMMOND (La.) May 28. (AP)—The Tangipahoa parish grand jury tonight returned true bills against the five Starnes brothers who in yesterday's early morning hours tarred and feathered Dr. Sedgie L. Newsom, Hammond dentist.

At about the same time Mrs. Isaac G. Starnes, wife of one of the brothers, denied her husband's accusation of misconduct with the dentist.

NAVAL TREATY ATTACKS AT END

Foes to London Pact Close Their Testimony

Admiral Robison and Reed Have Lively Tilt

Leaders of Both Sides Line Up Forces for Vote

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—The pummeling of the London naval treaty came to a swift termination before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today and Chairman Borah announced the pact will be taken up early next week to consider sending it to the Senate.

Advocates are confident of a large majority to report it favorably.

At the same time, Chairman Hale of the Naval Committee announced he expects to conclude hearings by his group tomorrow.

After a final attack by Rear-Admiral S. S. Robison, superintendent of the Annapolis Naval Academy, and Capt. D. U. Knox, retired, before the Foreign Relations Committee, Senator Johnson, Republican, California, asserted "the case against the treaty is complete and conclusive."

LEADERS LINING UP

Inasmuch as Senate leaders have determined to defer consideration until the special session no efforts for hurried action by the committee are in prospect.

However, leaders in the approaching contest over ratification are busy sizing up their strength. Johnson and Hale, both foes of the treaty, seem more confident of sizable opposition, but the proponents answered, "We have the votes."

Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, one of the delegates to London, intended to call some navy experts who favor the treaty, saying "I could call in admiral after admiral," but he said later, "We have the votes and why should these hearings be prolonged?"

Senator Reed and Admiral Robison engaged in a sharp exchange when the Senator challenged the admiral to compare the present strength of the American and British fleets with the strength allowed by the treaty. Robison did not have the figures at hand. Later he told Reed, "Don't try to catch me in any small discrepancies—I am older than you."

OTHERS TESTIFY

Robison and Knox both asserted the treaty forces America to build a type of cruiser she does not need—the six-inch gun ships—at a sacrifice of eight-inch gun cruisers. They contended it also sacrifices the 5-3 ratio with Japan and abandons American naval policies.

Rear-Admiral Robert E. Coontz, retired; Rear-Admiral L. M. Nulton, commandant of the First Naval District, and Rear-Admiral William L. Rodgers, retired, voiced the same objections before the Naval Committee.

ITALY'S NAVAL BUDGET SHOWS INCREASE

ROME, May 28. (AP)—A new Italian naval construction budget of $77,498,000—an increase over the previous budget of $12,750,000—was announced today simultaneously with a statement that the program did not change Italy's disposition to resume negotiations of armament.

The program, involving $32,000,000 in new construction, was announced in the Chamber of Deputies by Admiral Sirianni, Minister of the Navy.

"The agreements for which we hoped have not been reached," he said, in referring to the London naval conference, "but the possibilities of reopening negotiations have not disappeared. This year's naval program modifies in no respect these possibilities."

Admiral Sirianni said the total tonnage projected for 1930 was not much difference from that of 1929, although preponderance had been given submarines, which are weapons of defense. The program aims at the construction of enough submarines to give Italy thirty-two effective undersea craft, one 10,000-ton cruiser, two 5069-ton cruisers and four 1240-ton destroyers.

San Luis Obispo Quiz Conducted by Maj. Lanagan

SAN LUIS OBISPO, May 28. (AP) Maj. W. H. Lanagan, Los Angeles Harbor district engineer, today conducted a hearing here on the proposed improvement of Morro Bay as a Central California harbor base. Representatives of San Luis Obispo, Kings, Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties presented arguments in favor of the project, estimated to cost $2,194,000.

Mayor Sinsheimer of San Luis Obispo was granted a request for a copy of a 300-page report on the proposals so that the city might file amendments in favor of Port San Luis, the present county harbor.

The information submitted will be sent to Washington for consideration by the War Department.

ACTRESS WINS DIVORCE FROM FLYER SPOUSE

PITTSBURGH, May 28. (AP)—Ida B. Griffith, known on the stage as Brown Mehard, today was represented by her father. Attorney Churchill B. Mehard as counsel in her suit for divorce from William J. Griffith, Jr., Detroit aviator. The case was not contested. It was charged Griffith deserted his wife January 30, 1928. Miss Mehard is 24 years of age, and resides at Sewickley, a suburb. She has a 3-year-old son.

WIFE WINS DIVORCE FROM EX-DRY AGENT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (Exclusive)—Testimony that Martin V. Fahey, former prohibition agent and deputy marshal, was habitually intoxicated and threatened her with a revolver today won Mrs. Cecile F. Fahey of Los Angeles a divorce. She was awarded $500, to be paid at the rate of $25 a month.

UTAH COWS IN ARIZONA'S GRASS RAISE TAX ISSUE

FLAGSTAFF (Ariz.) May 28. (AP) The story of the man whose backyard garden raised prize-winning chickens for his neighbor is being rewritten in the rugged grazing lands of Coconino county.

Coconino, home of the Grand Canyon and some of the roughest land that lies out-of-doors, also boasts some of the greenest pastures in the Kaibab Forest area adjacent to the unfenced Arizona-Utah boundry line. Each spring this grass lures Utah cattle across the State line, where they feed and fatten until the fall round-up.

"If those cows eat Arizona grass," Joseph G. Higginbothem, Coconino County Treasurer, argued, "their owners should pay Arizona taxes."

Today he dispatched Ed Jolly, deputy treasurer, to the Kaibab country with a $5000 delinquent tax bill against Utah stockmen.

"If they don't pay," Joe said to Ed, "bring back enough cattle to balance Coconino's books.

MRS. BERRI REMOVED TO BAY CITY HOSPITAL

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (AP)—Mrs. Arnold Berri, wounded when Melville Sturtevant, government liquor trial witness, was shot at Tomales Bay, Marin county, the 21st inst., was removed from Petaluma to a San Francisco hospital today. Eight Federal guards accompanied the ambulance. Vincent Lurich, ex-convict, and known to police as an underworld character with a long record, is in the Marin County Jail charged with murder. He surrendered following the slaying and said he killed Sturtevant and shot Mrs. Berri in self-defense.

ARMY URGES CHANGE IN NOYO RIVER PLAN

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—The Army Board of Engineers today recommended to the Senate Committee on Commerce a modification of the existing project for Noyo River, California, at an estimated cost of $180,000, with $10,000 annually for maintenance. The modification would provide an entrance channel ten feet deep and 100 feet wide and a channel in the river ten feet deep and 150 feet wide extending to the highway bridge at Noyo. The improvement would be subject to provision cost free by local interests of suitable disposal areas and the right to quarry stone.

TRAFFIC JAMS TO BE FOUGHT

Safety Conference Calls Congestion Useless

More Money to be Used to Combat Evil

Nation Losing Billions on Crowded Streets

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Accepting a view of traffic congestion as "not a necessary evil," the third national conference on street and highway safety today approved recommendations for increased expenditures throughout the United States to combat the problem.

The conference accepted the report of a traffic relief committee, which estimated that "traffic congestion is costing the people of the United States annually in excess of $2,000,000,000 and that the cost is increasing each year." It recommended speedy action by individual communities to correct the situation.

also praised the appointments of Prohibition Commissioner Doran and Seymour Lowman, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement, asserting that "two better" ones could not have been made anywhere in the United States.

Wilson's report opposed transfer of prohibition enforcement from the Treasury to the Justice Department, but Pickett explained the board changed its opinion after President Hoover recommended transfer. The act to carry out the transfer was signed yesterday.

The committee adjourned until next Tuesday when it will question Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, concerning his prohibition activities and his opposition to Alfred E. Smith in the 1928 Presidential campaign.

AS TO CAMPAIGN

Most of the attention of the committee was centered today on the Wilson report which said the board has used "all the energy in the planning what we were capable of in bringing about the election of Herbert Hoover as President and Charles Curtis as Vice-President."

"We had to do this," the report added, "or permit the wet nullifiers to imperil prohibition and all future moral standards for our country. We have no apology to make to anybody."

Wilson asserted he thought some of the leaders "will be spending the balance of their lives trying to explain away their speeches in the last campaign." He named Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, and Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate.

Questioned about the report, Pickett said some of it had been published in periodicals of the board but he did not know whether all of it had been made public.

ONLY GRADUATE HAVING FUN BEING ENTIRE 'CLASS'

WEST BRANCH (Iowa) May 28. (AP)—Miss Gretchen Guernsey of Pittsburg, Kan., has the unusual honor of being the entire graduation class of Scattergood School in President Hoover's home town.

Scattergood is a boarding school supported by the Friends Church and is the only institution of its kind in the State the credits of which are accepted for college entrance.

Reflecting on her singular distinction Miss Guernsey said, "just think, you get to choose your own class colors, your own flowers, be president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of your class, and chairman and sole member of all the committees you care to appoint."

S. T. Harbison, Famous Horse Dealer, Expires

LEXINGTON (Ky.) May 28. (AP) Shelby T. Harbison, Sr., 72 years of age, president of the Harbison Tattersalls Sales Company, famous for its horse sales, died here last night. He was known in blooded horse circles throughout the world, and had sold scores of noted horses both in this country and abroad.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Buford A. Graves, Pasadena, Cal., and Mrs. Frank C. Page, Cedar Hurst, Long Island.

NEW FEAR FELT FOR NORTHCOTT

He Still Refuses Operation Despite Severe Pains

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, May 28. (AP)—Persistently refusing to submit to an appendicitis operation despite severe abdominal pains accompanied by nausea, Gordon Stewart Northcott, condemned Wineville "chicken farm" murderer, today is reported to be in a grave condition in the prison hospital. His temperature is said to be subnormal.

"Fear of the knife is responsible for his refusal to allow us to operate," Dr. L. L. Stanley, prison physician explained this morning.

The condemned youth's mother, herself imprisoned for life for the same slayings, visited him late yesterday and pleaded with him to submit to an operation.

ENGLISH RIOT INJURES NINE

Crowd of 3000 Attempts to Free Prisoners

BRADFORD (Eng.) May 28. (AP)—A serious riot broke out here last night when a crowd of 3000 rushed the Town Hall attempting to rescue seven persons arrested in earlier disorders.

With cheers and boos and cries of "murder the police" the mob met 100 constables. The police used their batons freely and made many arrests. Eight rioters and one constable were injured.

The charge on the Town Hall started from a Communist meeting where a man, apparently a foreigner, said his wife was among seven persons arrested earlier for demonstrations outside a mill where wool combers were working in defiance of the woolen and textile strikes.

FAITH OF SISTER OPENS IRON DOOR OF SING SING

NEW YORK, May 28. (NANA)—Faith, credited with the strength to move mountains, also can open prison doors.

Josephine Santorelli, 18 years of age, did not believe her brother, John, was a thief, even though the law convicted him and sent him to Sing Sing prison. Holding tight to her faith, Josephine went to work in a sweater factory, where she earned $19 a week. She saved every dollar she could. When she had $120 she bought a transcript of the testimony on which her brother was convicted. Then she went right on saving until she had enough to pay a lawyer to handle an appeal of her brother's case.

The new trial was brief and proved to the satisfaction of the judge and jury sitting in Queens County Court that "a judicial error had been made" when Santorelli was found guilty of robbery.

So Brother John is free and Sister Jo is so happy she has forgotten all about those weary hours over sweaters when faith kept her tired fingers from faltering.

Arbuckle Brothers Strive to Get $7,993,799

NEW YORK, May 28. (Exclusive) Six civil actions seeking to recover from the United States government a total of $7,993,799 in income taxes asserted to have been overpaid during the years 1914 to 1923, inclusive, in the name of the individuals comprising the concern of Arbuckle Brothers and its subsidiary, the Charles Williams Stores, Inc., were filed in the United States District Court today.

In giving the cause for the action the complaint states that although the concern showed a profit of more than $38,000,000 from 1913 to 1923, the subsidiary, Charles Williams Stores, Inc., showed a loss of $36,384,561 during the same decade.

"BARKEREST"
Sleeping Equipment

Complete relaxation! The idea upon which the scientific development of "Barkerest" Sleeping Equipment has been built. More scientific progress has been made in the last two years than it did in the five years previous to this period.

The old idea that the bed was simply a certain amount of padding elevated from the floor is wrong. To receive benefits from sleep the body must relax completely—the nerves must relax—and this is done only through the body being supported in a natural position.

Modern scientific equipment as built by Barker Bros. will do this through the use of hundreds of tiny coil springs supported by a base of larger coils to increase the depth of the entire sleeping unit. A soft, downy puff is then added for comfort—just the right thickness to aid the form-fitting qualities of the springs.

CARDINAL LUCON DIES AT RHEIMS

All France Mourns Passing of Venerable Prelate

Heroic Devotion to Cathedral World War Feature

Sacred College Reduced to Fifty-eight Members

RHEIMS (France) May 28. (AP)—Cardinal Lucon, dean of French cardinals, died today after a brief illness. He was 87 years of age.

Messages of sorrow poured in from every city and village and from many foreign countries. President Doumergue sent a personal message of condolence as well as official sympathy, which was expressed through the Prefect of the Department of the Marne.

The press of entire France recalled the venerable cardinal's devotion to Rheims Cathedral and how he remained there when most of the inhabitants of the city fled during the German bombardment at the time of the war.

ACTIVE UNTIL END

Despite his age the cardinal maintained his activity to the last. Only two years ago he took a ride in an airplane and enjoyed the experience.

His funeral will be conducted from the famous cathedral on Monday.

He had been ill with bronchial pneumonia. It was known yesterday that his case was hopeless and the last sacrament was administered by his vicar-general.

Cardinal Lucon was born at Maulevrier, diocese of Angers, in October, 1842. He was sixty-five years in the priesthood and was one of the most loved figures of the Catholic Church in France.

COUNTED SHELLS

The cardinal became known to the world in general from 1914 to 1918 when he remained in Rheims after almost everyone else had abandoned it because of the German bombardment. Cardinal Lucon remained and counted the shells that struck the famous cathedral, keeping close note of the progress of the damage.

Despite the German cannonading the cardinal remained in Rheims and he was later decorated there by President Poincare.

In 1919, Cardinal Lucon conducted President Wilson on a visit to Rheims and two years later he officiated at services commemorating American assistance in the devastated regions. In 1920, he had a pastoral letter read in memory of the American dead.

PAPAL CALL FOR CONSISTORY EXPECTED

VATICAN CITY, May 28. (AP)—Death today at Rheims of Cardinal Lucon reduces the Sacred College to fifty-eight members, twelve under its full complement of seventy, bringing the Italian members nearer equality with non-Italian members. There are now thirty non-Italians in the college and twenty-eight Italians.

It is expected here that Pope Pius will announce a consistory for the creation of new cardinals within a few months.

NINE AMERICANS IN BANDIT PATH

State Department Informed Chinese Railroad Cut

Group Thought to Consist of Lutheran Missionaries

Victory of Rebels Reported, 50,000 Prisoners Taken

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—The State Department was informed today that Chinese bandits had cut the Peiping-Hankow Railroad line just north of Hwayuen Hupeh and danger to Americans at Kikung-Shan, where nine are reported living, is increasing.

The Americans, all thought to be Lutheran missionaries, are Ethel Muriel Akins, Watertown, Minn.; Anna A. Anderson, Holdrege, Neb.; Esther A. Anderson, Lindsborg, Kan.; Ruth E. Gilbertson, Atwater, Minn.; Annie Holm, Underwood, Minn.; Mary Nelson, Minneapolis; Arthur Nihus, Fertile, Iowa; Arna Jubina Quello, Atwater, Minn., and Nora A. Rosvold, Fergus Falls, Minn.

NORTHERN GENERALS DEFEAT NATIONALISTS

SHANGHAI, May 28. (AP)—The northern alliance rebels claimed today to have captured 50,000 prisoners in a crushing defeat of Nationalist government troops in Northern Honan Province. The Nationalists admitted they had suffered a reverse west of Lanfeng, which they evacuated in a retreat eastward.

The government asserted, however, that its air squadrons had executed damaging raids behind the enemy's lines between Kaifeng and Chengchow. Penetrating the northerners' territory as far north as the Yellow River, the planes bombed the railway bridge, damaging piers.

MOVEMENT STOPPED

This stopped the movement of the rebels southward, it was said. Flyers also bombed the northern arsenal at Kunghsien on the Haichow-Tungkwan Railway, west of Chengchow, destroying a power plant.

The government's claims of airplane bombing achievements are more than offset by the northerners' claims of victory of ground troops. The Nationalist forces are asserted to be retreating eastward along the Haichow-Hankow Railway and southward on the tracks of the Peiping-Hankow Railway, both in Honan Province.

MANY PRISONERS

Chengchow, at the junction of the two railroads, and headquarters of the northerners, is said by them to be overflowing with Nationalist prisoners.

The fighting, which began the 8th inst., with Nationalist successes, apparently has definitely turned in the rebels' favor. The northern alliance, headed by Gens. Yen Hsi-Shan and Feng Yu-Hsiang, has stated as its object the overthrow of the "corrupt" Nationalist government and its "dictator," President Chiang Kai-Shek.

QUEEN MARY GREETS SIX AMERICANS

Presentation Marks Last Royal Court Assembly; King George Improving

LONDON, May 28. (AP)—Six American women were among those presented to Queen Mary at tonight's last royal court, which in many ways was the high-water mark of one of London's most thrilling seasons in recent years.

The two and one-half hours' wait in the late afternoon sun and the absence of King George, who is suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, did not in any way detract from the thrill the scores of debutantes had tonight when they were presented.

To the six American girls and women who were among those who received the royal summons, the evening's ceremony was the culmination of many weeks of preparation. The six American women presented included Mrs. Hoffman Nickerson of Oyster Bay, N. Y., Mrs. Franklin Terry of New York City, Miss Maxine Adams of Rexburg, Idaho; Miss Carolyn Apperson Leech of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Jacob Bauer of Chicago and Mrs. Edward Spafford of New York City.

An official Buckingham Palace statement tonight said that King George's rheumatism, which prevented his attendance at the last two courts of the season, shows a definite improvement.

It is believed to be too early yet, however, to say just how soon he will be able to resume his normal mode of living.

SHANGHAI PLAY STIRS CHINESE

Florence Reed Show Meets Unfriendly Gesture

Omaha Celestials May Ask It be Closed

Girl Taken Out of Cast by Countrymen

OMAHA, May 28. (AP)—Members of Omaha's Chinese colony filled the gallery of a local theater Monday night when Florence Reed opened in "The Shanghai Gesture." Today they made gestures quite unlike those in the play—and unfriendly to the Broadway star.

To begin with, they obtained the withdrawal of Agnes Joe, 15 years of age, daughter of an Omaha Chinese restaurant owner, from the cast because they believed it "unfit for a Chinese girl to take part in." Miss Joe had been playing the role of a "caged girl" and had scored a decided hit in her first appearances.

Then the Chinese consulted their attorney, who was to visit the theater tonight as a spectator. If, in his opinion, the play is offensive to the race, steps are to be taken to have the assertedly objectionable parts deleted or to have the show closed.

As a final gesture, a group of Chinese are to decide whether they shall demand that the theater return an elaborate Chinese costume loaned to Miss Reed by members of the colony.

Ruling on Home Act to Benefit War Veterans

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (AP)—Veterans who enlisted in States other than California, but whose families took up domicile in this State during the World War, are eligible to the benefits of the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act.

This was the ruling today of Atty.-Gen. Webb, who informed the Veterans' Welfare Board in Sacramento that "any other holding would be extremely harsh and illiberal."

The case on which the Attorney-General was asked to pass was that of a New York veteran who prior to his discharge sent his family to this State and subsequently followed them here.

NEW CLASH WON BY M'DONALD

Labor Weathers Attack on Unemployment Policy

Liberals and Conservatives Pounce on Premier

Government Plan Disclosed for Relieving Situation

LONDON, May 28. (AP)—The Labor government of Ramsay MacDonald tonight weathered another attempt by the opposition to upset it. The Labor opponents failed by twenty-nine votes to pass a motion calling for reduction of the salary of J. H. Thomas, Lord Privy Seal and unofficial Minister of Unemployment. The vote was 270 against 241 for the motion, which was introduced for the purpose of obtaining debate on England's serious unemployment problem.

This is the second time the question has exercised the House of Commons in the last two weeks. On the first division the government won by a majority of only fifteen.

CLOSE VOTE EXPECTED

The Prime Minister was expected to have a narrow squeeze tonight, owing to the fact that the Liberals yesterday agreed to abstain from voting and the number of left wing Laborites who would adopt a similar attitude was unknown.

When the division was called several left wingers abstained, but a number of others who abstained on the first division changed their attitude and voted for the government.

Sir Oswald Mosley, who resigned from the Cabinet last week in protest over the government's handling of unemployment, voted with the government tonight.

Debate started late today and lasted until nearly midnight, with Mr. MacDonald, Sir Oswald, David Lloyd George, Stanley Baldwin, Winston Churchill and Mr. Thomas participating.

GOVERNMENT BLAMED

Both Liberals and Conservatives blamed the Labor government for failure to alleviate the condition of the jobless, of whom there are nearly 2,000,000.

The Prime Minister replied that the government is not to blame and the situation is a result of world conditions. He called attention to unemployment in the United States and other countries.

Then he asked the House to cooperate on pensions and similar problems and announced that the government is summoning a conference of municipal representatives to discuss the possibility of immediate expansion by co-operation.

It had been generally expected that if the government were defeated tonight Mr. MacDonald would have asked dissolution of Parliament and new elections.

SESSION LASTS ALL NIGHT

A disheveled, weary and cross House took adjournment this forenoon after an all-night session, in which Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, battled for repeal of antidumping legislation.

With frayed nerves and biting tongues given free rein, the members sat it out. The Chancellor told Winston Churchill, the opposition's most persistent financial critic, that he was determined to get his bill through if the House had to sit until this evening. He charged the Conservatives with obstruction and his comments only enraged the opposition the more.

The final vote was 172 to 70, a Labor-Conservative agreement being reached, with the House decimated by the call of sleep.

DOG DIES TRYING TO GIVE ALARM

Discovery of Body After Oklahoma Coliseum Fire Tells Story

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) May 28. (AP)—Foxie, mother of two fine fox terrier pups, tried to tell her master that flames which cost the lives of at least five persons were sweeping Oklahoma City's Coliseum.

George Phillips, 64-year-old Coliseum night watchman, found Foxie's body, one paw poised on the door jamb of the room he had left several hours before the fire was discovered yesterday.

Foxie knew tricks—the best one her habit of pushing open the watchman's door and barking if she thought something was amiss in the great structure.

Phillips also said he discovered Foxie had removed her family from its box home to what she thought was safety.

More Summoned in Pennsylvania Campaign Quiz

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Nine more Pennsylvanians were summoned today by the Senate Campaign Fund Committee to testify Monday on expenditures in the recent Senatorial primary.

They are Joseph G. Armstrong, chairman of the Allegheny county Davis-Brown committee, Pittsburgh; Thomas W. Cunningham, Sheriff of Philadelphia county; James M. Hazlett, chairman of the Republican City Committee of Philadelphia; Samuel Vauclain, treasurer of the State Davis-Brown committee, Philadelphia; Charles R. Hall, Councilman, Philadelphia; J. WAR MOTHERS NEAR SAD GOAL

Gold Star Group Quits Paris for Cemetery Areas

Others Prepare to Depart French Capital

Two Who Have Been Gravely Ill Now Improved

PARIS, May 28. (AP)—Gold Star Mothers of one group who are visiting in France, today began their solemn pilgrimage to the graves of their war dead, while another group had its last look at Paris.

One group went to towns along the battle front for visits to four of the American military cemeteries. The other, the first to come here, will leave Paris tomorrow morning and sail from Cherbourg in the evening on the steamer President Harding.

Two mothers who have been gravely ill are said to be much improved. Mrs. Mary Reynolds of Damascus, O., is said by her physicians to be out of danger. She sat up in bed today and wished to rejoin the group which is now at the front, but she will not be allowed to leave the American hospital for several days yet.

Mrs. Florence Williams of Portsmouth, O., who is at a Verdun hotel suffering from pneumonia, is described as still in a "serious condition," but she also has shown a considerable improvement.

Fine weather finally has come and the doctors are counting on the sunshine to maintain the good health records set by nearly all the 350 mothers of the two groups.

WAR MOTHERS VISIT BELGIAN TOMB

BRUSSELS, May 28. (AP)—Although no official program had been evolved for them today, the mothers and wives of the veterans went to the Rue Royale where Belgium's Unknown Warrior is buried and placed a wreath on the tomb.

A great throng quickly gathered when the war mothers appeared and stood, uncovered, and with tear-filled eyes, during the brief ceremony.

The grace of the unscheduled act appeared greatly to affect the Belgian people.

FORD URGES HIGHER PAY IN INDUSTRY

Intensive Development of Agriculture Also Advised to Counteract Slump

DETROIT, May 28. (AP)—The shortest cut to relief from the present business depression, in the opinion of Henry Ford, is an intensive development of agriculture and manufacture, looking to quantity production from the soil.

"This is not just a fanciful idea," Mr. Ford told the Associated Press today. "It is the way out of stagnation."

Coupling with this the statement that "it will take just as long to get rid of the depression as it took to accumulate it," Mr. Ford added:

"We need to keep up the people's spirit and you can not do that with talk; you must do it by action. One expenditure made in faith in the future is worth all the words any one can say. Issuing optimistic statements on the one hand and lowering wages on the other is a sure way to prevent betterment. This is no time to lower wages. Those who are lowering wages now don't know what they're doing. They are hitting the country when she is down. They will see the time when wages will be higher than they ever have been."

"Can any one man, President Hoover for example, do anything to hasten the return of business prosperity?" Mr. Ford was asked.

"President Hoover has done everything anyone could do to bring about improvement in business and industry," he replied. "Everything President Hoover has advised or tried to put into effect has been sound. He asked industry and business to keep wages up. He's right, and he knows what he is talking about. Wages are too low everywhere. This country exists on the pay envelope. There is where we must begin."

Ship's Officers Cleared on Fire

HONOLULU, May 28. (AP)—Capt. R. T. Bain and Clarence King of the local Board of Federal Inspectors of Steam Vessels today held an inquiry into the cause of a fire which damaged the liner City of Honolulu at her pier here last Sunday. After hearing testimony of the steamship's officers the steamboat inspectors exonerated them from blame.

Cause of the fire was not developed but testimony indicated the blaze started amidships near the barber shop or adjacent musicians' quarters.

ARIZONA BISHOP HAS CHANCE OF RECOVERY

PHOENIX, May 28. (AP) — Physicians at St. Joseph's Hospital reported here tonight that Bishop Daniel J. Gercke of the Catholic diocese of Arizona, seriously ill with pneumonia, has "better than an even chance for recovery." Unless further complications arise the prelate is expected to improve slowly, hospital attendants said.

ROCKEFELLER GIVES AWARDS TO ARTISANS

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—Addressing a company of union artisans as "fellow-workers," John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today assisted in the presentation of diplomas and gold buttons to twenty workmen for superior craftsmanship on the Riverside Church now nearing completion.

He praised them as "coworkers in building a great monument."

Sabbath Affects Royalty as Well as Commoners, Says Preacher in Scotland

EDINBURGH, May 28. (AP)—Rev. Kenneth Macrae Skye is distressed that the Prince of Wales played golf recently with Bobby Jones on Sunday.

He told the assembly of the Free Church of Scotland that the sabbath affects Kings and Princes as well as commoners.

Ex-Ballplayer's Sharp Eyes Trap Theft Suspect

REDWOOD CITY, May 28. (AP)—William (Bill) Lange, former Chicago Cubs ball player, proved today his eyes are still sharp. As a result Edward Saunders, 19 years of age, of Denver, was in the County Jail here as a suspected burglar.

When Lange, driving from his home in Millbrae to Redwood City today, picked up a youth who hailed him for a ride, he recognized a resemblance to the description given by a gardener of a youth who had entered the Lange home Sunday and escaped with a ring, a family heirloom.

Lange drove to the County Jail. There a ring, identified by Lange as the one stolen, was found in the youth's pocket.

Friede Fined on Passage From Dreiser Novel

Dealer Trapped Into Getting Banned Volume Loses

BOSTON, May 28. (AP)—Censorship of books by passages, instead of their entire content, has been upheld by the State Supreme Court.

As a result of the court's decision, Donald S. Friede, New York publisher, must pay a $300 fine imposed on him after his conviction by a Superior Court jury in April, 1929, of selling to a Boston police officer a copy of Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy."

Mr. Friede had filed an exception to the verdict upon the refusal of Judge Hayes to allow the contents of the two volumes to be read to the jury. Only passages asserted by the commonwealth to contain obscene, indecent or impure language tending to corrupt the morals of youth, were read.

The Supreme Court also overruled the appeal of James A. Delacey, manager of a Cambridge bookshop, who had been found guilty of selling D. H. Lawrence's "Lady Chatterly's Lover." He contended the verdict was unjust as he had been entrapped by an officer of the Watch and Ward Society into obtaining the requested volume. A sentence of one month in the House of Correction and a fine of $500 were imposed on Delacey last December.

YOSEMITE PARK GETS NEW LAND

Wilbur Announces Purchase and Rockefeller Aid

Timbered Tract of 13,000 Acres Added by Deal

Hoover Includes Tract by Executive Proclamation

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 28. (Exclusive)—Final closing of the deal which will vest in the United States title to approximately 13,000 acres of privately owned timber land in Yosemite National Park was announced today by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur. The lands in question contain superb sugar and yellow pine forests which last summer were marked for early lumbering unless prompt steps were taken to save them.

The purchase price of approximately $3,300,000 was shared on a fifty-fifty basis by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the Federal government.

HOOVER SIGNS ACT

Funds for the government's share were carried in the Interior Department Appropriation Act just signed by the President.

President Hoover on April 14, last, when the closing of the deal was assured, by proclamation added to the Yosemite that portion of the lands lying outside the park, amounting in all to 7725 acres and containing some of the finest sugar and yellow pine stands of the region. In anticipation of the acquisition of the lands, for which Mr. Rockefeller had already pledged half the purchase price, Congress by act of March 2, 1929, had authorized their addition to the park by proclamation when and if acquired.

DEBT OF GRATITUDE

The nation as a whole and particularly future visitors to Yosemite National Park who will drive along the new Big Oak Flat road between groves of the great trees, owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Rockefeller and to those members of Congress, particularly Representative Cramton of Michigan, who were so far-sighted and patriotic as to make possible this saving of national beauty. Credit is also due the officials of the Sugar Pine Lumber Company, who withheld lumbering for a considerable period of time while negotiations were in progress, and who in the final settlement left out of consideration any idea of prospective profits.

Acquisition of these Yosemite private holdings is but the first step in the avowed purpose of Congress to eliminate as rapidly as possible all private ownership within national park boundaries. In all such eliminations, however, the stipulation has been made that only half the purchase price can be defrayed from Federal funds, depending upon private contributions for the remainder.

'YOU GO AND FRY-ERS' PUT ON GRIDDLE

Vice-President Curtis Joins in Laugh as Pat Harrison Reads About Hoax

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Vice-President Curtis joined with the Senate in uproarious laughter today as a newspaper account of the sending of letters by Curtis and other Republican leaders to a dinner in honor of a Mythical Hugo N. Frye was read to the Senate.

Senator Harrison, a Democrat, did the reading. The story related how students at Cornell had written to Republican leaders inviting them to a dinner for the supposed pillar of the Republican party years ago, and how they had received replies eulogizing "Frye."

Senators on both sides of the chamber laughed, and Mr. Curtis rubbing his hand over a grinning face, finally joined in the outburst as he rapped for order.

Harrison observed, in offering the newspaper story, that "'you go and fry' is very appropriate name for a Republican organization."

There was no further comment. Secretary Davis, Senator Grundy and Representative Ruth Pratt of New York are asserted to have joined in paying tribute to Frye.

Gen. Russell Leaves Haiti

PORT AU PRINCE (Haiti) May 28. (AP)—Brig.-Gen. John H. Russell, United States High Commissioner in Haiti, sailed today for a two months' stay in the United States. He will confer with the State Department and then will go on a vacation.

BRITONS HEAR CHICAGO JUDGE ON EXECUTIONS

LONDON, May 28. (AP)—Judge Kavanaugh of Chicago told a special committee on capital punishment at the House of Commons today that he favors the death sentence, although there are certain circumstances where it is not advisable.

"Every time the death sentence is not carried out, the murder rate goes up," he said. "And every time there is an execution the murder rate goes down."

JEWELERS TABOOING "BUTTON-ON" SHIRTS

UTICA (N. Y.) May 28. (AP)—Shirts with attached buttons on the neckband and cuffs are taboo so far as members of the New York State Jewelers' Association are concerned. The association today passed a resolution calling on members to refuse to buy such apparel on the ground that shirts made for collar buttons and cuff links better promote the jewelery business.

Advertiser seeks partner with $5000 to invest, who can take active or silent partnership in operating auto service shop.

STATE WILL STEP OUT OF LAND DEAL

Half Million May be Salvaged from Delhi Colony Investment

SACRAMENTO, May 28. (AP)—Plans to end the State's participation in affairs of the Delhi Land Colony immediately were announced by the State Land Settlement Board here today. The plans have been almost unanimously approved by the Delhi settlers, Charles W. Cleary, chief of the land settlement division, announced.

Under the proposed adjustment plan the State will hold deeds of trust and notes from the settlers for deferred balances owing for their land, Cleary explained.

Cleary said the State hoped to salvage $540,000 from its investment of $2,540,000 in the colony in getting out of the land-settlement business under the mandate of the 1929 Legislature.

The adjustment is contingent upon formation without delay of an improvement district to take over the colony irrigation system, Cleary said. Ways and means for consummating immediately the readjustment program will be announced soon.

INSANITY PLEA LAW SUSTAINED

State Supreme Court Holds Statute Constitutional

Ruling Given in Merwin and Mary Slayback Cases

Detention in Hospital Not Meant as Punishment

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (AP)—Ruling in the May Slayback and James E. Merwin cases, the State Supreme Court today held to be constitutional the section of the Penal Code providing that a person adjudged not guilty of murder by reason of insanity shall be confined to a hospital for the insane for one year before an application for discharge may be entertained by any court.

Associate Justice Curtis wrote the opinion, which was concurred in by the entire court.

The court held that "a statute which provides that a person acquitted of a crime by reason of insanity at the time the offense was committed may be without any further hearing committed to a place of confinement, is valid and is not subject to the objection that it is unconstitutional on the ground that due process of law has not been accorded to the accused.

"We see no reason to overturn the Legislature's action. The restraint and detention is not for the purpose of inflicting punishment upon a defendant, but to permit a sufficient length of time to elapse to enable those who may be called upon to pass upon the insanity of the patient to intelligently give their judgment as to whether or not he has recovered his reason."

Mrs. Slayback was indicted for the slaying of her estranged husband, Herman Slayback, at Sacramento, June 22, 1929. Merwin was charged with the slaying of his mother-in-law, Mrs. E. H. Carlton, at Santa Rosa, March 8, 1928. Under Section 1026 of the Penal Code of 1927 both entered two pleas—not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity. Both were found guilty of second-degree murder but on the second plea were found not guilty by reason of insanity.

[THEY EXPECTED ★JUVENILE WATER]

"For weeks, no less, I had been planning to order Arrowhead Spring Water but something always made me forget to do it. Then came the fateful evening when I entertained the exclusive Swope-Swopingtons. It was my big opportunity to become socially prominent—until, to my great surprise, they asked for a drink of water! Imagine my embarrassment! When they saw me draw the water from the faucet Mrs. Swope-Swopington nudged her distinguished husband and whispered, 'Can you fawncy such a thing, my deah! No Juvenile water!'"

BUT, IN ALL SERIOUSNESS—refreshing Arrowhead Spring Water is an acknowledged mark of true hospitality. Guests are quick to appreciate its finer qualities—because it is "juvenile." Arrowhead is naturally formed from hydrogen and dissolved oxygen—pure H_2O, qualifying it as a genuine "juvenile" water. In bubbling up through miles of granite, it acquires the minerals vital to normal health. It also derives a better taste; a more invigorating buoyancy. These are reasons why Arrowhead is served in the finest homes. Have a demi john delivered to your home. Drink at least six glasses daily!

*Juvenile drinking water is the geological term for virgin-pure water coming from profound depths, wherein nature's Hydrogen rising through miles of granite dissolves with Oxygen, forming naturally pure H_2O. MORE PROTECTION FAVORED

Moffett turned these queries into reasons why the airship base should be at San Francisco instead of San Diego for the most part but agreed with the Representative that greater protection should be given the Puget Sound country.

While the Washingtonian's cross-examination did not hit at Camp Kearny directly it did offer an argument which would split the naval committee into a still greater number of factions. There is already a group favoring the establishment of a base in the middle Southwest, another favoring a base in the East, beside the California Sunnyvale and Camp Kearny groups, as well as a number of committee members who show no great interest in the determination of the location of the base. Miller's cross-questioning today also gave the Northern California site group an additional "lever" for their arguments through Moffett's answers that the Representative's arguments are further reason for locating the base at Sunnyvale.

Moffett will return to the stand tomorrow.

A woman upbraided Dale and his policemen companions for violating the law and reminded them that recently State and Muncie police rounded up sixty or seventy motorists who were guilty of similar infractions and compelled them to pay fines.

"I am no better than the others," Dale told City Judge Mann, when the latter asked him if he was "serious" about being fined. "I did not know the tail light on my car was out, but probably most of those others did not know their lights were out either."

Secret Compartment in Car Full of Contraband

Two Men Held, 83 Gallons of Alcohol Confiscated

State Highway Patrol Makes West Riverside Haul

RIVERSIDE, May 28.—California Highway Patrolmen Tyson and Henderson last night captured in West Riverside an ornate and expensive rum-running car, jailed two men and confiscated eighty-three gallons of high-test whisky, most of which they removed from secret compartments whose trapdoors were controlled by electric push buttons near the driver's seat.

A fictitious operator's card given Henderson at a headlight test by one of the men aroused the officer's suspicion and caused the search of the speedy and costly sedan. The two held at the County Jail on charges of possession and transportation of liquor said they are George Amato, 41 years of age, fish dealer of 564 Lombard street, San Francisco, and Richie Campi, 30, tire salesman, of 704 Filbert street, San Francisco.

CARD ALTERED

Tyson and Henderson were stationed near the West Riverside bridge, testing headlights, when the powerful sedan rolled up and stopped. Henderson asked the driver for his operator's license. When it was handed to him, Henderson saw at once the card had been altered.

Calling his brother officer to the car, Henderson consulted with him about what action should be taken. As has been the custom in former light "raids," Tyson recommended that the two be taken into Justice Court at once. Acting on a hunch, however, the two patrolmen asked the men to step from the car. Henderson entered the front compartment and saw the tonneau which apparently was filled and covered with a robe. Lifting this, his nostrils were smitten by the odor of warm alcohol. His hand fell on a nest of five-gallon cans whose tin sides were warm. Removal of a cap of one can convinced him the cargo was contraband. Nine of the cans were found.

The two men were placed under arrest and were transferred to the County Jail where they were booked on the liquor law charge. The large sedan was driven to the jail and after the officers had completed booking the two prisoners they returned to the machine for another check.

HIDDEN COMPARTMENT SEEN

Rugs on the floors both in front and back were taken up in the search. Underneath them were trapdoors. After some difficulty in forcing the doors open, the officers found what they declared one of the cleverest liquor-carrying arrangements yet discovered in this county. The owners of the car had underlaid the whole chassis with a hidden compartment fed with flat gallon cans through the two trap doors. These, the officers found, were controlled by electric switches concealed on the under side of the dashboard near the driver's seat.

Thirty-nine of the gallon containers were removed from the magazine, augmenting the forty-five gallons taken from the rear of the car at the scene of the arrest.

WATER DISTRICT MEN MEET WITH COUNCIL

TORRANCE, May 28.—Members of the Metropolitan Water District have been invited to meet with the City Council at its meeting of June 10 for a discussion of the organization's activities and presentation of plans by which this district can share in the water to be made available by Boulder Dam. The meeting will be held at the Woman's Club and the public is invited to attend.

AUXILIARY LEADER SPEAKS

Mrs. Donald Macrae, National President of American Legion Sister Organization, at Santa Ana

SANTA ANA, May 28.—Officials of the American Legion Auxiliary in Southern California, headed by Mrs. Margaret Kaeding of Glendale, State President, extended a warm welcome here today to Mrs. Donald Macrae, National President, who came here from San Diego on her official visit to California.

Mrs. Ethel Marsh of Upland, president of the twenty-first district auxiliary, presided over a luncheon given in honor of the noted visitor. From here Mrs. MacRae will go to Los Angeles.

Mrs. MacRae declared that the chief purpose of the auxiliary is the welfare of the disabled veterans of the World War, nearly 30,000 of whom are receiving treatment in government hospitals, and the many thousands of others who face the unequal struggle of supporting themselves and their families under the handicap of their war disabilities.

"The auxiliary feels very keenly its responsibility toward these men and everything it can do to bring happiness into their lives and to help them in their struggle will be done," she said.

Despite the natural desire for peace among nations, the auxiliary has not shut its eyes to the possibility of wars, a fact which must be faced, she declared.

Concerning peace and disarmament movements, she said: "We have not joined the sentimental crusade for the disarming of America. Our war experiences were too real and the terrible cost of unpreparedness was driven home to us too forcefully. We have raised our voices against the pacifistic clamor for the scrapping of our national defense and are rallying the patriotic women of the country with us in a firm stand for the maintenance of adequate defensive forces until the time when all nations can disarm in security."

"PLAYING HOOKEY" FATAL

Naval Lieutenant Recovers Body of Boy Drowned in Swimming Hole Below Lake Hodges Dam

SAN DIEGO, May 28.—Lieut. A. H. Brown, U.S.N., equipped with a diving suit, dove into a hole below Lake Hodges Dam this afternoon and recovered the body of Henry Lusardi, 18 years of age, drowned there yesterday while swimming with several companions. Only fifteen minutes were required to bring the body to the surface after Brown had located it. The hole is about four miles below the lake, according to Undersheriff Oliver Sexson, and is 75x200 feet and about nineteen feet deep.

Attempts to drag the hole for the body proved futile, due to the rocky bottom and the fact that the boy was wearing no clothes to which the grappling hooks might attach, Sexson said.

Lusardi and his companions played "hookey" from Escondido High School to make the swimming expedition, the Sheriff's office found, and Lusardi is believed to have been overcome with cramps.

According to his companions, he waded in up to his waist, gave a sudden lunge forward, shrieked and disappeared from sight in the water, which is said to be exceedingly cold for this time of year.

Wilbur Horton, 17; Allen Hoagland, 15; Glen Baker, 17; Elmer Tyler, 16, and another unnamed student, plunged into the pool when the swimmer sank but were unable to reach him.

Lusardi lived with his family in the Bernardo district, about a mile from the pool.

Ministers of Orange Belt in Picnic Session

REDLANDS, May 28.—Sixty representatives of the Orange Belt Association of Methodist Episcopal Ministers met in Sylvan Park here yesterday for an all-day meeting and social program. The First Methodist and Grace Methodist churches of this city were hosts.

The morning conference was opened with a devotional service, led by Dr. J. A. Stavely of Upland. The remainder of the session was given over to Dr. W. C. Buckner, Pasadena district superintendent, who spoke on the observations he had made of ministers and their problems in the last six years. Dr. Buckner is just completing his six-year term as superintendent of the district and, in accordance with the association rules, will return to the pastorate at the close of his term. He explained in his talk also the type of minister a man ought to be, as discovered in his work.

Women of the host churches served a picnic lunch in the park at noon. The afternoon was spent in social fellowship and in discussing the morning session.

High school students will cast their ballots for Bob Graber and David Meek for the presidency of the high school student body, and Sam Maxcy and Oscar Baer received nominations for president of the Jaysee student body. Other high-school nominations are John Merkle and Betty Lee Bodenhamer, vice-president; Lelia Frost, Marjorie Taylor for secretary; Mary Hendrickson, John Tate for treasurer; Ronald Ingold, James Donnelly, Eddie Hughes, business manager; Paul Cushing, Virginia Moore, "red" cross for yell leader.

Santa Barbara Guard Unit in Service Now

SANTA BARBARA, May 28.—Santa Barbara today officially is the home of a unit of the California National Guard. It is Battery E, One Hundred and Forty-third Field (horse) Artillery, of the Sixty-fifth Artillery Brigade.

Sixty-six enlisted men and three officers were mustered into the service by Maj. W. S. Winton, regular Army inspector, last night, at the Chamber of Commerce. There were twelve applicants present who were not admitted because the unit was limited to sixty-six men.

The unit, which replaces a battery recently mustered out in Livermore, is commanded by Capt. Ralph M. Coane, First Lieutenant A. W. Miller, Second Lieutenant R. E. Cole and Second Lieutenant A. S. Jarecki.

Adjt.-Gen. R. E. Mitelstaedt and Col. O. E. Sandman, commanding officer of the regiment, attended the ceremony, flying here from the north yesterday. Gen. Mittelstaedt flew from Sacramento and Col. Sandman from Stockton.

They, together with Maj. Winton, were honor guests at a dinner given in Russel's by the local chapter of the Officers Reserve Corps before the mustering ceremony. More than forty attended the dinner, including Mayor T. R. Finley and other city and civic organization officials.

CLAREMONT, May 28.—The rollicking comic opera, "Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore" will be presented Thursday evening as the annual opera of the Pomona College choir. The famous Gilbert and Sullivan sea performance will be given in the Greek open-air theater here by the choir, composed of 100 voices.

"Pinafore," which has won wide fame as a light opera, is under the direction of Profs. Ralph H. Lyman and Joseph W. Clokey, both of the Pomona College music department. Prof. Lyman, director of the Pomona men's glee club, will supervise the musical scores, and his codirector will be in charge of the dramatic presentation. Prof. Clokey is author of several light operas.

The orchestra is composed largely of first-chair men of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. It will be managed by Julius Bierlich.

Cartwright Hunter of Claremant portrays the lead of Ralph Rackstraw. He is supported by Ione Anderson as Josephine; William Matchan of Santa Maria, Capt. Corcoran; Florence Huston of Pasadena, Little Butterfly, a Portsmouth bumboat woman; Clark Smith of Claremont, Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B.; Alec Hammond of Riverside, Dick Deadeye, and others.

The opera will be produced in costume of 1850, with hoopskirts predominating. Sets and art direction will be executed by Charles Dickinson, '32. Tickets may be purchased at Bridges Hall box office any day from 1 to 4 p.m.

Mexican Hero of Fire in Upland

UPLAND, May 28.—An unidentified Mexican proved to be a hero shortly after midnight last night, when the Walter E. Combs home at 112 Craig street, was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Combs and three children were sleeping soundly when, from an unknown origin, the house burst into flames.

Attracted by the fire, the Mexican burst into the home and awakened the family. The family of five rushed out of the house just as the walls and roof fell in.

The home was a total loss, and very few personal belongings were saved.

Identity of the Mexican who saved the family from destruction was not learned.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN AT PASADENA SHOW

PASADENA, May 28.—Extraordinary precautions will be taken by officials of the Pasadena Kennel Club, to prevent any tampering with the entrants in the nineteenth annual bench show of the club which will be staged on June 6 and 7, according to Frank Foster Davis, secretary of the organization.

Davis announced yesterday that special guards will be engaged for the days the show is in progress, even though the Pasadena club is extremely confident there is no danger of any repetition of the epidemic which cost the lives of several highly valuable dogs recently.

There is no falling-off in interest among dog exhibitors, and even Harold Lloyd, who lost his champion, Illo von der Rhon, valued at $2500, through poisoning yesterday, entered ten dogs in the show, the largest number he has benched for a year.

CHURCH WOULD KEEP INGLEWOOD PASTOR

INGLEWOOD, May 28.—Unanimous invitation to return to the pastorate he has occupied for three years was extended to Rev. Thomas L. Burden of the First Methodist Church here at the annual meeting of that organization last evening. This invitation will go in the form of a request to the annual Methodist conference to be held June 24 in Long Beach, and it is hoped locally that Mr. Burden will be again placed in charge of the church here, membership of which has increased by 200 since he came, and making a total of 700 members.

A second honor has just been accorded Rev. Burden by President E. B. Robertson of Wesley College, Grand Forks, N. D., who has appointed the pastor a delegate to represent the college at the semicentennial of the University of Southern California on June 4.

MEXICAN WOMAN ASKS AID IN FINDING SON

BELL, May 28.—City Judge I. N. Vaughn, who also is City Clerk, received a letter from "somewhere in Mexico" which he was unable to read. He summoned his assistant, Mrs. Corwin, but she also was unable to tell what it was all about. Finally a translator was secured and it was learned that an aged mother away down in Mexico wanted to locate her boy, whose name is Jose Cabodas. The letter was written by Marie Guadalupe Mendez de Cabodas, and the address given was "a de Insurgentes Numero 70.0." The missive was sent from Zamora, Michoacan. It stated that the parent believed her son to be in this city or Cudahy, and she wishes to hear from him.

First Junior Men's Recital at University Declared Artistic Success

REDLANDS, May 28.—The first junior men's recital presented at the University of Redlands was heard this evening when Frank Howard, tenor, and Delno Gillogly, violinist, gave their joint recital in the Memorial Chapel there. The concert was declared an artistic success by music lovers.

FRANK HOWARD

Both young men are considered outstanding students in the music department, and their program included numbers not often attempted by other than professionals. Gillogly played all three movements of the Mendelssohn Concerto in E Minor, as well as a group of modern numbers. Frank Howard's selections ranged from the music of Mozart and Verdi to that of Tschaikowsky.

DELNO GILLOGLY

Gillogly was accompanied by Miss Mary Lehigh, who is an accomplished pianist as well as a very sensitive accompanist. Miss Theresa Schermerhorn accompanied Howard. She has accompanied for Howard for several years. Both young women are music students at the University of Redlands.

Wistaria Fete Money Maker, Says Report

SIERRA MADRE, May 28.—Almost $10,000 was left here by visitors to the Wistaria Fete, according to compiled figures of Miss Clara Sykes, treasurer of the fete committee. The Sierra Madre Woman's Club, under the guidance of Mrs. J. H. Robertson, at that time president, sponsored the fete, which netted them $6275.96, and $2182.99 to the volunteer firemen, who had charge of parking facilities.

The completed report of Miss Sykes shows a balance of $1243.47, after $5032.49 in expenses had been paid, while the firemen's balance after expenses were paid amounted to $988.47. The firemen will devote the greater part of their earnings at the fete to new uniforms, it was announced by the department heads.

The Woman's Club is now making plans for a fall flower show and a bigger and better wistaria fete next spring.

Miss Sykes, after closing her report, left this morning as a delegate to the biennial convention of Federated Women's Clubs to be held at Denver. Following her stay in Colorado, she plans to make an extensive tour through the East.

Men in Shorts Give Lesson in Solid Comfort

REDLANDS, May 28.—The very latest in summer attire for men was demonstrated by Y's men at their meeting last night when six of the members of the club appeared in shorts, such as are worn in India and tropical countries by most white men.

Frank Mitten, president of the club, who was one of the six so attired, stated that it was done more to show that a sensible attire of shorts, with sport shirts, would be the thing for the men of Southern California.

"We couldn't be accused of wanting to do it to show our "limbs" or anything of the kind, we admit they are terrible to look upon, but it is comfort we are seeking," he said.

Epic Conflict Reproduced

Picturesque, romantic and comic characters are to vie with each other for honors in the forthcoming presentation of "Felicita," epic of the battle of San Pasqual, to be repeated this year at Escondido, but in the spring of the year instead of the fall, as has been the custom heretofore. The oval in center is Mildred Voorhees, who will portray the title role. The picture at left shows Ted Watterwon (left,) and Melville Howell, a pair who will add comic relief to the thrilling production. Next comes J. W. Barr as Capt. Andres Pico, and at right, Walter Thrasher as Jontho, Indian chieftain.

ESCONDIDO, May 28.—Escondido is again preparing for its annual presentation of "Felicita," an epic of the Battle of San Pasqual. Five performances will be given this year, the first presentation begin scheduled for the afternoon of Memorial Day. There will also be performances Saturday and Sunday, and Saturday and Sunday, June 7 and 8.

Heretofore "Felicita" has been presented during September in conjunction with the annual Grape Day celebration here. This year the Escondido Chamber of Commerce has taken over the management of the play and has selected the spring of the year for presentation.

Thousands from all sections of the State are expected to be in attendance at the five performances. Much recognition has been given the play and Escondidans are proud of the fact that Harry Carr, famous for the Lancer column of the Los Angeles Times, has described the play as one of the greatest that he has ever seen. After seeing the Escondido production he wrote: "With the possible exception of the annual Ramona Pageant at Hemet I don't believe that there is anything in the world like the performance of 'Felicita' given in a woodland setting at Escondido last week." Many other well-known critics have been warm in their praise of the play.

Excellent accommodations will be afforded those who come her for the performances. Several hundred acres are available for parking of cars.

The "Felicita" pageant bowl is located between Escondido and Lake Hodges, west of the Inland Highway. The highway will be well posted with directions for motorists.

CANINE ADOPTS RABBIT FAMILY

Maywood Airedale Fathers Bunnies, but Disappointed When They Refuse Bone

MAYWOOD, May 28.—The large, fierce-looking airedale, known as Jim, and owned by J. H. Edgerton, who resides near Atlantic avenue, in this city, has adopted a family consisting of a number of rabbits, and wheer he secured the bunnies is more than Edgerton knows.

The dog, whiskers and all, at times is seen watching his "adopted children" hopping around the yard, and seems mystified at the manner in which they get "over the ground."

He also seems disappointed, somewhat, when he arrives with a large bone, and the adopted family looks on and refuses to partake.

At night, he gathers his family into their shelter and sees to it that they remain there until morning.

MOTORITE was developed by the Union Oil Company to meet the high speed requirements of our modern high compression motors.

It is refined by an electrically controlled, secret refining process that assures a uniform high quality with minimum chance of human error.

38 Rigid Tests

In addition to this positive refining control, MOTORITE is subjected to 38 specific checks or analyses before it reaches the crankcase of your high compression car.

200 Extra MILES

There is no oil quite like MOTORITE. Tests in standard makes of automobiles prove that you can easily get 200 extra miles out of a crankcase full. Thus with MOTORITE you drain at 200 miles farther than you have been in the habit of doing.

Secure MOTORITE at any UNION OIL COMPANY service station, or where you see the MOTORITE sign. It's only 25c a quart.

Use it exclusively with UNION-ETHYL, for efficient mileage in high compression motoring.

MOTORITE FACTS
at a glance

1. MOTORITE, because of its high adsorptive or clinging quality, seals all the compression in your motor and enables you to obtain the full power that the designer of your car intended.
2. MOTORITE resists dilution by "giving up" stray gasoline in the form of vapor without harming the lubrication efficiency of the oil.
3. MOTORITE possesses a variable viscosity that guarantees 100% efficient lubrication at every working temperature.
4. MOTORITE has a great capacity for carrying away and dissipating heat. On long drives at sustained high speeds it keeps your motor cool.
5. MOTORITE is super oily or super slippery and thus minimizes friction.
6. MOTORITE deposits less carbon and only the soft, fluffy kind.
7. MOTORITE contains no acid-forming properties that might corrode your motor. Used consistently it means fewer engine repairs.

FILM COMPANY BRANCHING OUT

New Laboratory on Program of Consolidated

Estimated Cost of Project Set at $300,000

Output of Plants Slightly Up on Last Year

Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., is planning the construction of a new safety-first laboratory on its Seward-street property in Hollywood which will be equipped to handle all types of films, George Yates, vice-president of the company, stated yesterday. The company expects to complete its experimental work on the Vitacolor process and to start production of colored films by next fall.

The new laboratory, according to present plans, will comprise two buildings each 250 feet wide and 300 feet in length and each costing about $300,000, Mr. Yates said. The company has recently completed a new laboratory in New York and the best features of that plant will be incorporated in the Hollywood buildings, which will be designed to afford the greatest degree of safety to employees and to reduce fire hazard to a minimum.

It is the intention of the company to concentrate its Hollywood activities eventually at the Seward-street location. The new construction program will probably be started by fall, according to Mr. Yates.

On June 1, next, the physical merger of the assets and business of the Bennett Film Laboratory, Inc., will be formally completed and thereafter that unit will be operated in its plant on Santa Monica Boulevard under the name of Consolidated Film Industries, Inc.

The company's Melrose-avenue plant, which was damaged by fire, will be remodeled and rented, Mr. Yates said. He added that the fire did not curtail the company's production, which was continued in the other plants.

The current volume of footage in the Hollywood plants is running slightly higher than for the same period last year and, while the earnings statements of the company include both the Hollywood and eastern operations, Mr. Yates said that all indications point to substantially higher earnings for the company this year.

In the first quarter of this year Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., reported net income of $667,158 after depreciation and Federal taxes, equal to 95 cents a share on 300,000 participating preferred shares and to 95 cents a share on 400,000 common shares, as against $576,853, or 82 cents a share on the two classes of stock in the 1929 quarter.

Bar Silver Off to Record Low

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—Climaxing the gradual decline of the past few weeks, bar silver in both the New York and London markets dropped to a low price for all time today. New York declined ½ cent to 38 3-4 cents an ounce, and London silver last 1-4d to touch 18d. The declines followed a previous drop on Monday, and culminated a prolonged period of weakness in the price of silver this year.

The drop was influenced, Handy & Harman, New York bullion firm, said, by the depressing conditions in China which have resulted in a forced importation of rice with a consequent surplus of Chinese silver exchange, and the political strife in India, which has left merchants unwilling to make fresh commitments.

Pacific Public Service Net for Year Reported at $834,838

Pacific Public Service Company and subsidiaries reported yesterday consolidated net profits for the year closed February 28, last, of $834,838 after all charges including dividends on preferred stocks of subsidiary units, interest, depreciation, amortization and reserves for Federal income taxes.

These earnings are equivalent to $2.51 a share on the 332,106 shares of Class A stock outstanding at the end of the period and, after allowing for the participating features with the Class B stock, are equivalent to $1.45 per Class A share and $1.17 a share on 300,000 shares of Class B stock. The Class B stock is owned entirely by the Standard Oil Company of California and Pacific Lighting Corporation.

While the statement showed no comparison of fixed charges with the corresponding period last year, the gross income was reported at $5,559,457, an increase of $249,680, and the net operating income increased $80,741 to a total of $1,918,034. Other income was $32,956 higher than the previous year at $221,759, bringing the net before charges to $2,139,793, an increase of $113,697.

Net operating earnings for the month of January increased $2570 over January, 1929, to $100,036, and the net for February increased $14,008 over the same period last year to $100,362, the statement disclosed. As of February 28, last, $2,341,500 of 6 per cent convertible bonds had been converted into 85,145 shares of A stock, making the total outstanding on that date 332,106 shares.

Packard Motor Earnings Down

DETROIT, May 28. (Exclusive)—Net earnings of Packard Motor Car Company for the first four months of this year were approximately $3,725,000 after all charges and special reserves as compared with $4,900,000 for the similar 1929 period, Hugh Perry, treasurer, stated today. He added that net earnings for May will likely be around $1,000,000.

The estimate was made following the announcement of a $400 price reduction on models of their standard eight line in order to show that the reduction would not seriously affect the company's earnings for this year, Mr. Perry said. The price cut was a step taken to assist the company's dealers in clearing the way for a new line of standard eights which will probably be introduced this fall.

Plans of Cigar Chain Approved

NEW YORK, May 28.—Stockholders of the United Cigar Stores of America at their annual meeting today approved the proposal to reduce the par value of the company's common stock from $10 to $1 a share and subsequently to no par value.

The average net sales in the first four months of the current year were up 15 per cent over the same period of last year and the average increase in customers during April was 19½ per cent higher than in April, 1929, George K. Morrow, president, stated. The increase in the first four months in customers was 18 per cent. He also pointed out that the new management through the prompt sale of securities before the break realized $5,000,000 more than would have been the case had the action been delayed.

Sugar Concern Cuts Dividend

DENVER, May 28. (Exclusive)—Great Western Sugar Company today declared a quarterly dividend of 35 cents a share on its common stock as against 75 cents previously and the regular quarterly of $1.75 on the preferred, both payable July 1 to stock of record June 16.

The directors stated that confronted with a serious depression in the entire sugar industry and with a continuously declining sugar market, they reduced the common rate in order to maintain unimpaired the company's credit and working capital. Dividends on the preferred stock will be continued at the regular rate, it was stated.

MOTOR GIANT ENTERS RACE

Formation of Holding Company Indicates Determined Bid for Ranking Place in Aviation

Through the formation of the General Aviation Corporation the General Motors interests definitely enter into the competition for the highest ranking position in the aviation industry. It is a bullish development on the aviation business in general, and forecast some interesting events along specific lines.

This announcement of an aviation holding company has been pending ever since the motor car company made its investment in the Fokker company. The Fokker investment of approximately $7,780,000 was in the nature of a preliminary investigation in a new industry to learn at first hand its possibilities. Formation of the holding company infers the motor car giant's approval of the prospects and its determination to participate fully.

CONTEST NARROWED

While General Motors, through the new holding company, only has a relatively small investment in aviation at this time, the program suggests that this group will soon take its place as the most formidable rival of United Aircraft and Transport, now the strongest unit in the industry. Since the announcement of the General Aviation Corporation the impression in the industry is that the race has already narrowed down to these two groups.

Some speculation has arisen, however, suggesting conversations between General Aviation and United Aircraft looking to a consolidation of interests. Several hurdles would have to be jumped before such a trade could be worked out, principally the fact that United has its own manufacturing units and that General Motors is purely a manufacturing organization.

Acquisition of United, furthermore, would place the General Motors group in the transportation end of the business, a departure the company heretofore has not consented to make in its motor-car activities. If this policy should be changed with respect to aviation in order to insure outlets for airplanes, the better assumption is that Western Air Express would be the choice.

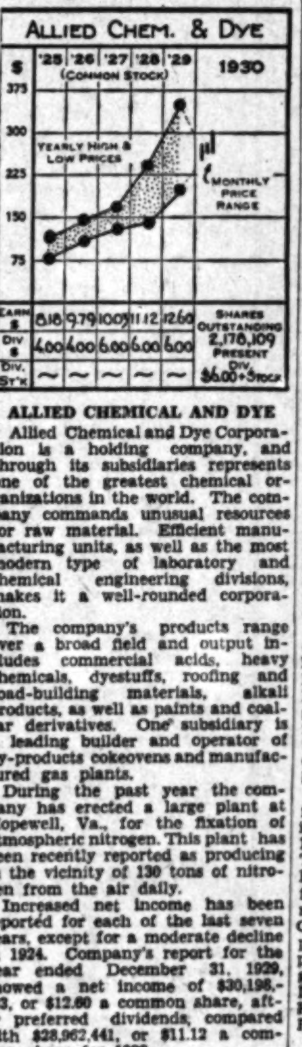
ALLIANCE CLOSE

Between them Western Air and General Motors interests are owners of about 70 per cent of Fokker Aircraft Corporation, nucleus of General Aviation Corporation. Harris M. Hanshue is president of both Western Air Express and Fokker Aircraft.

If additional passenger and mail companies are desired, it is likely that General Aviation would turn to the Aviation Corporation, which includes among its assets the Universal Aviation Corporation, Colonial Airways and Southern Air Transport.

Rumors that General Aviation is interested in Douglas Aircraft of Santa Monica are probably well founded, although the chances of working out a trade are not especially bright. Douglas is one of the best earning properties in the business, but the existence of options outstanding in the hands of bankers is a stumbling block to any negotiations.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



ALLIED CHEMICAL AND DYE

Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation is a holding company, and through its subsidiaries represents one of the greatest chemical organizations in the world. The company commands unusual resources for raw material. Efficient manufacturing units, as well as the most modern type of laboratory and chemical engineering divisions, makes it a well-rounded corporation.

The company's products range over a broad field and output includes commercial acids, heavy chemicals, dyestuffs, roofing and road-building materials, alkali products, as well as paints and coal-tar derivatives. One subsidiary is a leading builder and operator of by-products cokeovens and manufactured gas plants.

During the past year the company has erected a large plant at Hopewell, Va., for the fixation of atmospheric nitrogen. This plant has been recently reported as producing in the vicinity of 130 tons of nitrogen from the air daily.

Increased net income has been reported for each of the last seven years, except for a moderate decline in 1924. Company's report for the year ended December 31, 1929, showed a net income of $30,198,523, or $12.60 a common share, after preferred dividends, compared with $28,962,441, or $11.12 a common share for 1928.

This represents an increase of about 12 per cent.

Henry L. Van Pragg, president of the company, said the recommendation to reduce the dividend was made after careful consideration of present conditions and the outlook for the future. FRANK C. MORTIMER

Headed by Frank C. Mortimer, Harold G. Ferguson and Dain Sturges, a syndicate of Los Angeles bankers and business men yesterday completed negotiations for the purchase of controlling interest in the Western National Bank of this city. Control, according to the announcement, was acquired from George L. Alexander, president; Wade E. Hampton and Charles W. List, directors, of the Western National.

As of the last statement of March 27, the Western National reported total assets of $2,604,909.84, deposits of $1,771,814.94, and surplus, profits and reserves of $130,190.08.

OFFICERS NAMED

Mr. Mortimer, who is a banker of thirty years' experience in California and New York, will be president of the bank under the new ownership. Dain Sturges, until recently vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank, was elected executive vice-president at a meeting yesterday of the new board of directors.

New directors elected to the board of the Western National, besides Messrs. Mortimer and Sturges, were: Marc Mitchell, attorney; Harold G. Ferguson, president, Harold G. Ferguson Corporation, and associated interests, and C. A. Myers, director, Firestone Tire and Rubber Company. Additional directors will be elected later.

Mr. Ferguson has been identified with banking and real estate in Los Angeles for many years. In 1920 he organized the California Trust Company for the California Bank and served as first trust officer of the institution. He is chairman of the board of the Harold G. Ferguson Finance Company, Ltd., president, Ferguson-Smith Company, Ltd., Harold G. Ferguson Engineering Corporation, Del Norte Land Company, California Stock Exchange, and the Los Angeles Realty Board.

WITH NATIONAL CITY

Mr. Mortimer was an officer of the National City Bank of New York for several years, and for the past five years has been a vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank of Los Angeles. Both Messrs. Mortimer and Sturges resigned from the Citizens' National recently to become president and vice-president, respectively, of the Harold G. Ferguson Finance Company.

Mr. Sturges started his banking career twenty-nine years ago with the Interstate National Bank of Kansas City, and twenty years ago joined the old Los Angeles National Bank. He is vice-president of the School Savings Association, treasurer and director of the Downtown Business men's Association.

The Western National Bank was organized several years ago as the National Bank for Savings. The new name was assumed when the McCook interests acquired. It is expected that the new controlling interests will make application soon to the Comptroller of the Currency to again change the name of the bank.

VIEW OF INDIA CHARITABLE

British Publicist Gives Temperate Version of Causes Back of Present Revolt

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, May 28.—H. M. Brailsford, British publicist, discussing the peculiar situation which has arisen between the British Labor government and Mahatma Gandhi, comments:

"These (the Indian leaders,) are all good men, idealists of a spirituality very rare in our modern world, filled with a devoted spirit of self-sacrifice and service, perhaps the finest that India has bred. They have infringed no moral laws; they have harmed no fellow-man. They have been susceptible. Theirs is a symbolical rebellion."

That's an Englishman's point of view. The statement itself is one that shows how far-sighted Englishmen are to see the point of view of those with whom they differ radically.

It seems that Lord Birkenhead tactlessly appointed a pure English Commission to examine and report back on the fitness of India for self-government, and to draft such measures as were necessary to bring about the suggested reform. There was not an Indian on the commission! This slight helped to bring on the present crisis.

Mr. Brailsford, author of "The War of Steel and Gold," when asked his opinion regarding the future of India, as things are developing today, replied in an article in the New Republic:

"The future is as perilous as it is unpredictable, and the test of the quality of the Labor government is yet to come. It has done nothing to earn the frowns of Liberals in other lands. May its records stand equally clean when this year is over."

England has never met a greater test than she is going through at the present time. She knows what it means—how large the stakes are. And the British business world is fully alive to the dangers ahead.

Five years ago the New York Cocoa Exchange was formed. Americans had become large cocoa consumers and the exchange was formed to better facilitate trade and protect the American consuming interests.

Now, according to E. A. Canalizo, president of the exchange, New York has taken the leadership away from England as the cocoa marketing center of the world. But wait—there is more news coming! Being the largest cocoa-consuming country in the world, the New York Cocoa Exchange fixes the price of cocoa for the world instead of it being fixed in Europe, as formerly.

When the figures are known, it is not to be wondered at, however. According to Mr. Canalizo, the Liverpool Cocoa Exchange, the nearest competitor of the New York exchange, traded in 1690 tons during the month of April, while the New York exchange had a turnover of more than sixteen times the Liverpool figure.

"Is the profession of air pilot the most dangerous of all? Is that why he is paid so well?" I asked Harold Crary, of the Boeing Companies.

"We have fifty-three day-and-night flying pilots. One has flown 1,000,000 miles, and is still going strong," replied Mr. Crary. "One has 10,000 hours to his credit. One has 8000 hours. Two have 7000. Nine have 6000, and ten have 5000. All of the first pilots at the controls of passenger planes have had in excess of 2500 hours' flying time."

"But the danger—is it greater than in the usual line of business?" was the next question.

"There is as much difference between these veteran skilled pilots and the novice who does stunts to get his name in the papers," answered Mr. Crary, "as there is between the careful automobile driver and the reckless speed demon at the Indianapolis speed races."

During the past three months, the Boeing system on its transcontinental line of 2700 miles between New York and San Francisco, carried 426 tons of mail—the equivalent of 34,000,000 letters—with a loss of only one day's business.

Local Trend of Trade Still Off

With sales in most lines from 10 to 20 per cent less than for May, 1929, the current month has been very quiet and employment is found considerably less, according to the weekly report of the Los Angeles office of Bradstreet's.

Tire manufacturers while reporting collections from fair to satisfactory and no decrease in employment find sales are below a year ago but with the best season of the year just starting. Chain stores report gross sales holding up firmly but with competition so keen especially in food lines that profits are much lower. Seasonable demands are helping to decrease the record storage of gasoline but retail gasoline prices are still irregular.

RUMOR OF DOUGLAS AVIATION SPIKED

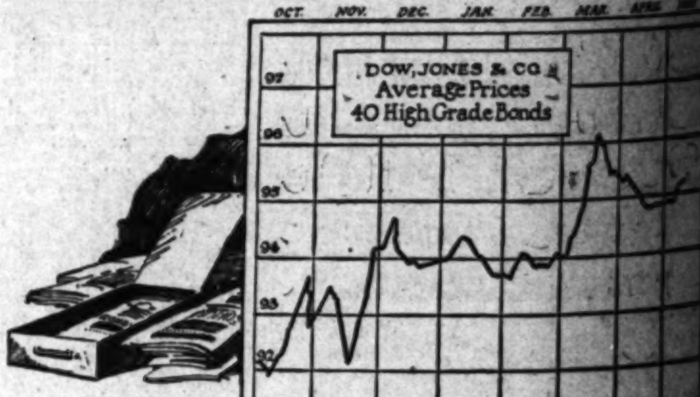
Rumors that General Aviation Corporation is negotiating for control of Douglas Aircraft Company, current in Los Angeles for some time, were denied yesterday by T. C. McMahon, secretary of the Douglas company. "There is no truth in such reports," Mr. McMahon said. General Aviation is the new holding company being formed by General Motors for its aircraft interests in Fokker and Dornier, etc.

LAMBERT COMPANY EARNINGS HIGHER

NEW YORK, May 28. (Exclusive) Officials of Lambert Company today stated that in spite of larger expenditures for advertising the earnings of the company for the first two months of the second quarter will be substantially higher than last year. The company has approximately $5,500,000 cash on hand and the regular quarterly dividend of $2 a share will be declared at the regular dividend meeting of the directors next Wednesday.

BELGRADE NATIONAL PARES BANK RATE

BELGRADE (Jugo-Slavia) May 28. (AP)—The National Bank today reduced the discount rate from 6 to 5½ per cent. Simultaneously the government announced the budget would show a surplus of $11,000,000.



The investor turns to

High-Grade Bonds

THE steady upward movement in bond prices which has been in effect since last November, comes as a natural corollary of the easy money market and the awakened interest on the part of investors in long-term, fixed-income securities.

It is also noteworthy that this increased demand has been felt most definitely in the field of high-grade bonds; and new issues offering a very high degree of security with a 4½% to 5½% yield, have been most rapidly absorbed.

California Municipal Improvement Bonds yielding 5% to 6%, completely tax-free, are ideally adapted to meet these conservative investment requirements. Principal and interest are payable from direct ad valorem taxes—the most basic of all security. Furthermore these bonds are non-callable and yield a higher net return than is now available from taxable corporation issues of comparable strength.

Many years of specialized experience in the municipal improvement bond field has equipped this organization for the wise selection of these issues. On request, we shall be pleased to mail you our current offering sheet.

Young Plan Tangle Given to Subcommittee

Financiers Drop Debate Due to Complications

[Copyright, 1930, by Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, May 28. (Exclusive)—The troublesome question of security for the $300,000,000 Young plan loan became so complicated today that the international bankers and treasury experts at their meeting here decided that general discussions are useless for the time being, and they departed, leaving behind a subcommittee of four to try to iron out the difficulties.

Although it is hoped that the subcommittee will present a report within a few days, it now seems inevitable that there will be considerable delay in the date of issue of the Young plan bonds.

Before adjourning the bankers reached an agreement to adopt a general guaranty for the entirety of the loan. The original slice of $200,000,000 is already guaranteed by a lien on German railroads, but it is necessary to cover the other $100,000,000 that goes from the proceeds of the bond issue as a loan to the German government. After many days' wrangling they finally decided to give up the new guaranty for the $100,000,000 slice, but will merely ask a priority pledge from the Reich.

This renders possible the drawing up of the general contract pledging Germany to secure the whole loan without distinction. The experts, however, ran into a snag in trying to draw up contracts so as to agree to the provisions of the Young plan and at the same time to conform with the laws of the nine different issuing powers.

Consequently, general debates had to be postponed until the committee, with the help of jurists and technicians, succeeds in drafting a uniform contract. The committee is composed of Montague Norman of England, Robert Masson of France, Arthur Anderson of America and Hans Luther of Germany.

FINGERPRINTS FOUND ON BALL INCRIMINATE

CHINO, May 28. — A ball, bearing fingerprints, proved to be the undoing for a gang of six Mexican boys ranging in age from 8 to 12 years. The boys are charged with having broken into the Second-street school, and raided the cafeteria of ice cream and candy. Lockers are said to have been cleaned out of balls, bats and other school articles. When a small Mexican boy sold a ball to another boy, the fingerprints were compared with those found in the school, and the seller was questioned by police. He told the names of the other boys who, he said, had invaded the school and all were rounded up by police to await a lecture from the judge.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 28. (P)—The curb market showed new signs of life today, as a selection of utility, oil and specialty stocks made substantial headway in the most active trading in this market since early last week. Total sales were close to 1,000,000 shares.

Electric Bond and Share was again a leader, rising more than 2 points in heavy trading. Electric Power warrants, and Northern States A rose 2 to 3 points. American Superpower and Niagara Hudson were active but failed to make headway. American Gas yielded a couple of points of yesterday's 8-point gain in profit-taking, and Associated Gas was soft.

The natural gas issues were fairly active, particularly United Gas new, which rose more than a point. Among the lower priced issues, Appalachian was firm on the news that it had completed plans for acquisition of a 75 per cent interest in Southwestern Natural Gas Company. This will give Appalachian outlets to wider fields. Technicolor, which recently dropped to new low ground, sold up about 5 points in response to announcement by Warner Bros. that it will feature Technicolor films in its 1931 program.

In the oils, Gulf and Humble made moderate gains, but Cities Service sagged ¾ in heavy trading. Root Refining reached another new top at 22. In the investment trusts, United States and Overseas sold up more than a point to a 1930 peak at 23.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

Young Thorpe not long ago also was chosen as this year's new member of the Ephebian Society, highest honor to be accorded those who graduate from any of the Los Angeles public schools.

Bean Men Feel Anxious as to Coming Prices

RESEDA, May 28.—It is given out here today by officers of the San Fernando Valley Bean Growers' Association that fully 10,000 acres have been planted to baby lima beans in the valley area. There is uncertainty as to what the price will be when the harvest is made this summer. Last year there were 395,000 acres planted to beans in the State. Because of the excellent crops made, especially in San Fernando Valley, it is understood that more than 600,000 acres have been planted this spring.

Almost doubling of the acreage, it is feared, will knock the bottom out of the general market when harvest time arrives. Last year there were 11,000 acres planted to beans in the San Fernando Valley. While final payments are yet to be made, it is indicated that a total of $9.80 per 100-pound bag is to be received. This will net valley growers about $1,832,600 for the full crop, as 187,000 bags were gathered.

Whittington is in charge of arrangements at the park. The parade will form at Normandie and One Hundred and Eighty-sixth street at 1:30 p.m.

Wheat Futures Ease Off After Early Advance

CHICAGO, May 28. (AP)—Notable upturns in wheat values took place today, but the market reacted later because of selling to realize profits. Unfavorable crop advices from the Southwest and Northwest, and from Ohio and Indiana as well, with France and Italy reporting crop deterioration too, had a stimulating effect on buyers. An outstanding feature was that much wheat southwest appeared to be making less progress than improved weather would warrant.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, ⅛@1c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed irregular, ranging ¾@⅛c decline to ⅛c advance, with oats a shade off to ⅛c up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12c.

With the Liverpool market leading the way, wheat in Chicago showed gains right from the outset of trading. Private messages indicated the Canadian growers' pool had made large sales of wheat to Europe, and besides there were estimates current that a fair amount of other export business in wheat from North America had been put through. It was only after receipt of fresh adverse crop reports from Kansas, however, that the market here advanced in earnest. At this juncture the buying of July and September deliveries rushed values up to the highest point reached since April 17.

Prospects of continued large receipts of corn here made the corn market relatively easy today, toward the last in particular. Oats derived firmness from the action of wheat.

Provisions averaged higher, responsive to upturns in the value of hogs.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Stock Market Trading Revives as Several Issues Reach New Peaks for Year

Although prices fluctuated in a somewhat irregular manner on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday trading activities spurted near normal levels and with the turnover approaching $1,000,000 in value operators inclined to the constructive side of the market were considerably encouraged. Despite the irregularity four new top prices were established for the year which brightened the general undertone.

Taylor Milling which has been gradually climbing into new high territory for the past two weeks jumped another 1 1-2 points to mark a new peak at 32 3-4. The stock closed at 32 1-2 after a relatively brisk turnover. Other new highs included Western Continental Utilities which spurted 1 3-4 points to 25 1-2; Gilmore Oil which gained 1-2 to 16 1-2, and Pacific Gas preferred, up 5-8 to 27 1-4.

The more active issues fluctuated within narrow limits. Transamerica outclassed all other operations with a turnover of 7500 shares, but sold down 3-4 net to 42. Other financial issues followed a similar course and on light sales small recessions were recorded for Security-First National, Citizens' National and Pacific Finance, Pacific Mutual and International Re-Insurance recovered slightly.

Standard of California led the dealings in oil shares and closed up 1-2 to 70 1-2, having reached 70 3-4 earlier. Richfield improved while the preferred stock sank to a new low at 20 1-8, off 3-4. Union Oil dipped fractionally, while Union Associates gained 3-8 to 44 5-8. Rio Grande and Signal Oil were unchanged.

Douglas Aircraft continued one of the highlights of the market and with a turnover of more than 1000 shares added another 5-8 to touch 22 1-2, closing later at 22 1-4. Rumors of negotiations to bring the company into General Aviation were denied by Douglas officials.

Sales totaled 24,988 shares, valued at $909,342; previous day, 11,533 shares, valued at $469,548.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (AP)—Transamerica continued to hit the downward trail today, but the Montgomery-street market in general rejected its long-standing leadership, and moved gradually but significantly higher.

Sales gained in volume as sentiment improved. The 44,384 shares sold accounted for nearly a 50 per cent increase in market activity over recent sessions. Money turnover on the stock exchange deals was $1,310,374—the first time for several sessions the figure has crossed the million mark.

Transamerica had a bad day in the face of disappointment over the New York Stock Exchange ruling on trading by investment trusts in their own stocks. The stock dipped a little more than 1 point, then came back slightly to close at 41⅞, down ⅞.

Utilities were quiet, but averaged fractionally higher. Oils were in greater demand, most of them moving fractionally up.

The majority of industrials moved higher. Yellow Cab and Crown Zellerbach rose 1 point each, and Douglas Aircraft was close behind. Investment buying continued in Borden, which attained another new high on a fractional advance. New buying in Fageol Motors from sources apparently close to corporation headquarters went unexplained, although business appeared to be picking up for the company. Golden State hit another new low on a fractional decline, Leighton and Magnin preferred also found new lows for the year, the former down 1 point.

On the whole, the industrial list was held in better regard among investors. Traders preferred to remain out of the western smaller corporation stocks pending developments looking to a more active market.

One More Heat in Pack Contest

ANAHEIM, May 28.—After tonight only one more heat remains to be run off in the world's championship packing contest now under way at the California Valencia Orange Show tent, and that heat will be staged at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Announcement of the winner in the contest, who will be chosen from among twenty-four packers participating, will be made Friday evening.

The contest this year has developed a new speed record of 8m. 16 2-5s., established last night when Virginia Stiles packed two boxes of oranges in that time. Last year's championship, won by Mrs. Jesse Whelben, was won in 9m. 25s.

Speed in the contest counts 60 per cent and neatness and condition of pack 40 per cent. Six packers compete each evening, and their packs will be inspected by the judges Friday morning. Tomorrow will be San Diego and Long Beach day.

Elderly Man Seeks Divorce and Alimony

FRESNO, May 28. (AP)—The unusual circumstances of a man seeking alimony from his wife in a divorce action was presented in a complaint filed by Charles A. Dworack, 73 years of age, against Adelia Dworack in Superior Court here today. He states that shortly after their marriage twenty-five years ago Mrs. Dworack "through persuasion and otherwise" induced her husband to deed to her as separate property all of their community property, valued in excess of $50,000 and consisting of real estate in Fresno and Madera counties.

After acquiring title to the property Mrs. Dworack totally excluded him from the management thereof and from the collection or enjoyment of the rents, Dworack asserts. Although he is physically weak because of old age, he has been compelled to shift for himself and cook his own meals, the complaint sets forth. Once, Dworack says, his wife offered him $30 a month for his maintenance, which he refused.

An investor in Railroad Securities

IN 1929 there were transported by the railroads of the United States 2,427,000,000 tons of revenue freight and 780,000,000 passengers. A total of over $25,000,000,000 has been invested in the properties of these carriers. They employ some 1,700,000 persons who receive yearly wages of nearly three billion dollars.

Since 1916 American railroads have increased their gross earnings 75%, their capital only 13% and their outstanding common stocks only 4%. They have expended billions of dollars from earnings and capital to increase property accounts and operating efficiency.

United Founders Corporation and subsidiaries own diversified railroad securities, representing substantial investments but no control of properties. At present these investments are in railways of leading American systems operating over 60% of the Class I mileage in the United States.

With its railroad holdings, United Founders combines investments in other basic fields. It has important investments in leading systems in the electric power and light industry in addition to its interests in investment companies, banks and insurance companies.

Through control of American Founders Corporation, United Founders is interested in a group of investment companies which have operated successfully over a number of years. This interest provides United Founders also with extensive economic, analytical and research service.

The operations of United Founders Corporation are directed to obtain the cumulative and substantial results which accrue from long-pull, managed investing.

Eleven Venice Permits

Eleven new permits to drill at Venice were approved yesterday by the Los Angeles City Council, and the City Attorney ordered to draft the necessary ordinances. The new permits have the approval of the City Planning Commission and the City Planning Committee.

The successful applicants are C. W. Ward, George Polkinghorn, M. and E. Birece, M. and F. Syer, Robert Marsh and G. W. Penfield, C. J. Capp, Opal Strader, Carrie L. Tyler, William D. Davies and Katherine Cleary.

Committee Meets Today

The fact-finding committee, of which W. E. Dunlap is chairman, meets at 2 p.m., today in the assembly rooms of the California Oil and Gas Association to verify the potential daily production and fix the allowable daily production for all the oil fields in the State from June 1 to June 15, inclusive.

It was reported yesterday that the figures may indicate that there has been a slight decline during the month from the potential daily output of 1,107,000 barrels on May 1, but that the decrease is not marked, because of new completions in several fields.

Seven operators in the Santa Fe Springs field have not yet signed the agreement to curtail their production from now to November 1, and fears were expressed by several producers yesterday that the price of Santa Fe Springs crude may suffer another cut unless co-operation in that field is obtained within the next few days.

World Flight Record Claimed by Tiny Ship

SAN BERNARDINO, May 28.—Clarence O. Prest, flying a 430-pound monoplane of his own make today broke the world's record for ships of its type in a 100-kilometer flight along Base Line Road, according to the unofficial figures by timers and others who checked his start and finish over the course.

Prest set a speed of 101.2 miles an hour with his forty-horsepower ship, bettering the mark of C. Fauvel, a French war ace, by more than thirteen miles an hour. Fauvel's time, established at the Le Bourget Flying Field, Paris, was 86.8 miles an hour.

Prest zoomed into the course at 10:53 a.m. and finished at 11:30:17 a.m.

His tiny ship loked not unlike a sparrow from its height of nearly 1000 feet. The ship has a wing spread of but twenty-four feet and is eighteen feet in length. It is powered with a three-cylinder motor and carries but eight gallons of gasoline.

The flight was timed by Joe Nikrent, representing the American Aeronautical Association, and the Federation Aeronautic Internationale. The official figures for the flight will be forwarded to Washington and to Paris with a request that the flight record be recognized as a new world's mark.

Prest is a veteran pilot, having begun flying in 1914, barnstorming county fairs for years before he began the manufacture of his planes in a factory at Arlington.

GARAGE TRUCK STOLEN FOR FOURTH JOY RIDE

UPLAND, May 28.—For the fourth time the Stewart Citrus Association garage at Twelfth street and San Antonio avenue has been broken into and a light truck taken out, either by joyriders or fruit thieves. Police today sought the persistent users of the fruit company's truck. Each time the vehicle has been found parked in strange places, with the speedometer showing it has been driven about 150 miles. Officials of the company are convinced the garage has been entered frequently and the truck taken, although they have concrete evidence of only four such excursions.

HOGS—Fifteen loads, including nine loads of fresh arrivals, were available and were slow to move at 25@40c lower rates with five loads still unsold late in the afternoon. Two loads of desirable weight mixed owner Colorado butchers topped at 10.85 with several cars of 144 to 202-pound butchers from Texas, California, Colorado and Nebraska at 10.40@10.75. A few mixed 251-pound hogs brought 9.00 with packing sows at 8.00@8.50.

SHEEP—Two decks of holdover spring lambs were unsold after noon but seven decks of fresh arrivals were disposed of during the morning at unevenly lower rates. Four decks of lambs late Tuesday were diverted to another point. Two decks of mostly good quality 80-pound California spring lambs brought 8.00 with choice kinds quoted to 8.50. Three decks of 66 to 72-pound lambs brought 7.00@7.60 with two decks of common 66 to 68-pound weights at 6.50. MAN CHARGED WITH SMUGGLING ALIENS

OCEANSIDE, May 28. — J. W. Martin, 38 years of age, 309 Market street, San Diego, was today taken to that city and placed in the custody of United States officials, charged with attempting to smuggle four Chinese into Los Angeles from Mexico. He was captured north of here last night. A girl confederate after attempting to warn Martin of the presence of immigration officers, escaped. Two shots were fired at her. She is still at liberty. Martin was captured by the authorities when his girl confederate tried to turn back and warn him. The four Chinese, riding in his sedan, made good their escape at that time, but were later found hiding on the bank of the San Luis Rey River, arresting officers reported. Jack Vivian, 24, local garage man, discovered the smuggled Chinese. They were all taken to San Diego.

Warners to Buy Ohio Theaters

TOLEDO (O.) May 28. (Exclusive)—Warner Brothers have made contract with Schine interests to purchase their entire holdings of about fifty theaters in small Ohio cities for a consideration of about $2,500,000, of which 10 per cent is to be in cash and the balance, between 40,000 and 50,000 shares of Warner common.

According to the contract, the deal is to be consummated July 1. Theaters are located at Springfield, Sydney, Lamar, Lima, Sandusky and other smaller cities.

BOND ISSUE DEFEATED BY VOTERS' APATHY

LA CANADA, May 28.—The proposed $35,000 bond issue to provide a new auditorium and to make other improvements at La Canada School, were defeated, 95 to 61, in the election held in the school district. A two-thirds majority was necessary to carry the bonds.

Election officers state most of the residents were in favor of the bonds, but the majority of them apparently did not believe their vote was necessary, and forgot to go to the polls.

Yokohama, Japan, has a population of 543,500, according to a recent estimate.

Atlantic Trip of R-100 Will Be Made Later

LONDON, May 28. (AP)—The projected flight of the new British dirigible R-100 to Canada has been postponed until the end of June or the beginning of July.

Frederick Montague, Undersecretary of State for Air, informed the House of Commons of the postponement this afternoon stating that repairs are required by the huge ship.

While on a recent twenty-four-hour test flight over England, the R-100 had a section of covering torn from one of her fins and later it was found that she had suffered other minor damage.

It had been expected that the R-100 would make the flight to Canada about the beginning of June.

Barcos Enviados al Rescate de dos Aviadores

LAS PALMAS (Islas Canarias), Mayo 28.—Hoy han sido despachados de aquí tres buques a fin de que hagan por rescatar a dos oficiales españoles de aviación y a su maquinista, quienes, en aterrizaje forzoso, cayeron en poder de una tribu salvaje del desierto africano.

Los barcos son los guardacostas "Undkert" y "Muluya", y el vapor interpeninsular que fué al Cabo Jubby a desembarcar una fuerza, para que ésta se interne en el país.

Los aviadores, comandante Ricardo Burguete y capitán Núñez Maza, y el mecánico Vicente Ferrer, volaban en dos aviones acompañados de un caudillo moro, cuando, de pronto, se vieron obligados a descender a unas 150 millas tierra adentro del Cabo Juby, región donde fueron atrapados por los nómadas, que hoy piden rescate por ellos.

Censuras al Príncipe por Haber Jugado en Domingo

EDIMBURGO, Mayo 28.—Se halla acongojado el reverendo Kenneth Macrae, porque hace poco jugó golf el príncipe de Gales en domingo con Bobby Jones.

En su sermón ante la Iglesia Libre de Escocia manifestó el pastor que el día domingo debe ser observado al igual por reyes, príncipes y comuneros.

Crail Ataca el Proyecto de Ley de Libros para los Ciegos

WASHINGTON, Mayo 28.—El proyecto de ley de Pratt, que autoriza a la Biblioteca del Congreso a gastar $100,000 anuales en la impresión de libros para ciegos, ha sido atacado hoy ante la comisión de Educación de la cámara por el diputado Crail, republicano de California, quien alega que ese proyecto hace obstrucción al suyo de subvencionar con $100 000 el Instituto Braille de Norteamérica en Los Angeles.

Crail hace ver que la Casa Impresora para Ciegos de Louisville (Kentucky) ha estado recibiendo del gobierno un subsidio anual de $75,000, y ha podido vender más barato que otras casas similares. Con todo, dice Crail que el Instituto Braille ha competido tan eficazmente con la compañía de Louisville, que ésta ha tenido que rebajar sus precios en un cincuenta por ciento.

Un Ex-pelotari, con su Vista de Lince, Logra Atrapar a un Ladrón

REDWOOD CITY, Mayo 28.—William (Bill) Lange, ex-pelotari de los Cachorros de Chicago, dió hoy fehaciente prueba de que su vista se conserva muy certera, pues merced a ella, Edward Saunders, de Denver, de 19 años de edad, se halla hoy tras las rejas de la cárcel del condado por sospechas de robo.

Iba hoy Lange viajando en auto de su casa a Milbrae a Reedwood City, cuando hizo sitio en su coche a un mozo que le pedía transporte. Al verle, le halló parecido con la descripción dada por un jardinero del joven que se metió el domingo en casa de Lange, y escapó llevándose una sortija, que era un recuerdo de familia.

Lange se dirigió con su pasajero a la cárcel del condado, y allí le encontraron al sospechoso en el bolsillo un anillo, que Lange identificó como el robado.

La Activa Abeja Tiene un Rival Humano en Coal City

MORRIS (Illinois), Mayo 28.—Homer Sheets, de Coal City, pueblo de 1700 almas, tiene más quehacer que un empapelador manco con urticaria. Además de eso, es Sheets padre de cuatro hijos y cultiva una huerta de verduras. Tiene $135 mensuales por sus cargos municipales, y $6 al mes por sus labores con los bomberos.

Se le hacía que era el edificio más sorprendente del mundo entero (Little Charles used to love to climb the hill just to stand in front of this house and look at it. HERE'S ANOTHER MIND TEST

Mouse-Trap Aids as Mental Gauge

Betty Day Shows How It's Done

IF THE modern young miss can't take a mouse trap apart and then reassemble it within two minutes she is intellectually deficient, according to the psychology department of the University of California at Los Angeles, which is under the direction of Dr. Shepherd Ivory Franz.

The subject to be tested is given a box in which repose various familiar household articles, such as doorknobs, electric bells, mouse traps, clothes pins and locks. A certain period of time is allowed for the subject to notice the construction of the article, then she is set to work reassembling the mechanism. At the end of the given time the command to stop is given and the subject is graded on the amount of work accomplished and the correctness of the details of construction.

By comparison with standard charts the intellectual age of the subject is determined. It has been shown that the average university co-ed possesses considerable mechanical ability.

BEACH GROINS SUITS FILED

State and County Combine to Lift Barriers Keeping Public from Open Lands on Ocean Fronts

Marking what public officials hope will prove one of the most important steps in recent years to open inclosed public beaches to the people, Atty.-Gen. Webb and Dist.-Atty. Fitts yesterday filed four nuisance suits against beach landowners demanding that the Superior Court declare as "public nuisances" a large number of groins erected on State-owned tidelands on the beach west of Santa Monica.

Although the groins were erected after permits had been obtained from United States Army engineers in charge of coast line affairs, the complaints assert they are improperly placed on State-owned tidelands, and because of peculiar tidal conditions on that coast, the beach is formed in "steps" with the sand piled on the western side of the groins and scoured away from the other side.

BLOCKS PASSAGE

This condition makes it impossible to pass along the beach, as property owners have erected fences to obstruct the passage of the public from the road to the State-owned lands below the line of mean high tide. It may be possible, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Becker pointed out, to erect steps on the low side of the groins, making it possible to pass up and down without intruding on private lands. Another remedy would be to provide public streets across the privately owned beaches, which would allow the same access to the beach as is afforded in the cities where streets run through to the high-tide line.

The new suits follow a recent decision of the Supreme Court which holds that the State owns all the property below the high-tide line. This decision was in line with an opinion prepared by order of County Counsel Mattoon, by Deputy Counsel McFadden.

The defendants are the Los Angeles Mountain Park Company, the Pacific Land Corporation, the Las Tunas Beach and Land Company, Clifford Budd, and others.

BECKER'S STATEMENT

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Becker said the erection and maintenance of these groins have been under the observation and investigation of Atty.-Gen. Webb in person, who has visited them several times, and of the District Attorney's office, and of County Surveyor Rockhold. The County

'CALIFORNIA' MISUSE BANNED

Federal Trade Commission Issues Order Aimed at Businesses in Other States

The Federal Trade Commission in Washington has just issued a "cease and desist" order which in the main enjoins all manufacturing concerns outside this State from using the word "California" on their merchandise, according to word received yesterday by Emile S. Falk, San Francisco milliner, on his arrival here from the national capital.

Shortly after Falk stepped from the train he was handed a telegram from Ivan E. Goodner, Washington representative of the local Chamber of Commerce, advising him that he has won a fight he has waged for three years in the interests of trade protection of California-made products.

The telegram stated that the Federal Trade Commission has issued the order against Everett & Graf, Inc., of Milwaukee, milliners, restraining them from further employing the word "California" or "California-type" in the merchandising of their hats.

Falk, as president of Catalina Hats, Ltd., of San Francisco, first brought a patent action against Everritt and Graff in 1927, asserting they were distributing "California Sports Hats" and holding that the term was deceiving to the consuming public. The case was tried in a New York Federal court and dismissed.

The Bay City milliner then enlisted the aid of the San Francisco and Los Angeles chambers of commerce and carried the fight to the Federal Trade Commission. Recently he went to Washington to attend the hearings, and there was joined in the fight by Goodner. The hearings concluded last week.

The decision is regarded by Chamber of Commerce officials as widespread in its effect. According to E. P. MacDonough, manager of the chamber's domestic trade department, there are numerous concerns in all parts of the country outside California using the word "California" on their merchandise for the stimulation of sales. It is MacDonoughs' intention now, he said

STUDIO AT VICTORIA WILL FILM SALTY SEA STORIES

J.S.H. WATSON

Salty sea stories and romances taken from the history of the British Empire woven into talking motion pictures and produced in an all-British studio to be built at Victoria, B. C., are the ambition of J. S. H. Matson, publisher of the Daily Colonist at Victoria, who is in Los Angeles for a study of motion-picture production methods.

"The pages of British history are filled with gripping stories equally as thrilling as those of fiction," Mr. Matson declared yesterday, "and in view of the fact that in all British countries there is a growing demand for Empire-made pictures, I and my associates are planning the erection of a modern and well-equipped studio in Victoria to meet this demand.

"Victoria, the whole of Vancouver Island, Puget Sound and the vast forest land as our background give us a source of unmatched natural settings and in addition we have the ships and seacoast for the filming of maritime scenes."

Mr. Matson said one of the first pictures to be filmed at the new studio will be an Indian story using Vancouver Island Indians for actors. "We will show these natives in their canoes and in their camp life as they are, almost as wild today as they were when they were first seen by white men."

The British Columbia publisher, who is stopping with friends in Pasadena, will continue his inspection of the Hollywood studios for three days before returning north to start construction of the studio at Victoria.

HUGE LEVY BUNKO CHARGED

Government and State on Trail of Ring Mulcting Lot Owners in Fraud Assessment Plot

Information concerning a huge State-wide fake assessment fraud which is being perpetrated against hundreds of California real-estate concerns and thousands of their investors was partially revealed yesterday in a report of investigators for the Realty Board submitted to postal inspectors and U. S. Dist.-Atty. McNabb.

An investigation of the asserted gigantic swindle is under way from many points, including District Attorneys' offices in several northern counties, Dist.-Atty. Fitts, the postal inspectors and McNabb, it was learned last night.

The scheme, according to investigators, embodies the compilation of addresses of perhaps 50,000 investors throughout the State who have made down payments on land parcels in hundreds of subdivisions.

LOT LEVIES MAILED

To these thousands of addresses, the investigators say, those who represent themselves to be "a subdivision improvement association," have mailed what is headed an "improvement call" which levies approximately $5 a lot against the holdings of the investors to be used for "cutting street lines, improving streets, dynamiting stumps and general improvements" on the various subdivisions.

With almost every lot in all the California subdivisions and tracts levied against, the Federal authorities are closely scanning the scheme for violations of the law against using the mails to defraud—and at least four men are under surveillance as suspects to the operation of the plan.

The exact amount of money already received by the "association" is unknown to the investigators, but they say that if the scheme has progressed to the extent that it was planned those engaged in its operation must have assertedly mulcted the investors of nearly $500,000.

TWO OFFICES USED

Offices of the "association" were opened in Los Angeles and in San Francisco. Notices intended for Southern California investors were mailed from a San Francisco office and notices sent to those in Northern California were mailed from the Los Angeles office, the investigators declare.

The reversal of the localities in mailing the "improvement calls," the authorities say, was intended to prevent investors from making personal visits to the offices to discover the truth about the "calls."

Hundreds of the "improvement calls" mailed from either office have been turned over by irate property purchasers to the company with which they were dealing with the demand for an explanation and an investigation, and in each instance the companies have had no previous knowledge of the "association" nor of assessments being levied for any

ENTRIES FOR AIR RACES POURING IN

Three-Day Program Will Mark Dedication of United Airport at Burbank

Entries for the airplane races which will mark the three-day opening of United Airport this week-end began pouring in at the field last night. At the same time, different airports in the Los Angeles area were preparing to send squadrons of planes to the field tomorrow to participate in the Memorial Day services and to take part in the aerial parade that will fly over various cemeteries in San Fernando Valley.

The Memorial Day services will be held under the auspices of the American Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic. The airport dedicatory program will occur during the afternoon.

The races on Friday include one for airplanes of 110 horsepower or under, over a closed course for a total of twenty-nine miles, for the Frederick B. Rentschler trophy. Cash prizes will also be awarded the first three planes to complete the race. The Boeing trophy race for 300-horsepower airplanes will follow, consisting of ten laps, having a total of forty-eight miles. Cash prizes will also be awarded the winners.

Races on Saturday include a model airplane endurance contest for the Hamilton Cup, a women's airplane race for the Pratt and Whitney Cup and cash prizes, and a free-for-all race for the United Airport trophy and cash prizes.

In connection with the opening of the field, an exhibition of the latest models of airplanes and engines will be held.

MRS. LOVE CAUSES BATTLE

Statement Given to Fitts Aide Stirs Conflict at Bribery Trial of S. C. Lewis

Statements made by Mrs. Caroline Love, former Julian juror and now prosecution witness against S. C. Lewis, on trial before Superior Judge McLucas on a bribery charge, resulted yesterday in a court battle which raged most of the day and will be continued this morning.

The statements were transcribed by official reporters attached to the District Attorney's office when Mrs. Love was questioned some weeks ago regarding her connection with efforts made by Lewis to bribe her while she was a member of the jury selected to try the first Julian case in 1928.

Dep. Dist.-Attys. Costello and Jones, prosecuting the case against the former president of the Julian Petroleum Corporation, fought throughout the greater part of the day to keep the transcripts out of the hands of the defendant.

Judge McLucas first denied a motion by Lewis, who is acting as his own attorney, requesting that the court order Costello and Jones to deliver the documents, which up to then had never been taken into the courtroom. Lewis then made a motion asking a subpoena duces tecum calling for the five transcripts in question, which was granted.

With the five transcripts in the courtroom, Costello and Jones met Lewis's attack by offering the entire set of documents in evidence and did succeed in having them marked for identification after a number of office reporters had taken the witness stand to testify that they had transcribed the statements.

The disputed documents, declared by Lewis to contain certain admissions and contradictions important to his defense, but which, according to Costello and Jones, only repeat the versions of the asserted bribery plot as already told by prosecution witnesses from the stand, were ordered last evening into the possession of the court clerk by Judge McLucas and Lewis

MASKED BANDIT ROBS TRAIN HERE

Santa Fe Chief Passengers Victims of Gunman

Marion Nixon, Film Actress, Loses $6500 Ring

Mrs. Al Jolson Locks Door and Foils Desperado

A masked and armed bandit smashed his way into a Pullman car of the Santa Fe's crack Chicago flyer, The Chief, shortly after it left here last night, robbed Marion Nixon, screen actress, of a $6500 diamond ring, took $575 from her husband and another passenger and escaped after dropping from the train at Mission Tower.

The train robbery was swift and dramatic. Dressed in a blue denim jumper of a trainman, a slouch hat over his eyes and a blue bandana handkerchief swathed about his face, the robber completed the hold-up in less than seven minutes.

As the Chief pulled away from the station, the robber was first seen standing in the vestibule of the third compartment sleeper from the end of the train.

BREAKS DOOR

One of the porters had just secured the hatch of the doorway, and as he turned about to enter the car the bandit pressed a .45-caliber automatic pistol to his breast.

With a thrust of his gun the robber pressed him to the outer door of the vestibule, whirled about and smashed the door opening into the Pullman with one blow of the gun. Reaching inside he tripped the latch with the gun barrel.

The first compartment inside was that of Edward Hillman, husband of Miss Nixon, who was making a journey to Chicago. Miss Nixon was accompanying him as far as Pasadena. Suddenly they were faced by the bandit and his gun, and ordered to throw up their hands.

RETURNS WEDDING RING

From Miss Nixon's hands he took her four and one-half carat engagement ring, valued at $6500, and her gem-encrusted wedding ring, valued at $1000. From Hillman the robber took $400 in cash, leaving the victim $1.35 to continue his trip to Chicago.

Despite the threats of the bandit, Miss Nixon began weeping when she saw him pocket her wedding ring and she pleaded tearfully with him until he returned it, although he kept the engagement ring.

Still in tears from saying good-by to the husband she recently married and the shock of the hold-up, Miss Nixon told Pasadena officers the robber overlooked about $5000 worth of other gems around her neck.

MRS. JOLSON LOCKS DOOR

Slamming the Hillmans back in their compartment, the robber went next to the one occupied by Ruby Keeler, actress-wife of Al Jolson, but she had seen him coming down the hallway masked and closed and locked the door. The robber rapped for admittance with his gun butt, but was refused.

Miss Keeler's coolness and presence of mind in closing and bolting the door saved more than $6000 worth of jewels and cash she had with her, the investigating officers said.

PORTER WARNS OTHERS

The next compartment visited was that of Robert E. Lehman, a Detroit business man, where the robber obtained $175 cash.

Throughout the time the robber was operating in the compartments the porter—who first encountered him on the vestibule—was going through the car warning other passengers.

Mr. Lehman's daughter and a girl friend in an adjoining compartment also escaped, as did Miss Keeler, when they saw the robber coming down the aisle. They slammed and bolted their door and saved approximately $5000 worth of jewels.

While the bandit was at the Lehman compartments the porter attempted to stop the train by tugging at the emergency cord, but for some reason the signals failed to respond. Then he lighted a red flare and tossed it outside the train.

About that moment the bandit still masked and menacing the passengers with his gun, backed out the way he had come in and dropped from the train near Mission tower. He fell in the darkness

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THE boos that chased Ace Hudkins out of the ring Tuesday night seem to offer promise that the boxing fans have recovered from their Hudkins complex. I fear the case of the sporting writers is hopeless in this regard.

Hudkins knows just as much about boxing as he knows about conjugating Navajo verbs. As to his courage in the ring, it is difficult to make me believe that a fighter who fouls an opponent seven times in succession isn't trying to bring the fight to an end and save himself.

MOTHERS OF WARRIORS

At the end of the fight a tremulous little old lady got up and stumbled into the outgoing crowd. She was beaming and half crying at the same time. It was Shade's mother. I have known very few fighters who were not "mother boys." George Ade says that the first thing a successful fighter does is to move his mother into a grand neighborhood where everybody is ashamed of her, and buy her grand clothes in which she is perfectly miserable.

RICH BOY MAKES GOOD

It looks as though this young millionaire boy, Howard Hughes, has turned the laugh on Hollywood. His $3,000,000 picture, "Hell's Angels," has a good chance to become a motion-picture sensation in spite of a crude story and some 1913 Biograph ways of working it out.

At that, quite a few nickels have to be dropped in at the box office to get back $3,000,000, and the public may not be quite so hot for aviation spectacles as it once was. However the millionaire boy shows them that he knows how to direct pictures—even if it did take him three years on this one.

THE CHINESE ACTOR

Pomona College—in bestowing a degree of doctor of letters upon Mei Lan-Fang, the Chinese actor, is recognizing great genius.

In the case of all ordinary actors there is something distinctly unpleasant in the taking of woman's role by a man. But this is measurably missing in the case of Mei Lan-Fang. His technique is so perfect and so amazing that you cease to become conscious of anything—except that you are in the presence of a great artist.

In seeing his pantomime, one is constrained to wonder why it is that the final rung to which very old civilizations rise is a complete conventionalization. They work up through impromptus until they arrive at technical perfections that follow set and immutable paths of art.

MODEST SAN FRANCISCO

Don't think that Northern California is after aviation bases alone. San Francisco will never be content until that harbor becomes the home port of the Pacific battle fleet.

Congress has injected more foolishness than usual into the fight to move the dirigible base to Sunnyvale. One Congressman with funny noises in his head now wants to settle the matter by moving it to Georgia. He probably knows that it might as well be in Tierra del Fuego; but it probably lines up the boys in the doubtful Eighth Ward in his home town.

FREEDOM WON BY TRAIN LEAP

Details of Prisoner's Jump Near Phoenix Revealed

Frank Fernekes Flees After 50-Mile-an-Hour Hop

Wife Arrested on Charge of Aiding in His Escape

Details of a prisoner's leap from the Golden State Limited going fifty miles an hour to escape from a Los Angeles officer, were received yesterday by the local detective division. The leap was made safely by Frank D. Fernekes, 29 years of age, who was being brought back here from El Paso to face charges of bad-check passing.

He escaped from the custody of Detective Lieutenant Miller at a point fifteen miles west of Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Ella Fernekes, wife of the fugitive, was brought on to Los Angeles and arrested on charge of aiding the escape of a felon.

BALKS AT PLANE

Fernekes was to have been the first prisoner of Los Angeles officers to be returned here by airplane, but he balked this innovation. El Paso police had apprehended and held him for Los Angeles on charges that Fernekes had obtained $15,000 on bad checks in this city, as well as being wanted by San Francisco and Sacramento. Detective Lieutenant Miller flew to El Paso, expecting to bring back his prisoner by plane. Fernekes refused to sign the air-transport register and the air-transport company refused to carry him, forcing Miller to return by train.

The detective permitted Mrs. Fernekes to accompany her husband, the three traveling in a drawing-room. After leaving Phoenix late Tuesday night, Fernekes and his wife were sent to a drawing-room across the aisle while a porter made their berths. Miller reports that Mrs. Fernekes slammed the drawing-room door, while Fernekes jumped from a window while the train was running at fifty miles an hour.

SEARCH FAILS

Miller placed the wife under technical arrest, left her in the custody of the conductor, and got off the train at the first stop. Returning to Phoenix, he enlisted the aid of Police Chief Tital for a search along the railroad right of way, expecting to find Fernekes dead or badly injured. They found no one and on returning to Phoenix learned that Fernekes had been treated for a broken finger at a hospital there shortly after midnight, and again had escaped. He last was reported going east at Mesa, Ariz.

After broadcasting descriptions of him, Miller was ordered to return here. Policewoman Shriner and Detective Lieutenant Sharrand met the train and arrested Mrs. Fernekes, who is 20. Fernekes is asserted to have posed as a motion-picture actor while putting out checks in this city.

RELIEF PLEA ON OIL CURB WITHDRAWN

Getty Company Steps in Line, Removing Need of Injunction Change

Attorney A. L. Weil, representing the General Petroleum Corporation, yesterday withdrew his motion for a modification of the temporary injunction granted to the State to restrain the wastage of natural gas in the Santa Fe Springs oil field. ... modification had been asked of Superior Judge Hazlett on the grounds that the company's nearest neighbor, George F. Getty, Inc., was not heeding the injunction order, therefore, causing damage to the General Petroleum wells.

The motion for a modification was filed the same day the State asked that the Getty concern be cited to show cause why it should not be adjudged in contempt of court for failure to obey the mandates of the injunction. The next day the Getty company obeyed the injunction and the citation was withdrawn on motion of Attorney James S. Bennett, counsel for the State. This relieved the conditions complained of by the General Petroleum, hence its action yesterday.

BATTLE RAGES OVER MRS. LOVE

was given the right to examine them.

The battle over the transcripts came yesterday morning near the end of Mrs. Love's cross-examination when Lewis began to question her relative to statements made by her to members of the District Attorney's office before the indictment was returned against him.

Mrs. Love, who on direct examination Tuesday, told of how J. H. Weaver, the asserted go-between, had called on her husband and through him met her and then advanced a scheme to offer her vote as a juror for $20,000 to Lewis, repeated her story again to the jury of eight women and four men under Lewis's cross-examination.

During the early part of the examination yesterday Mrs. Love broke down and wept when she told of the efforts of Weaver through her husband to induce her to sell her vote. The witness later declared, however, that Weaver went to her husband before he had seen Lewis and that at one time she had agreed to accept a certain sum of money.

"At the end I did not want to go through with it and told Weaver and my husband so," declared Mrs. Love. "I would not have taken the money if it had been $100,000 and begged my husband not to meet Weaver any more."

It was after the main portion of the cross-examination was completed that the fight regarding the transcripts started and then continued until court recessed late in the afternoon with both sides claiming a victory.

For the prosecution, Costello and Jones announced last night that Mrs. Love, who was excused from the witness stand during the battle over the transcripts, is the last State's witness and that the prosecution will close the State's case in chief with her testimony. A number of minor witnesses may be called.

Judge McLucas, who adjourned court at 4 p.m. yesterday to allow Lewis to study the Love transcripts, announced that court will take up today at 8 a.m., and continue except for the noon recess until 5 p.m.

DEATH CHARGES TO MARK QUIZ

General Hospital Data Ready for Grand Jurors

Two Cases Scheduled for Immediate Inquiry

Cruelty and Neglect Cited in Other Complaints

Charges that General Hospital attaches were guilty of post-operative malpractice that resulted in the death of one patient will constitute one of the first matters to be presented to the grand jury Tuesday in its investigation of conditions at the county institution.

The charges are set forth in a letter from Mrs. William McBurney of 788 Kohler street, to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Shelley, in charge of the inquiry. Mrs. McBurney, according to Shelley, asserts that her 16-year-old son, James C. Hamilton, died in the General Hospital following an appendicitis operation and that neglect and mistreatment probably contributed to his death.

DETAILS OF CHARGES

Hamilton entered the hospital July 31, 1929, and was operated on the following day. On August 2, Shelley says Mrs. McBurney's letter sets forth, the patient was permitted to eat a full meal. Discovering their mistake, it is asserted, attendants then resorted to severe corrective measures and a few days later strapped the youth to his bed when he declined to submit to the administration of glucose. The mother charges her son died before the treatment could be given.

The inquiry also will be directed into the death of Charles McCarthy whom police assert was denied admittance to the General Hospital when he was sent there by the Catholic Welfare Society while seriously ill. According to those who filed the complaint, McCarthy was permitted to fill out an admittance card and then asked to return to his home until the hospital authorities had investigated his eligibility to admittance as a charity patient. Later the same evening McCarthy dropped dead from a heart attack near his home, according to police.

STILL ANOTHER CASE

Another complaint to be investigated was received from William A. Ware of 3153 Front street, Alhambra. He charges that when he went to the General Hospital for treatment for a broken jaw at 1:30 a.m. he was told to return at 6 a.m. because all beds in the institution were filled. Returning at 6 o'clock, he said, he was not assigned to a bed until 7 a.m. and did not receive an examination until 1:30 p.m.

Growing alarmed, Ware says, he sent out for a dental surgeon who set the broken bones for him. Determined to obtain his release at once, Ware writes, he was confronted with a mass of red tape and was unable to leave the hospital for eight hours and then accomplished his purpose only through the aid of influential friends.

Numerous other complaints charging cruelty to patients and neglect are in the District Attorney's files. All of these witnesses will be called before the grand jury to tell what they know.

SUITS TO OPEN BEACHES FILED

Counsel also has had the matter under consideration and has rendered an opinion to the Board of Supervisors advising that similar suits should be brought by the county to restrain the construction or maintenance of such groins on tidelands adjoining county property at the beach.

"The authorities, including Atty.-Gen. Webb, have reached the conclusion that it is necessary to file these actions to abate these groins as public nuisances against all the parties who erected them and maintain them and to prevent the erection of other groins by other parties," Becker said, "in order to bring about united action, if possible, between the county of Los Angeles, the city of Los Angeles, the owners of lands adjoining the tidelands on Santa Monica Bay, and the State of California itself in devising some plan or scheme which will regulate the erection of groins or other bulkheads or breakwaters over the tidelands or on beaches and open them properly to the free use of the public."

Ritz Zone Plea Up Next Week

A hearing on the application of the California Western Holding Company for a change of zone to permit the erection of the $5,000,000 Hollywood Ritz-Carlton Hotel in the Hollywoodland hills at the head of Gower street and Argyle avenue will be conducted next Wednesday morning, the City Planning Commission announced yesterday.

SMALL GIRL FEARED KIDNAPED LOCATED

Bebe Allen

Reported kidnaped, Bebe Allen, 10 years of age, of 1434 1-2 Constance street, was located yesterday at the home of a family friend, Mrs. Grace Hayes, 1222 South Westlake avenue, where the child had gone, saying she was visiting with her parents' permission. She disappeared from home Sunday. Alarm for her safety grew yesterday morning when Mrs. Margaret Carson, 1311 Winfield street, reported that a man had tried to drag her from her bed in the early hours but had fled when she screamed. Mrs. Carson is 80 years of age, and in May, 1929, was instrumental in obtaining the conviction of a molester of neighborhood children. This man was released last January, police added.

An unidentified man yesterday afternoon told Traffic Policeman Soderstrom that a strange child answering Bebe Allen's description was at 1222 South Westlake avenue. Soderstrom found Bebe there with Mrs. Allen, who said the child had come visiting and had said she had her parents' permission. Bebe was taken to Georgia-street police station, to be turned over to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allen. They had reported that they confined her to her room Sunday for disobedience and that she had escaped.

Vernon Country Club Insurance Row Stirs Suit

Refusal of an insurance company to pay claims for the fire at the Vernon Country Club, 4949 Santa Fe street, February 18, 1929, is attacked in a suit for $2500 against the Century Insurance Company, Ltd., of Edinburgh, filed yesterday by C. A. Strayer, George Goldie and Tommy Jacobs, owners of the property burned.

It is asserted the insurance company is seeking to take wrongful advantage of a "mutual mistake" in not referring in the policy to the fact that the land on which the wrecked structure stood was owned by the American Can Company.

JULIAN CASE FIGHT PUSHED

Prosecution in Usury Trial Using Bank Data With Former Assistant Cashier on Stand

Still struggling to get documentary evidence into the record in support of the State's charges, prosecution in the case of sixteen business men charged with conspiracy to commit usury yesterday placed on the witness stand Paul H. Lipp, formerly assistant cashier of the Pacific-Southwest Trust & Savings Bank.

Lipp remained on the stand all day, identifying bank signature cards, deposit slips and ledger accounts purported to have been kept in connection with accounts of various of the defendants in 1926, during the time the Julian stock pool, on which the charges are based, was in operation.

Although Special Prosecutor Stafford and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Crail made no explanation of what they expect to prove by Lipp's testimony, it is generally believed that their purpose is to prove that signatures on the bank cards are the same as facsimiles appearing on photographs that the prosecution has spent more than two weeks trying to prove are copies of the original Julian stock pool agreements. In addition, the ledger accounts are supposed to show entries corresponding to asserted profits made on the stock deal.

Lipp was on the witness stand when court adjourned until Monday morning and is expected to resume at that time. His testimony will be followed by that of a handwriting expert, according to the prosecutors, and then another attempt to get the photographs in evidence probably will be made. Conferences of attorneys on both sides over the week-end may result in stipulations as to evidence that will materially shorten the case.

Teeth Bothering You? Good Advice Vitally Important
By DR. PAINLESS PARKER
Founder of the E. R. PARKER SYSTEM

WHEN your teeth are bothering you, the first step is to find out what the trouble is. You must go to a dentist, get him to examine your mouth and give you advice.

A mistake in advice leads to all sorts of trouble, so it is highly important to get good advice in the beginning.

Dentists who use the E. R. Parker System examine and treat so many patients that the advice they give is founded upon much experience. The man who does things over and over many times becomes very skillful.

Dentists using the Parker System do not believe it is fair to charge for making examinations or giving advice. When you call at one of their offices, your mouth is examined by an [illegible] dentist and a chart is prepared on which the [illegible] teeth are shown.

The necessary treatment is explained to you, and you are told in advance just what the price will be for having needed work done.

The examination costs you nothing. If you decide not to take the dentist's advice, you may depart just as freely as you would walk out of a railroad ticket office after inquiring the fare to some other city without buying a ticket. Courtesy assured.

Indigestion Immediate Relief!

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. The food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The results are immediate, with no bad after-effects. [illegible] Milk of Magnesia [illegible] druggists.

HOLLYWOOD HAS HUB ROLE

Fox Official Tells Convention Theatrical Arts All Center in Sound Films Now

With the advent of the audible screen Hollywood has become the center of all the theatrical arts, opera, the concert platform and the stage, James R. Grainger, vice-president in charge of distribution told delegates yesterday to the international sales convention of the Fox Film Corporation at the Ambassador.

"We were but an infant in the entertainment field in the old days of the silent picture," Grainger declared. "But now with talking pictures few persons, in the rapid advancement of the industry in the last two years, have paused to realize the commanding position films have assumed.

"The entire music industry is dependent on Hollywood. There has not been an outstanding song hit since pictures found their voice that was not written especially for and incorporated into some motion picture."

The stage, Grainger believes, will accept a secondary position because of talking pictures and more and more will rely on the film industry for its productions. He feels the future musical productions will first be made for the screen and then for the smaller audiences that still cling to the stage for their entertainment.

Yesterday's session of the convention opened with a visit of the 300 delegates to the Fox Hollywood studios, where they saw a preview of "Common Clay," one of next year's pictures. In the afternoon there were business sessions at the Ambassador, when Grainger talked. Last night the delegates were guests of the Fox-West Coast Theaters at a dinner dance.

One of the highlights of the session today will be an address by Winfield R. Sheehan, vice-president in charge of production.

MOVE MADE TO SELL CITY PROPERTIES

Council Orders Werner to Draw Up Ordinance Prior to Offering Four Parcels

Another effort to sell four parcels of city-owned property was instituted by the City Council yesterday on recommendation of the Finance Committee when City Attorney Werner was directed to prepare an ordinance offering the tracts for sale. A minimum price for each one is to be fixed.

The properties are the site of the old City Hall, estimated by the land agent to be worth $580,000; the Central Police Station site, estimated at $130,000, less $5000 for the removal of the present buildings; a lot at 1019 South Broadway, estimated at $200,000, and a lot at 1224 South Broadway, $135,000.

A few years ago the Council asked for bids on these properties, but due to a defect in title, which now apparently is cleared up, no offers were made. It is believed to be the purpose of the Council to devote the proceeds of the sale to the erection of a police and health administration building in the Civic Center.

CALIFORNIA PRAISED AS SEED AREA

Government Man Says 90 Per Cent of Supply in Nation Grown on Coast

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 28.—California as a seed-producing section was paid high tribute here today by H. A. Choth of the United States Department of Agriculture, speaking at the second day's session of the Pacific States Seedmen's Association's annual convention at the Huntington. Choth pointed out that practically 90 per cent of all vegetable seeds used in the country are produced in this State. He stated also that specialization in seed production has resulted from diversified farming, principally in California.

Fourteen new concerns on the Coast were admitted to membership in the organization today, indicating growth in the seed industry.

At the banquet tonight the following officers were elected: Albert M. Hand, Portland, president; R. E. Mason, San Francisco, vice-president; Howard Jenks, Salem, Or., secretary-treasurer, and Frank Leckenby, Seattle, B. B. Liefgreen, Phoenix, and Manfred Meyberg, Los Angeles, members of the directorate. Meyberg is the retiring president.

The convention will conclude tomorrow with sight-seeing tours.

Ground Broken for Art Center

Of interest to patrons of the arts was the breaking of ground yesterday for the Le Vanna College of Arts to be located one block south of Wilshire on Robertson Boulevard.

The Le Vanna College, which will be completed in ninety days, is to be one of the largest projects of its kind in the district. It is to be devoted exclusively to the furthering of interest in the cultural arts.

The building will be a two-story brick structure containing studios and a miniature theater where plays and entertainments will be presented. Dr. A. L. Seibert will be director.

PAVING CONTRACTS LET

The Board of Public Works yesterday awarded the contracts for the grading and paving of Gaffey street from Twenty-fifth street to Hamilton avenue, $3517.75; the paving of D street from Dominguez avenue to Broad avenue, $61,302.21, and the paving of Mines avenue from Indiana street to Hollenbeck avenue, $6459.31.

REWARD POSTED BY LLOYD FOR POISONER OF HIS DOG

Harold Lloyd, motion-picture comedian, yesterday announced he has posted a reward of $500 for information leading to arrest of the persons responsible for the poisoning of his champion Great Dane dog that died last Saturday night. Lloyd has private investigators seeking clews.

Chemists' reports as to the cause of the death of the dog were at variance yesterday when Dr. John McKenna, veterinarian for the Los Angeles Kennel Club, announced the city chemist's office had reported to him no trace of strychnine was found in the contents of the dog's stomach.

A privately engaged chemist submitted a written report to Lloyd yesterday that he had found strychnine in his chemical analysis. Specimens from the stomach of a second dog which died during the recent show of the kennel club did not show any poison trace, the city chemist's report also stated.

The loss of Lloyd's champion will not deter the comedian from entering his prize dogs in the coming shows, he said. He will enter twice as many at the coming show in Pasadena on June 6 and 7, he declared.

The prize animal died a short time after being removed to its kennel from a dog show at the Ambassador last week.

WEALTHY MAN FOUND SUICIDE

Jacob Partridge Discovered Strangled in Room

Laundry Bag Cord Utilized in Ending His Life

Hastily Written Will Gives Money to Relatives

Jacob J. Partridge, wealthy retired business man of Hollywood, was found strangled to death in his apartment home at 7021 Hollywood Boulevard yesterday morning. Detective Lieutenants Warren and Baldridge reported it a case of suicide.

This conclusion was corroborated by the finding of a hastily written will in his bedroom and was further supported by the statement of Dr. E. G. Harris of 1109 North Vermont avenue, who said he had been treating Partridge for a nervous disorder for some time.

The body, first discovered by a maid, Miss Louise Reynolds, was found by detectives slumped against the inside of the dressing-room door. Partridge, the detectives said, tied one end of a laundry bag cord over the top of the door, the other end around his neck, and then let himself fall to the floor.

The will directed that $10,000 be given to John Partridge, a brother, of 3917 Washington street, San Francisco, $7000 to each of three sisters, Mildred, Agnes and Florence, of 5614 Blackstone avenue, Chicago, and the residue to Mary Partridge Dabney of Chicago, and that John T. Marcell, an attorney of Omaha, be appointed executor. The body was removed to the county morgue. Partridge was 54 years of age.

OCTOGENARIAN ENDS HIS LIFE BY HANGING

Suicide by hanging yesterday ended the life of William Harmon, 80 years of age, 3534 Arroya Seco Drive, police reported. The body was found in a garage at the rear of the house by Nat Waldon, 10-year-old son of Harmon's nephew, W. L. Waldon, with whom the octogenarian lived. Waldon told Policeman Roselli that Harmon had voiced despondency recently because a woman acquaintance in Iowa had hanged herself in a garage. The body was sent to the morgue.

OFFICE CLOSED

A score of cancelled checks, cashed or banked by those operating the "association," have been turned over to the authorities and connections by handwriting are said to have been made until the investigators are practically assured of early arrests.

The local offices of the operators which were in a downtown building have been closed for several days, but great packets of letters, thought to be bearing money in response to the asserted fake "improvement calls," have been dropped through the letter slots.

Investigators say the offices have been watched for several days, and at least four men positively have been identified when they came to unlock the offices, pocket the mail and take it away to other rendezvous for opening and inspection.

QUICK ACTION PLANNED

With almost perfectly linked chains of evidence as result of the quiet investigations, it is expected that Dist.-Atty. Fitts or U. S. Dist.-Atty. McNabb will immediately take the matter to their respective grand juries—county and Federal—and demand indictments.

In San Francisco the investigation has been proceeding since the 22nd inst., following complaints to postal inspectors that the "improvement calls" had been received levying $5 a lot assessment against properties for promised improvements, some of which already have been installed.

Yesterday Dist.-Atty. Swart at Redwood City announced an investigation on similar complaints he has received from property owners in the Kings Mountain and Marine View Terrace districts. Leonard & Holt, a real estate company of Redwood City, also turned in a complaint to postal inspectors.

City Officials to Visit Camps

Members of the City Council, the Playground and Recreation Commission, and other city officials will take advantage of the Memorial Day holiday by enjoying a three-day frolic at Camp Radford in the San Bernardino Mountains, beginning tomorrow, according to Supt. Hoyt of the playground department.

The trip will provide an advance inspection of the municipal playground, which will open to the public June 15.

Camp Seeley, the other Los Angeles municipal camp in the San Bernardino Mountains, will have as special guests over the week-end representatives of the City Planning Department and Park Department. This playground will be open to the use of the public June 8.

Body of Baby Found in Lot

Investigation of the possible murder of a month-old baby girl was started by Captain of Detectives Massey of the North Hollywood police division, following the finding, yesterday morning, of the body of an infant in a clump of weeds near Sherman Way between Knob Hill and Shumach Drives. It was wrapped in an old gray blanket with pink stripes and lay on several newspapers bearing the date, January 5 of this year.

The discovery was made by a city fireman employed in burning weeds. The body was removed to the Van Nuys Funeral Home where an autopsy will be performed.

without leaving a trace of his identity, the officers said.

Immediately the train was stopped, but it proceeded on to Pasadena, where it was reported in, and the conductor made a report to Detective Lieutenants Robert O'Rourke and Arthur Mansell of the Pasadena force.

COOL IN EXECUTION

The bandit confused the train officials by wearing the blue denim jumper—such as workers about the station wear—when he went aboard the train, and they said they believed him an employee aboard on some business. He was first revealed as a robber when he whipped the gun from his pocket and placed it over the porter's heart.

He is described by the passengers as being rather youthful looking and of ruddy complexion; about six feet tall and of 155 pounds in weight. He is thought to have carefully planned the robbery for he went about it with coolness and dispatch, and was less than seven minutes completing the crime.

After bidding her husband goodby, Miss Nixon returned to her home at 601 North Maple Drive, Beverly Hills.

The Sheriff's office, Los Angeles and Pasadena and railroad police joined in the search for the man, although his extreme care in concealing his face—which none saw clearly—may assist in his complete escape, the officers say.

Harbor Board Seeks Release of Yacht Land

Attorneys for the Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday were directed by the board to investigate and find out whether it is legally possible to have released to the Harbor department that portion of the California Yacht Club's lease in Wilmington not being used by the club. The club has a thirty-year lease on approximately five acres fronting on the west side of the East Basin.

The action was taken following a request from the club that the harbor department restore the fence torn down to allow temporary use of a portion of the lease for storage of pipe cargo during an emergency many months ago.

President Allen declared the club is using but a portion of the lease and the land is valuable for handling cargo to avoid congestion back of berths 188, 189 and 190.

In the meantime the board has under consideration the development of a large yacht anchorage in the outer harbor, between the breakwater and the Miner Fill, for the general use of all yachts, under direction of the harbor department.

Badge Ordinance Passage Held Up by City Council

The Police Commission's new badge ordinance was brought up before the City Council yesterday for adoption but, because of the objections of Councilman Williams, was referred back to the Police and Fire Committee.

Williams protested those provisions of the ordinance which allow the issuance of badges to anyone suitable to the commission. The ordinance also specifies that radio announcers are to receive the special badges at one time restricted to newspaper reporters.

CITY BUS LINE PLAN KILLED

Transportation Board Tables League's Petition on Ground of Impossibility of Financing

The Public Utilities League's petition to the Mayor and City Council for a fleet of publicly owned and operated busses in Los Angeles, with a recommendation that all applications for franchises by privately owned transportation companies be denied, was ordered laid on the shelf yesterday by the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation, to which it had been referred.

The board approved the following view, expressed by its engineers:

"We do not feel that a very exhaustive report is necessary on this matter, it being obvious that with the present state of city finances, and the need for water and other improvements which are of paramount importance, it would be impossible for the city to finance any such fleet of motorbusses to take care of all transportation needs.

"It also is very questionable with the present status of motorbusses whether the same can be operated nearly as cheaply as electric street railways in considering mass transportation."

In its effort to rid the city of street cars and privately owned busses, the league, through its president, Robert G. Loucks, has appeared before the board and opposed the proposed rerouting of C street cars through the Third-street tunnel, and granting of franchises on Central and Grand avenues, or anywhere else that the Los Angeles Railway is likely to receive permission to operate.

PIONEER FAMILIES WILL JOIN

Evalyn McCombs and Emilio deLavigne Will Wed Next Month

The wedding next month of Evalyn McCombs and Emilio deLavigne will unite two of the oldest families in Southern California. The marriage will take place at All Souls' Church with Rev. Edward Gaylord officiating. Invitations will be limited to intimate friends and relatives, but there will be a large reception afterward.

Mrs. Esther Stone will be matron of honor. Miss Lorraine Leschen of St. Louis will be maid of honor. Other attendants will be Mrs. Josephine Bailey, Mrs. Miriam Sheppard and Miss Virginia Kemper, all of this city. The best man will be Tom Bailey. Miss McCombs's forefathers came out early in the pioneering years from Kentucky.

Emilio deLavigne's father married Praxedis deArnaz, whose family was one of the strongest landholders in Southern California.

Miss McCombs was educated in this city and finished at National Park Seminary in Washington. After graduation she spent a year in Europe.

Mr. deLavigne is 24 years of age. He attended the Los Angeles High School and the University of California at Los Angeles, where he joined the Zeta Psi Fraternity. He will practice law.

Agricultural Association to Have Program

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Sixth District Agricultural Association will be commemorated Saturday with a program at Exposition Park. Following a reception to Gov. Young at 2 p.m. the program will be given at the bandstand.

There are to be talks by Gov. Young, Dr. Rufus B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, and Dr. Bruce Baxter, an introduction of former Gov. George C. Pardee, James N. Gillett, William D. Stephens and Friend W. Richardson; a planting of a South African oak in honor of the first board of directors of the association, and an inspection of the buildings. William M. Bowen is to be chairman of the day and music will be provided by the U.S.C. band.

Club Installs New Officers at Banquet

Eighty members of the Women's Traffic Club of Los Angeles gathered at the Mayfair Hotel last night for their annual banquet and installation of officers. Favors in the form of airplanes were a feature of the tables.

The club members are drawn from the transportation divisions of the large industrial and transportation companies of the city. They had as their chief speaker last night Mrs. Twyla Kelly, the first woman to organize a school of aeronautics in Los Angeles. She also established the Kelly Airport near Hawthorne in 1927, and last night she told the business women of the opportunities she saw in air transportation for the members of her sex.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Grace Dewey, presided. The new officers are Miss Gertrude Mason, Western Air Express, president; Miss Ruth Van Eaton, first vice-president; Irene Donahue, second vice-president; Miss Maybelle Butterfield, recording secretary; Miss Julia Turechek, corresponding secretary; Miss Elizabeth Connelly, treasurer, and Miss Evelyn Ripley, sergeant-at-arms.

Air Service to Salt Lake City Will Be Daily

Seven-day-a-week passenger service to Salt Lake City and a later departure time from here on the Los Angeles-Dallas division will go into effect Sunday with the inauguration of air mail service between here and San Diego, it was announced last night by C. W. H. Smith, general traffic manager of Western Air Express.

"Heretofore, passengers have not been carried between here and the Utah city on Monday," Smith said, "but the new air mail extension will make this possible. Planes leaving here at 7:35 a.m. will carry passengers, while the 7 p.m. ships will transport only mail."

Young to Make Many Speeches

Planning to stay in Southern California a week, Gov. Young is to arrive here today. The executive's speaking schedule is as follows:

Today, United Veterans of the Republic luncheon, Long Beach Women's Republican Club dinner; tomorrow, Hollywood American Legion, 9:30 a.m.; Val Verde Park celebration at Saugus, 1:30 p.m., and Armenian Protestant Church meeting, 3:30 p.m.; Saturday, fiftieth anniversary celebration at the University of Southern California, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday morning, South Hollywood Presbyterian Church; Monday, ratification dinner, Alexandria; Wednesday, Santa Monica, Masonic dinner, 6 p.m., and Thursday, dinner for H. B. Franklin, Biltmore.

FIRECRACKER BURNS BOY

A firecracker exploded last night in the face of Johnnie Firth, 8 years of age, of 2008 Temple street, as he was leaning over to light it. The boy was burned about the eyes and face. At Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where he was treated, Dr. Savarin said he will recover.

Mexican War Soldiers Will Be Paid Honor

For the first time since it was a pueblo Los Angeles is honoring the memory of American soldiers of the Mexican War of 1846. On Memorial Day at 10:30 a.m. the Historical Society of Southern California will have a joint meeting with the California History and Landmarks Club, at which they will unveil a tablet on the historic Avila Adobe on Olvera street, stating that it was the headquarters of Commodore Stockton, hero of the Mexican War in California, on the American occupation of Los Angeles in 1847.

MRS. A.S.C. FORBES

Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes and Dr. J. C. Parish will speak. Representatives of the Army and Navy will be present. There will be music.

Today's Bible Text

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.—1 Cor. xv:58.

MACHINE AGE

If you do not believe this is a machine age, become a county prosecutor and try to straighten up the politicians.

STOVE POLISH

Modern college education will now show for a time on hair and shoes. But keep up hope; it will gradually burn off and folks will forget.

DIPLOMATIC SCIENTISTS

Explorers hire brigands to conduct them safely through bandit-infested section of China. Evidently takes a thief to lose a thief, too.

INCONGRUITIES OF LIFE

Traffic on "world's busiest thoroughfare," in Chicago, halts to let mother goose and five little goslings across. Pedestrians don't receive so much consideration.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

French Ambassador protests Mussolini speech that sounds imperialistic. Probably the remarks smacked of Napoleonic ambitions to the land once ruled by the little man from Corsica.

EATS

Eating joints have multiplied three times faster than families, says Nation's Business. Women are deserting the kitchen sink for the sinking fund. The swivel chair appears to be more attractive than the kitchen chair.

LOAN STAR STATE

Judging by the way Hollywood stars are being loaned to show houses out over the country for personal appearances, the Pathfinder thinks that California may soon dispute with Texas the title of the Lone Star State.

WHY?

Nearly every city of size is weeping copious tears and roaring over the census reports. Few seem to come up to expectations. Either the various boosting bodies were wearing telescopes, or were advertising. Since all cities appear to want to take on weight and size, why are they not given the masculine gender?

FOOTPRINTS

Four cubes of cement weighing 450 pounds each and bearing the footprints and handprints of Clara Bow, Buddy Rogers, Adolphe Menjou and Esther Ralston have just been shipped from Hollywood to Melbourne, Australia, to be planted in the lobby of a theater. Possibly so those who have just heard the talkie, "Seeing, May Take Heart Again."

GROWTH IN ARIZONA

Census figures so far made known for Arizona show a very satisfactory growth, indeed. Phoenix, for instance, now boasts a population of 47,950 within its corporate limits and of 91,826 within immediately surrounding territory, a growth of 60.59 per cent since 1920, while Tucson, with 32,198, has a gain of 58.67 per cent.

Phoenix will now appear in the city lists with such cities as Pueblo, Col.; Dearborn, Mich.; Pittsfield, Mass.; Kenosha, Wis.; Woonsocket, R. I.; Port Arthur, Tex.; Haverhill, Mass.; Jackson, Mich.; Everett, Mass.; Stockton, Cal.; Elmira, N. Y.; Muncie, Ind., and Lexington, Ky., which is no mean company. But neither Phoenix nor Tucson is destined to stay there.

Most of these cities are in developed territory. They will gain slowly or not at all, while Phoenix and Tucson are certain to forge ahead. By the time 1940 has rolled around, these Arizona cities will have added another 60 per cent or more and will be well on their way to metropolitan rank. The wealth of resources surrounding both is a guarantee of their future. They can no more avoid growing than the Arizona sun can be stopped from shining.

Contributing to this continued prosperity will be Colorado River control and development, beginning with the building of Black Canyon Dam. Erection of this structure will pour out a lot of dollars in Arizona, and many of them will remain there and keep on working.

THE PLAZA STATION

The decision of the California State Supreme Court that the California Railroad Commission has power to order the construction of the union station at the Plaza, since the Interstate Commerce Commission has not, and further that the order which the commission has issued is legal and proper in all respects, seems to settle the matter as far as the State of California is concerned. While an appeal is possible to the United States Supreme Court, the law is so well settled that in matters of railroad regulation, any field not occupied by the Federal government may be occupied by the States, that such an appeal can hardly hope to succeed.

About the only thing the railroads can expect to gain now is time. In view of the fact that these delaying efforts build up bad will, and in view of the fact that the present is a very favorable time for construction, earnest consideration of whether a further fight is worth while should be given the matter by the three carriers involved.

There has been a suspicion for some time that railroad officials are more anxious to win for the sake of winning than they are to prevent the building of the Plaza station. Erection of the station will be a positive benefit to the carriers in so many ways that the objections to it on its merits are trivial, even from a railroad standpoint. The Santa Fe cannot be satisfied with its present station location. The Union Pacific has no station, except by temporary arrangement, and the site on which its old station was located was unsatisfactory and unsuitable. The Southern Pacific's station is already overcrowded and outgrown, besides which the Espee cannot conceivably desire to maintain its dangerous and delaying trackage along Alameda street, where its trains must compete for room with other traffic. And none of the roads can really be anxious to put up four or five miles of noisy, unsightly elevated structure in the face of such public opposition as has been manifested every time this proposal was put forward.

The railroads recognized the weight of the popular voice when, several years ago, they invited a referendum and inferentially declared they would abide by the result. This they repudiated when the majority of the voters favored both a union station and the Plaza site for it, and the roads declined to accept the decision; which was, to say the least, poor sportsmanship, especially as they themselves brought the issue to a vote. The roads should now recognize that public opinion has stood steadfastly by the Plaza site and will continue to do so. And public opinion has a good deal to do with the railroads' bread and butter.

The legal status of the Plaza question is about as follows: The State Railroad Commission, after repeated hearings at which all the alternatives suggested by the carriers have been fully considered and rejected for cause, has ordered the construction of a union station at the Plaza area, to serve the public convenience and safety—the latter by abolishing grade crossings. The Interstate Commerce Commission likewise has approved the Plaza site, has decided that the construction of the station will not be an undue financial burden upon the carriers, and has issued certificates of public convenience and necessity. The United States Supreme Court, while holding that the Interstate Commerce Commission is without power to require the construction of union stations, has upheld all other steps taken by the Interstate Commerce Commission and has passed favorably on the certificates issued by it. The State Supreme Court has held that the State Railroad Commission has power to order the construction of such a station and has properly exercised that power.

All the railroad contentions have been whittled away by successive decisions of the courts and regulatory bodies, except the single one of whether the power to require union stations, upon proper showing, exists in any government body. Upon this question the United States Supreme Court has not passed directly and specifically, though incidental reference in its opinions, particularly in what is known as the Second Los Angeles Union Station Case, leave practically no doubt as to what its decision will be.

It has been conceded repeatedly by the carriers that the State had power, prior to the Transportation Act of 1920, to order the building of such a station. It has been held by the Supreme Court that the Transportation Act of 1920 does not confer such a power upon the Interstate Commerce Commission. The only question that appears to be remaining is whether the Transportation Act of 1920 stripped the State of its former power and created a "legal vacuum." The State Supreme Court now says no.

In view of the ingenuity of the railroad lawyers, it is perhaps too much to say that no other questions can be raised and that the end of the controversy is, therefore, in sight. But at some point in the proceedings an end will be reached. Since practically every step so far has marked a victory for the city, there can be little doubt that when that end is reached the station will be built.

The railroads can earn a lot of good will, can give employment to many men, can save construction costs and can add to their own and the city's prosperity by doing it now.

THE BUNKER HILL QUESTION

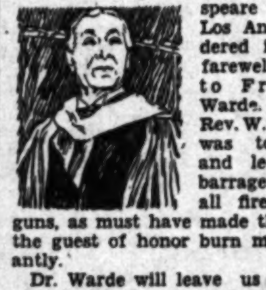
Bunker Hill and what shall be done with it has been a question long enough. It should be settled, one way or the other. For this reason the economic survey now proposed, which will give an unbiased, disinterested opinion on the economic feasibility of the Bigelow plan, should by all means be conducted. Either the removal of the hill will prove profitable or it will not; but it is very unprofitable to leave matters as they stand, in a condition of uncertainty.

Recognizing the community interest in the question, the county has voted to contribute $5000 to the cost of the survey and the City Council has agreed to allot a similar amount. The city's appropriation has been voted by the Council and is now in the hands of Mayor Porter. The community is interested because, if Bunker Hill can be cut down, there will be a vast addition to the assessment roll and various traffic problems will be made easier; the city will be saved expense of tunnel construction and various other costs. Most of the cost of the survey is already pledged from private sources and the amount asked from the public is smaller than the public's proportionate interest.

Whether any individual is for or against the Bigelow plan makes no difference. Certain large interests are known to be strongly opposed. But even these can have no legitimate objection to a fact-finding outside appraisal of the situation, which will dispose of the question one way or the other.

The
LEE SIDE O' L.A.
BY Lee Shippey

IT ISN'T often that a banquet in honor of an actor is presided over by a bishop, but that was the case the other night when the Shakespeare Club of Los Angeles tendered its annual farewell banquet to Frederick Warde. The Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens was toastmaster and led such a barrage of praises, all fired by big guns, as must have made the ears of the guest of honor burn most pleasantly.

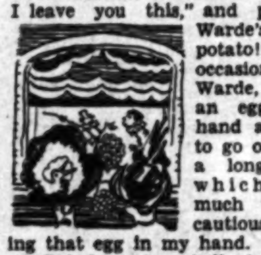


Dr. Warde will leave us in June, after the University of Southern California has conferred new honors on him. But he will be back with us in the fall. For the grand old man of the American stage is very much ours now, member of several of our clubs and societies, lecturer at both U.S.C. and U.C.L.A. and known and loved by every cultural group in the Southland.

Now It Can Be Told

As a schoolboy, we saw Frederick Warde and Louis James together and always shall remember them. They set the standard then for all dignity and all nobility. If we were asked to picture dignity today the mental photograph of one of them would rise before us.

Yet they were just two frankish boys, teasing each other and playing tricks on each other throughout the show. James, especially, was always trying to make Warde laugh. Winding up a grandiloquent speech, he would declaim: "In token of my love I leave you this," and press into Warde's hand—a potato! "On one occasion," says Warde, "he left an egg in my hand and I had to go on through a long speech, which required much gesturing, cautiously clutching that egg in my hand. I used to retaliate by unexpectedly doing things or calling things from the wings, to distract him and make him forget his lines. If I could have made him stumble in the declamation of an important speech it would have been a triumph."



So they were always wide awake, always on guard, always thinking of what they were saying.

Sorrows of a Banker

At that banquet we sat beside Orra Monnette, who is not merely one of the h.p. execs. of the Bank of Italy but a poet, an authority on genealogy and an able speaker. You'd think all those accomplishments and achievements would make any man completely happy but not so.

"You can't imagine how much trouble I have with my first name," he said. "People are always overlooking the double 'r' in it. They address me as 'Ora Monnette,' or 'Dear Miss Monnette,' or 'Dear Madam.'"

It is astonishing how carelessly even well-educated people glance at names. We are informed that our name recently was posted on a placard (without our desire or knowledge) as "Lee Slippey." We don't think it was intentional, either. For that matter, we still hear people talking about Lindenbergh and get letters about Lindsburg and Lindberger. Can anybody guess who they are?

Speaking of Camouflaged Poets

Orra Monnette's case reminds us that you never know where poetry is going to break out. Sunday Miss Laura Cadmus drove our faithful helpspend and us over to Covina to have tea with Mme. Ellen Beach Yaw—and while we were there Mme. Yaw read two lovely poems of her own composition. And then she sang, with the same glory which thrilled Paris and Rome at the height of her stage career. She was in the midst of a very difficult number when she saw unexpected guests coming, and for an instant we feared that hospitality was going to triumph over art. But Mme. Yaw hurried to the door, still singing, shook hands, escorted each of the four new arrivals to a seat, and went back to the piano, without missing a note. And not one of us missed a note, either. Without word or look to any of us she made us all understand what she wanted to do and both the arriving guests and we who were already there were silent. There really was no interruption, of song, of mood, of atmosphere. Then, after marching clear out of the room, as if going off stage, in the grand finale, Mme. Yaw returned to introduce the newcomers to us oldcomers.

We never shall forget it. Yet the poetry impressed us even more.

Art in One Lesson

Miss Lay, Mme. Yaw's accompanist and friend, told a story which rings true. Recently Miss Lay guided a beautiful young Hollywooder through an art gallery. After the inspection, the face which has launched many a thousand feet of film spoke out boldly.

"Well, I know what I like, anyway. My favorite artist is Mural."

"You mean Murillo?" gently suggested Miss Lay.

"No, Mural—the feller that painted all those pretty things on the walls."

PATRIOTIC DUTY

Most of our Senators must come from sturdy stock. At least it was indicated they still have grandmothers the other day. The Senate was unable to obtain a quorum when the league-leading Senators were in action at the ball park.

NOT SO FAR AWAY

New York skyscraper installs theater on fiftieth floor. Probably anticipating the time when the entrance to the building will be from airplanes landed on the roof.

Caw, Caw.

SUCH IS LIFE

By James J. Montague

We know that wrens and orioles
  Emit their loud "tweet-tweeties"
With all the ardor of their souls
  To win their feathered sweeties.
The nightingale's delicious trills,
  The dove's ecstatic cooing,
The shrieking of the whip-poor-wills
  Are but a form of wooing.
Each little bird bursts into song
To kid some lady friend along.

You'd think the singers from whose throats
  Come only croaks and cackles
And other harsh and raucous notes,
  Like crows' and grebes' and grackles',
Would sing in vain throughout their lives,
  With neither tune nor rhythm,
Without inducing any wives
  To share their fortunes with 'em.
And yet they win 'em just the same
As masters of the singing game.

Yet, reader, it mayhap have been
  Your common observation
That merit does not always win
  A maiden's admiration.
A peach will often shake her head
  When men of talent woo her,
And then incontinently wed
  Some brazen-faced ill-doer.
This may be right or may be wrong;
There is no moral to my song.

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

BURNING THE BONDS

[New York World]

It was strikingly symbolic that on the last day of its existence the Reparations Commission should have burned German bonds with a face value of $37,000,000,000. This was an appropriate method of showing that the vain hopes of huge indemnities, which found expression in the Treaty of Versailles and which did so much to prolong the wartime hatreds, had at last gone up in smoke. The Allied claims on conquered Germany have been scaled down from this impossible sum to the nine billions provided for in the Young plan. This represents what Owen D. Young has called the triumph of economics over politics; it is a victory of realism over chauvinism.

The burning of these old reparation issues, the termination of the Reparations Commission in Paris and the closing of the office of the Agent General for Reparations in Berlin mark the beginning of a new era in international relations in Europe. Germany is at last to be freed of her financial receivership, and with the withdrawing of French troops from the Rhineland next month she will be still further relieved of the vexatious foreign control which has retarded the healing of the wounds of war.

Bit by bit the post-war machinery designed at Versailles has been scrapped.

SUBSTITUTING FOR MEXICANS

[Detroit Free Press]

The Harris-Box bill to restrict immigration from Mexico is a discriminatory and vicious measure, which, if Congress enacts it, should be promptly vetoed. The volume of immigration now coming in from Mexico is not so alarming as to warrant slapping our nearest neighbor to the south in the face without accomplishing a single thing of benefit to this country.

Certain industries in the United States depend largely on the type of labor obtained from Mexico. They will continue to get it. Shut out Mexicans and these industries will turn to the Philippines and Porto Rico for the laborers they need. Would the substitution of Filipinos and Porto Ricans for Mexicans be either economically or socially desirable?

The sugar planters of Hawaii, after trying out Chinese and Portuguese labor on their plantations, went down to Porto Rico about 1900 and signed on several thousand Porto Ricans and shipped them to Honolulu. They were the most turbulent element ever imported into the islands. Within a year or so more than half of them were in jail or had been there.

This is the type of immigrant the sponsors of the Harris-Box bill prefer to the Mexicans! And they are willing gratuitously and unnecessarily to offend the sensibilities of a proud and sensitive neighbor in order to get it.

THE REAL PURPOSE

[Baltimore Sun]

What the big-navy people always have wanted, of course, is a navy superior to that of any other nation, and that is what they still want, as the present hearings in Washington demonstrate. They talk about being for parity with Great Britain because they dare not talk any other way. If the demand for parity has become a kind of national fetish, it also has served to fix a limit to naval expansion in the popular mind, and the big-navy people know they cannot demand outright what they actually want. But they stay on the job.

No Twiddling For Twaddlers

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In Washington, Congressmen object to having to use a dial phone. Ordinary folks may use a dial phone and manage to stumble along through the day all right. But for a Congressman to have to use one is too fatiguing. It is infra dig for a real representative of the horny-handed sons of toil to have to fiddle and twiddle with a machine when he wants telephonic connection. It is stultifying to the Congressional intellect and subversive to good morals. Just imagine! If the legislative finger slips, the impertinent machine does not function. Such impudence, such arrogance in a piece of mechanism.

The telephone company is clearly at fault. They ought to have it arranged so that when the Congressman from the farther reaches of Mud Prairie lifts the receiver, instantly a purple glow should suffuse the ambient atmosphere of the central office of the telephone company. A Congressman is on the wire! Instantly an awed silence; all business stands still, breathless, speechless. The great Mr. Nitwit is talking.

The Minor Key

ALHAMBRA, May 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Apropos of the recent installments of the book by Prof. Sigmund Freud. Dr. Freud takes for granted that we are all striving for happiness beyond all else. If I could I would not choose happiness, but to be freed forever from all worry and indecision.

I would not ask for pleasure, but for freedom from pain.

The Purpose of Life

SANTA MONICA, May 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial, "The Purpose of Life," in this morning's Times is a masterpiece. Thank God for a newspaper as clean as The Times. I have been a subscriber to The Times for eleven years and am more proud of it than ever. "The Purpose of Life" should be read by every school child in the world and especially by the parents.

Thank you for your very splendid newspaper. I enjoy the verse of Scripture published daily also.

Who Have Worked Well

SAN FERNANDO, May 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] May I enter a protest in The Times against the use of a common saying made by the thoughtless and uninformed salesmen that "75 per cent of men and women over 60 years of age are dependents of friends and relatives and that they are on the way to the poorhouse."

I think it lowers the dignity and prestige of financial institutions who are as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar when they use this catch penny slur to obtain business. Let us take off our hats to the men and women over 60, who helped to make our country a good place to live in regardless of whether or not they are living on Easy street today.

TOTS GET GOOD START

BY JANE FREDERICKSON

If the public schools of Los Angeles have their way and the children continue to apply in after life what they have learned in the grades, the next generation will be one of good citizens. Cleanliness will also be a fetish if the youngsters do not forget what they are learning today.

There was no maudlin sentiment expressed when I accepted an invitation to visit the third grade of the Dayton-street school for the Mother's Day exercises. Extremely practical were the promises the children made to their mothers. Each had written in a scrawly childish hand what he or she would do and had done for mother, and these were neatly bound to be inspected by the visitors. Some promised to make the beds, some to hoe weeds, others to run errands, one to clean the "washboll," others to mind "my baby." Surely the mothers would rather have had those promises than costly gifts or expensive flowers. The promises came right from the heart.

We were astonished to see the record of cleanliness and good citizenship those tiny tots kept, themselves making the checks as to "Good" or "Bad" in the little books in which were enumerated many things of which older people than this third grade are neglectful. Their honesty was evidenced by the marks showing they had not been faithful in all of the little things put down in the book.

Tastes Demand Color

In some sections of the country there is a demand for white eggs only, while in other parts the white eggs are declined. Marketers will often pay a premium for the particular color of their preference but chemists have been unable to detect any difference in the taste or the nourishing qualities. Nine housewives out of ten in the southern counties of England will not buy ham unless it is smoked a rich golden brown color. In the Midlands and the north nine housewives out of ten refuse such ham in favor of a much paler variety.

In all parts of the world where apples are grown, the red varieties are always selected by purchasers when less attractive fruit is really better flavored.

TOMORROW IS MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day originated in May, 1868, when Maj.-Gen. Logan, commander-in-chief of the G.A.R., set aside the thirtieth day of that month for members of the G.A.R. to decorate the graves of Union veterans. Gen. Logan's order was probably prompted by the fact that on June 9, 1865, one month after Lee's surrender at Appomattox, thousands of men, women and children of Richmond had marched in a body to Hollywood Cemetery to strew flowers upon the graves of Civil War soldiers, both Union and Confederate. Gen. Logan's order used the word "decorate," not "memorial," so that May 30 became known as Decoration Day. However, in 1882 the G.A.R. formally resolved that the day would be more fittingly called Memorial Day, all the more, as by that time it was being used to commemorate the services of all who had served the United States in all her armed conflicts. Both terms are now in use.

Rhode Island was the first State to make Decoration Day a legal holiday, in 1874. Her example has been followed by all the Northern States. Virginia observes it as Confederate Memorial Day. Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi observe Confederate Memorial Day on April 26; other Southern States observe it on March 10 and June 3; while still others observe June 3, the birthday of Jefferson Davis.

On last June 30 only 60,000 Civil War veterans were receiving Federal pensions out of 2,213,000 who served in the Union forces. Of these 28,000 were nearly helpless or blind and 6000 more were totally helpless or blind. Fifteen thousand Union veterans died in the fiscal year 1928-9, which was one-fifth of all on the pension rolls at the beginning of the year. There were also 181,000 widows of Civil War soldiers receiving pensions, 17,000 having died during the year.

Eleven widows of the war of 1812 were receiving pensions; one survivor and 700 widows of the war with Mexico; 5600 soldiers and 4000 widows of the Indian wars; 179,000 soldiers, 400 nurses and 28,500 widows of the war with Spain, and 14,500 soldiers and 3700 widows of the regular establishment.

The last survivor of the Revolutionary War was Daniel F. Bakeman, who died in 1869 at Freedom, N. Y., aged 109. The last widow of that war was Esther S. Damon, who died in Vermont in 1906 at the age of 92. The last survivor of the war of 1812 was Hiram Cronk, who died in New York State in 1905, at the age of 105. The last survivor of the war with Mexico, Owen T. Edgar, died during the past twelve months. If history repeats itself at least a quarter of a century will elapse before the last Civil War veteran will pass to the Great Beyond.

THE GRAY LEGION

(While watching a Memorial Day Parade. By Private 8202, A.E.F.)

An army, dead, but all in motion,
  My spirit saw that day.
It marched, resistless as the ocean;
No rest relieved its fierce devotion—
  A specter horde in gray.
Some purpose drove them, grim, unbending;
  A cause as yet not gained.
War's slain in wraiths marched past, defending
A spirit purpose, strife unending,
  Till guerdon be attained.
"Oh, why," I asked, "this mighty thronging
  Of warriors now dead?
And whose the fault and whose the wronging?
Why rest ye not? What is your longing?
  What victory lies ahead?"
The question asked was unappealing
  To spirit ear and eye.
But legion came on legion wheeling,
Still other hosts on march revealing
  Of those war caused to die.
The answer that I sought was given
  As standard-bearers passed.
Its message to my heart was driven
In words as though with lightning scriven:
  "That peace on earth may last!"

Health and Diet
ADVICE
by DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

SHOW A GOOD FACE

You have no doubt noticed how much you are influenced by other peoples faces. You like some people the first time you see them, but you have a hard time in learning to like others, even though you know they are good people.

Did you ever stop to think that your face influences other people in just the same manner that you are affected by other faces? You may be the best-hearted person alive, but if your face has a forbidding appearance you will have difficulty in making friends. A frank, open countenance is one of the best recommendations one can have.

The fact may be likened to a bulletin board which all the world may see, for it registers and expresses our sorrows or joys, hopes and dispairs, pain or happiness, health or sickness, honesty or dishonesty, faith or distrust.

Some people try to conceal their real emotions so as to appear honest when they are dishonest, or trustful when they are distrustful. All of these efforts to make the face appear when it is not, leads to a strain on the facial muscles which sooner or later makes an indelible impression that cannot be readily corrected.

We instinctively distrust those whose facial expressions do not appear natural, whether they appear overdesirous of pleasing, or whether they do not display the normal emotions. How much better it is to allow your face to express itself naturally. You do not then have to be constantly on guard. However, in order for you to do this you should train yourself to have the right kind of emotions at all times.

Most people regard the face as being an index to character, and there is no doubt that it is to some extent, although perhaps not as much as most people think. Nevertheless, the fact that people do think it is an index to character should be a sufficient reason for us to present a good face to the world.

You would not want the front yard of your home to be littered up with tin cans and broken boxes and old bottles, and it is certainly of more esthetic importance that your face be attractive and that it be tidied and kept clear of the mean, destructive emotions. Your face should reflect honesty, sincerity and friendliness. This is evidenced by frank, open eyes and the lips together with the corners upward. You can do your own face-lifting if you will only learn to control your emotions and make your face reflect good, kind, honest, happy thoughts.

There is no need to go about with scowling eyebrows and a drooping mouth. It is not as important to learn to smile when you are with others, as it is to build a habit of cultivating a good facial expression whether you are alone or in company. In other words, learn to advertise your good qualities, and it is amazing how much your own mind is influenced by whether you smile or frown.

Even though you were born with a face that is neither beautiful nor handsome, you can do much to overcome the indications of weakness or ugliness by letting your face reflect signs of friendliness, character and stability. Cultivate the highest ideals and determine to make the best out of yourself by combining the right kind of physical development and mental control.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

DATE AND ORANGE CUSTARD

Place in an enameled sauce pan three cupfuls of orange juice and one-half cupful of sugar, bring to a boil, skim carefully and when the sugar is dissolved, remove from the fire and cool. Scald and cool two cupfuls of milk, add this to the orange syrup with the well-beaten yolks of six eggs, and one tablespoonful of corn starch that has been dissolved in a little of the milk with one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Place the mixture in a double-boiler, stir and cook until thick and smooth. In the bottom of custard cups place two tablespoonfuls of chopped and stoned dates, fill the cups with the custard, set in the ice box until hardened. Turn out, sprinkle with chopped toasted almonds, and cinnamon.

CHERRY PIE

For the cherry pie, stem, wash and stone two pounds of black cherries and add to them one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, place in a sauce pan over a slow fire and when the sugar is melted let come to a slow boil, until the fruit is tender, skimming carefully. Remove from the fire and strain off the juice. To the juice add two level teaspoonfuls of gelatine that has been softened with two tablespoonfuls of cold water, add the cherries to the mixture, and when nearly cold, pour into a baked pie shell. Serve with whipped cream.

LOGANBERRY JAM

Place in a preserving kettle, three-quarters of a pound of sugar for each pound of berries used, cook slowly until the sugar is dissolved, then boil fast for thirty minutes. A nice combination is half loganberries and half currants, if using the currants, use pound for pound, and cook the same as the loganberry jam.

LOGANBERRY JELLY

Place the berries in a double-boiler and cook until they are very soft, place them in a jelly bag and strain, to each cup of juice, add one-third of a cupful of lemon juice and three-quarters of a cupful of sugar, and cook slowly until a little will jell when dropped on a cold plate.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

U.C.L.A. Girl Wins Art Prize

Word was received from Boston yesterday by Miss Jean Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Mansfield of 767 North Kenmore avenue, that she had been given the first award in the annual cover design contest sponsored by the House Beautiful Magazine for art students throughout the United States. Her award is a cash prize of $200.

This is the first year that students from the art department of the University of California at Los Angeles, where Miss Mansfield is a senior student, have entered the competition.

DEATH VALLEY SCOTTY GUEST AT BREAKFAST

Death Valley Scotty yesterday introduced his millionaire friend, A. M. Johnson, president of the National Life Insurance Company, to the Breakfast Club at their weekly ham-and-aggs. Other guests included Art Goebel, aviator; Dr. Harvey Fletcher, developer of Vitaphone; H. C. Gatty of Australia, the 1930 grand jury, Superior Judge Wood, and William Bloom, New York manufacturer. Morrison B. Egbert and G. E. Ellingson were hosts. Fred A. Cady, swimming coach of the Athletic Club, presented a painting he had done.

Practical and Attractive

Combining beauty with service, the cotton chenille rugs on the market at the present time give the final touch to the rather exalted bathrooms of nowadays. They come in any combination of colors to match whatever colorful bathroom you have selected, are colorfast no matter how hard they are scrubbed and retain that color until they are worn out. Look them up when you are replacing the bathroom rugs. Another feature that is desirable, cotton chenille rugs will always be flat after washing.

Keep Them Sweet

When putting away a metal tea or coffee pot that is not in use every day, lay a little stick across the top under the lid. This will allow fresh air to enter and prevent mustiness.

Clippings

Kerosene will remove fresh paint stains.

The water-drinking habit means a good complexion.

Common table salt will remove egg stains from a silk dress.

Spirits of nitre or spirits of camphor will help clear away that nasty fever blister.

Rub the nickel on the gas stove with a cloth wet with kerosene and note the improvement.

Narrow elastic is a good substitute for shoulder straps that continually fall off the shoulder down on the arm.

For Summer Weather

It is nice to have a pair of inexpensive cotton blankets for each bed for summer use. Then you are prepared for cool nights without being covered so warmly that you cannot sleep. This changing of blankets is a wonderful saver on your high-priced woolen blankets, too.

At the Festival

The next time you use Chinese lanterns for decoration at the bazaar place a little sand in the bottom of each lantern. They will not sway so much and are in less danger of catching fire.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Better Planning

Do you consider the next day's lunch when you are ordering things for dinner? There is a wealth of economy in ordering enough for dinner to heat up for luncheon the next day. A little extra soup, salad or spaghetti will do the trick and be sure to save that little bit of roast gravy. Just a few slices of leftover roast and that gravy means a hot meat sandwich for that hungry schoolboy.

Too Much Juice

When making relish or conserve and you have quite a great deal of juice, drain some of it off and rapidly boil down in another pot. Return if needed or save for a hotcake syrup. This will prevent the long boiling that makes the product so dark and mushy.

Easy Work

When replacing worn-out ribbons or elastic in underwear, pin the new piece to the old with a small safety pin. Then while you are pulling out the worn piece, you are also pulling into place the new.

Easter Lilies

After the Easter lily has bloomed, try planting it out in the garden. Frequently the buds will form late and the plant may be taken in doors again in the fall and blossom again.

Light Scorch Marks

Rub onion juice into the scorched article as soon as the accident occurs. If the article has not become too much burned this will remove the stains.

Scorched

It does happen sometimes in the best of families, but the next time you scorch an article of clothing, wet the scorched spot with clean water and sprinkle with borax. Place in the sun and the scorched stains will soon disappear.

for MEN and WOMEN

Dandruff . . . graying hair . . . falling hair . . . all are symptoms of an unhealthy scalp, and of starved hair roots. These conditions can positively be eliminated by Nourishine, a tonic that was only perfected after 30 years of research by one of America's leading chemists.

Nourishine gets right at the base of the trouble; it cleanses the scalp, dissolves the dandruff, and stimulates and nourishes the hair roots. In this way it gives the roots a chance to perform their natural functions, and gives them the strength to resist and defeat the inroads of dandruff. Starved hair roots nourished by this invigorating tonic will hold falling hair, and even make strides toward growing new hair. Nourishine will bring back the original color to the hair by supplying proper food to the follicles. And Nourishine contains absolutely no harmful ingredients! $1.25 at all drug and department stores. FREE folder sent on request.

A Bedtime Story

DANNY WATCHES CAROL

'Tis neither wise nor right to yearn
For that in which you've no concern.
—Carol the Meadow Lark.

Danny Meadow Mouse had something to think about. He was sure that the nest of Carol the Meadow Lark was somewhere in the neighborhood, but where he didn't know. Danny was interested. He knew that Mrs. Meadow Lark builds her nest on the ground. Carol had already told him that there were eggs in that nest. Now, Danny Meadow Mouse isn't above stealing an egg when he can do it in safety. He got to thinking of those eggs in that nest of Mrs. Meadow Lark's. The more he thought of them, the more he wanted to sample them. So he began spending a great deal of time looking for that nest.

Now, as you know, Danny Meadow Mouse is a small person. Already the grass was quite tall and, of course, Danny couldn't see over it. This was a very great disadvantage. He could look up and see Carol in the air, but when Carol come down Danny never could see just where he dropped into the grass. It was much the same as it would be with you if you were in the Green Forest and saw Redtail the Hawk soaring overhead. As long as he remained up above you would be able to get glimpses of him through the tree tops; but the moment he descended you would lose sight of him. It was exactly that way with Danny Meadow Mouse.

However, Danny noticed that Carol most often disappeared in the grass in a certain direction. "Right over there is where that nest is," thought Danny, and began cutting a little path in that direction. Little by little that path grew and as he worked he could look up and see Carol. It didn't once occur to Danny that Carol looking down might see him.

Once he stopped to rest he saw Carol with an insect in his bill. He disappeared down in the grass just ahead. Danny chuckled when he saw this. "He's taking that to feed Mrs. Meadow Lark," said Danny to himself. "Yes, sir, he's feeding Mrs. Meadow Lark on the nest. He's saving her the trouble of going to look for food. That nest must be only a little way ahead. I ought to find it pretty soon now."

A few moments later Danny heard the sound of wings and Carol flew up out of the grass from a point only a few feet away. Danny's eyes brightened. He was sure that he was just about to find that nest. If he found that nest, he would have eggs, for he would watch his chance to steal them when the nest was left unguarded for a moment. He knew exactly where Carol had flown up from.

He disappeared down in the grass just ahead

"I'll be very careful now," thought Danny. "I'll be very, very careful. I don't want Mrs. Meadow Lark to see me. If she should see me, she would be suspicious."

So Danny worked very, very carefully until he came to the place from which Carol had flown. He knew he wasn't mistaken. He was positive that Carol had been right there. But, though he looked and looked, Danny found no nest. He found no trace of a nest. He sat still for a few minutes to think it over.

"It must be," thought Danny, "that Carol walked away from that nest before he flew. He wouldn't fly up directly from the nest for fear that some enemy might see him and so find the nest. But it cannot be very far away. A little patience is all I need."

He heard Carol singing up above. At the end of the song he saw Carol start down. At first he thought that Carol was going to alight right beside him. But he didn't. He passed right over Danny's head and alighted only a short distance away; a very short distance. Danny peeked between the grass-stems and caught a glimpse of Carol. "Now," thought Danny, "I'll find the nest."

The New in Stores & Homes

Novelties, Ideas, and Suggestions

By OLIVE GRAY

Memorial Day. A day to recall thoughts of those who have passed into the invisible. But not a day of mourning. They would not have it thus. They would wish us to be happy; and that is why we make it a day of happiness as well as one of recollection. One family who I know, makes it a practice to wreath the portrait of a dearly beloved who has gone on; and during the day, they go into the beautiful open spaces, there to recall that the dear one loved Nature and all the wondrous handiwork of the Divine. The beauties of our beloved California makes this kind of worship far from taskful.

Memory Wreaths

Never have I seen the memorial wreaths so beautiful, as now. Both those composed from natural everlasting flowers, and the ones of artifice are truly artistic. So many charming violet and lavender tones there are, and commingled with the brighter blossoms, they seem to typify the meaning of Memorial Day—a misty sheen of recollection, shot through with gladness.

The Oriental Way

One of the oriental peoples, commemorates the day dedicated to those who have passed on, by a celebration during which they set tiny boats afloat, emblemming the passage to the Beyond. This occasion is not a sad one, since they know that their beloveds live in a land far happier than this.

Outward Bedecking

We count it no frivolity that we prepare for a glorious outing on this holiday. And, since our clothing represents or should delineate our inner selves, our apparel for this holiday dares to be in keeping with our thoughts.

Out-Doorsery

Paper paraphernalia for days in the open has reached a height of perfection leaving nothing to be desired, it would seem. From the ordinary plates and cups and sauce-plates, to table-cloths and napkins, from the cheapest to those more elaborate, everything for the outdoor table is to be found and at so small a cost, that it is to marvel. Even grill plates of paper, divided to hold each viand separately, are upon the paper-counters.

I sometimes wish, when coming across the mess left by some of our careless picnickers, that every article could display a printed warning, urging that the places used be left in order, after use.

For Tender Feet

It seems that new stocking ways will never end! The latest is a stocking designed for tender feet—an inside-out stocking. The seams are so woven as to be almost invisible and they are on the outside, instead of inside the hose. Neat as any hosiery, these new stockings take meticulous care not to offend the most tender feet. And they come in all the modern colors, so there is no effect of the outer.

Neckwear Flowers

Neckwear, again in the limelight, has many novel ways. Most striking is that of a flower to match—one to be worn close to the collar; and when the collar is of organdy, both collar and its matching flower are particularly dainty. One shown in a shop always displaying the most authentic modes, is of white Swiss, dotted in black, the flower matching, being pinked out at the edges to a generous fluff.

Dress Flowers

And newest frocks have puffy flowers, fashioned from self-material, and set at the neck-line in front. Inexpressibly dainty are these accents and flattering, too.

Deauvilles

Deauvilles for comfort. These accommodating sandals come in many qualities, at many prices and comprise every possible color and combination of colors wished for to complete the ensemble. No shoe, brought forth in many years, has conferred the warm-weather comfort of these popular shoes. How kind of Madame la Mode to allow them to us!

Kindly Shade

The season's brimmed hats are a great help to the eyes. Both as to health and beauty, those brims assist. However slight the hat brim, it lends a shadow which serves to protect the eyes from our ever-ardent sun, and also, that slight shade is flattering to every feature but particularly to the eyes. In our outdoor climate, we should especially give thanks for the return of the brimmed hat.

Open Cans and Remove

An expert in cookery advises that one open canned fruits and vegetables an hour or so before using, pour out the contents and allow them to stand, thereby freshening them and returning to them something of their pristine savour. This is especially true of olives. And, if the olives are immersed in good olive oil before serving, they become still more flavorful.

White silk stockings will not turn yellow if they are washed in pure white suds, lukewarm water and dried in the darkness. It is a combination of poor soap and bright sunlight that yellows them.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

WISDOM FROM THE MOUTHS OF "FLAPPER" MOTHERS

Many sorely tried souls have found an outlet through this department, and I believe it benefits the mother as much to print her emotions in black and white as it does to get any comment on them. A refreshing letter with a keen sense of humor, which I enjoyed and appreciated, arrived from Mrs. D. K., who terms herself a "flapper" mother.

The cause of Mrs. D. K.'s eloquence was the ignorant course pursued by one of her acquaintances, and I feel that her outburst is entirely justified. Some mothers seem so perfectly satisfied with what they do, and so incurious about what anyone else is doing for the health and happiness of their babies. There seems no way to touch them, for the ignorant, self-satisfied individual never desires greater knowledge, being quite content with what he has.

A SCHEDULE BABY

But here is the letter:

"My baby girl is 3 months old, gets lots of sunshine and fresh air, is kept on a regular schedule, has had cod liver oil, and weighs fourteen pounds. She is solid, strong, happy, kicks and sleeps and seldom cries.

"I know a neighbor whose boy is 4 months old. She called on me one nice, warm, sunny day with her child dressed in two wool petticoats, wool shirt, stockings and bootees, a heavy all-wool sweater, cap and blanket. When she came in I expected she would remove some of this and she did. She took off the blanket! I had the door open and a gentle breeze blowing in.

SURPRISING IGNORANCE

"She fed him and he threw it up. In about fifteen minutes he grunted and she fed him again and he promptly threw that up. This kept up from 1 until 4 and in between times she walked the floor with him. All this time he hardly let a peep out of him. Poor thing, he couldn't, he was so full and so bundled up. He couldn't hold up his head or even kick. According to my idea that is nothing short of a crime, but I am one of those terrible 'flappers' who isn't supposed to be mentally fit to rear children No doubt you have heard of them.

"I told this woman that we were trying to rear our child by the book and she said, 'Why, don't you love her?' And I said I didn't think love needed to be blind in a case like this.

"There isn't any object to this letter, but the whole thing is such a shock to me. I didn't think anyone was that ignorant in these days. Why, even my mother, old-fashioned as she is, wouldn't do that! I have your feeding leaflet and read your column like the Bible. If you read all this letter I thank you, and even if you don't, I thank you anyway."

CROSSING CRASH VERDICT UPHELD

Espee Loses in Its Appeal in Case of Mrs. Bush

Court Rules on Question of Measures for Safety

Compliance With Statutory Rules Held Insufficient

Compliance with statutory safety regulations may be insufficient in the case of persons in charge of "dangerous instrumentalities," according to a decision just handed down by the Third District Court of Appeal in an appeal of the Southern Pacific Company from a $16,000 judgment for Mrs. Irene Davidson Bush. The decision upholds the trial court.

A copy of the decision was received yesterday by Hugh Coultis, deputy clerk, in charge of the Los Angeles office of the Supreme Court. The case grew out of an automobile-train accident in Otterbein Road, west of Pomona, in 1925, in which four persons were killed and Mrs. Bush was seriously injured.

MINIMUM MEASURE

It was brought out that the railroad had met statutory requirements. The opinion declares, however:

"The great weight of authority is to the effect that statutory regulations constitute only the minimum measure of care required of persons in charge of dangerous instrumentalities, and a railroad company, equally with the driver of an automobile, must, in a proper case, submit to the judgment of the jury the question of whether something more than the minimum of care is required under the facts and circumstances given in the evidence."

Mrs. Bush asked $75,000 for personal injuries, saying that at the time of the accident she was earning $200 a month, but that she was wholly disabled from doing any work or earning a livelihood. She also asked $15,000 for the death of her son, Robert, who was driving the automobile.

OTHER VICTIMS

Other victims of the accident were Mrs. Bush's father, mother and brother.

Besides the Southern Pacific, John W. Reinhardt, engineer of the locomotive, was named in the action.

It was brought out at the trial that the train was traveling between 50 and 75 miles an hour and that the crew did not sound a warning until just before the accident. The court found that "the evidence warrants the conclusion that an emergency whistle should have been sounded when the fireman first saw the automobile appear from behind the trees along the road."

The decision was written by Presiding Justice Finch. Justices Thompson and Plummer concurred.

Woman Cleared as 'Love Thief' Seeks Divorce

Mrs. Ruth Moon Bradner, who was vindicated of stealing the love of Marshall J. Moore, Santa Monica police lieutenant, when a jury found for her in Mrs. Monnie Moore's $250,000 heart-balm suit, will sue her own husband Czar J. Bradner, for divorce, court records declared yesterday.

Bradner testified for his wife in the heart-balm suit, declaring he saw nothing improper in the actions of Moore and his wife. In her divorce action, Mrs. Bradner asserts her husband drank to excess and called her names.

Junior Chamber to Hear Wunder

A feature luncheon program will be held today noon at the Biltmore by the Young Business Man, official organ of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. It is the policy of the editors to twice a year take over luncheon meetings, according to Caine Farrell, editor.

The principal speaker of the meeting will be Dr. Clinton Wunder, executive director of the Academy of Motion-Picture Arts and Sciences.

ALEXANDER WOOLLCOTT, famous New York dramatic critic, writing in Collier's Weekly (issue of May 3rd), said:

¶"I recommend THE LAST MILE. As a warning to the fragile and the squeamish that they might better avoid the theatre (Majestic) where THE LAST MILE is playing. Compared with the stinging reality of THE LAST MILE these forerunners (Dreiser's 'American Tragedy' and Treadwell's 'Machinal') seem in retrospect like charades thought up for the back parlor."

¶"The Last Mile," staged by Lillian Albertson, will open next Monday evening for the first time outside New York City at Majestic Theatre, Los Angeles.

¶All seats will be sold at our box office ONLY and 40 neighborhood box offices, at regular box office prices.

¶No tickets will be sold at hotels, agencies, clubs or scalpers. Why pay high premiums? First Matinee Wednesday, June 4th. 50c to $1.50. Eves., 50c to $2.50.

PLAYER OF FILMS UPHELD BY COURT

Francis X. Bushman

ACTOR WINS ACTION FOR BACK WAGES

Bushman Given Judgment for $2500 Plus Interest Against Pickwick Company

Francis X. Bushman, actor, yesterday won a full judgment for $2500 in the court of Superior Judge Gould at the close of a short trial of his suit against Frank O'Connor and the Pickwick Productions for back salary for work in the picture, "The Call of the Circus."

Bushman was the only witness called. He said he entered into an agreement with the picture producers on July 10, 1929, wherein he was to receive a salary of $3000 a week for two weeks; that all he received was $1500, and that the balance of $2500, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent from July, 1929, is still due him.

The defendants were not in court but were represented by Attorney Don Marlin, who attempted to prove by cross-examination of Bushman that under the terms of the contract he was not to receive any salary until the picture had been made and was earning money. Further, that the moneys that were received were attached on liens held by others so that there was nothing left for the actor.

Judge Gould, however, held that Bushman is entitled to his pay.

Pentecostal Anniversary Celebrated

"Descent of the Holy Spirit Upon Humanity" is the theme discussed at scores of Los Angeles churches yesterday in celebration of the 1900th anniversary of Pentecost, the anniversary of the church founded by followers of Jesus.

A service of special interest, attended by members of various denominations, was conducted at First Congregational Church, with an elaborate musical program and addresses by Dr. Carl S. Patton, Dr. Harry Beal, Dr. William T. Gilliland and other ministers.

More Gold Star Mothers to Sail

Leaving in groups, as their sons did in the hectic days of the war, another contingent of twenty Gold Star Mothers will leave Los Angeles tonight over the Union Pacific System for the graves of those sons buried in France. The party that will make the trip to New York tonight, thence to France, are:

Mrs. M. A. Long, Mrs. Mary O'Leary, Mrs. Agnes Mellin, Mrs. Jessie Rawley, Mrs. Josephine St. Amor, Mrs. Stella Scribner McDougall from Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary Classen, Mrs. E. E. Nicodemus, Mrs. Anna Peterson, Mrs. Francis S. Wilcox, Mrs. Salina Wilcox, from Long Beach; Mrs. Clara B. Frutiger, Mrs. Florence Grotevant, Mrs. Anna Leslie, Mrs. Clara Mendoza, Mrs. Lillian Ramsey, from Pasadena; Mrs. Grilla Bigelow, Mrs. Carrie Johnson, Mrs. Eliza L. Rothrock and Mrs. Josephine Finerty of Anaheim.

Operation Fee Suit Postponed

Trial of the injunction suit brought by T. Kusayanagi against Drs. Allen M. Kilgore and Arthur E. Mark to restrain collection of a $2500 check was postponed yesterday by Superior Judge Hanby until June 19 at the request of attorneys.

Kusayanagi charges that a $5000 fee for an operation on his daughter, Mrs. Tomika Uyeda, is excessive. The doctors replied that they had been directed to "spare no expense," and that $1500 worth of flowers in the patient's room indicated her relatives are amply able to pay for saving her life. Dr. Kilgore spent nearly a week performing the operation, which was an extremely difficult one, he said.

Negotiations for a settlement out of court are pending.

BETTY COMPTON WINS STAR ROLE

Farrell and Miss Gaynor Continue Playing Together; June Clyde, George McFarland in R.-K.-O. Film; Lillian Roth's Sister With Lasky

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

As announced yesterday, Betty Compton, one of Broadway's favorite players, has just been signed by Warner Brothers on a long-term contract.

And now Warner Brothers are letting us in on the additional fact that Miss Compton is to play the leading feminine role, a part that indeed is a star part, in their production of the stage musical, "Fifty Million Frenchmen," which has been such a big success in New York during the past season. Miss Compton, you remember, created the same role in the stage production which she will now play in the talking picture.

However, the Warner picture will not be the first in which Miss Compton will appear, as she is scheduled to star in a film for First National. The name of this, however, is not yet announced.

The actress, accompanied by her mother, arrives today from New York. It is with more than passing sadness that one has to record that, of the forty contract players formerly under agreement with the Warners when the silent pictures were in vogue, only two without previous stage experience have survived the gruelling test of the talkers. These two are Edna Murphy and Grant Withers.

FARRELL STARS IN FIVE FOX PICTURES

CHARLES FARRELL

The co-starring activities of Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor in the Fox vineyard of art are by no means finished.

Several films are to be made with the popular couple as hero and heroine. Included is "Oh, for a Man," work on which is scheduled to go into production during the next few weeks.

However, it must be admitted that Farrell is also to be co-featured with another leading lady, since it is announced that he is to appear with Joyce Compton in "She's My Girl."

And he is, as heretofore announced, to star alone in "The Man Who Came Back," while a remaining picture, also announced, will be one in which he will appear with Maureen O'Sullivan, called "The Princess and the Plumber," adapted from a Saturday Evening Post story. He is now working on "A Devil With Women," which is the movie idea of a good title for "Liliom."

Sisters With Paramount

LILLIAN ROTH

Lillian and Ann Roth, who played in vaudeville for five years as a sister team, once more are together in "Animal Crackers," the four Marx brothers' starring picture now being produced at Paramount's New York studio.

Lillian has the feminine lead, while Ann is playing a minor role, but it is said that the latter gives promise of rivaling the achievements of her famous sister within a few years.

The sisters look enough alike to be twins and are inseparable both on and off the set.

Two Sign With R.-K.-O.

Two important players have been added to the cast of "Half Shot at Sunrise," cofeaturing Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, and to be produced by R.-K.-O.

These players are June Clyde and George McFarland, the latter having been borrowed from Fox, to whom he is under contract.

McFarland was formerly a star player with George M. Cohan and other eastern producers, notably musical producers.

Bodil Rosing Cast

BODIL ROSING

Bodil Rosing, one of the screen's foremost character actresses, was signed yesterday by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to play a prominent role in "Jenny Lind," Grace Moore's first starring vehicle for that studio. Sidney Franklin will direct.

The actress, who was formerly a noted actress in Denmark, recently completed the featured role of the German mother in "Temptation," which E. Mason Hopper directed for Columbia.

Amos and Andy's Itinerary

Amos and Andy are to be two busy boys during the next few weeks. Mel Brown, who is to direct them in their first R.-K.-O. production, leaves tonight for Chicago, where he will meet the popular radio pair, and just by way of freshening up for work in the movies the trio will go down to Indianapolis to see the automobile races.

After that they will go over to Atlantic City to work on their story, and thence they will come to Hollywood.

Star Becomes Americanized in "Big Pond"

A new Chevalier, thoroughly Americanized, will be seen in "The Big Pond," the star's latest Paramount picture, which starts tomorrow at the United Artists' Theater.

In his earlier films, the Frenchman was seen first in the characterization of a music-hall singer and then of a military attache of a mythical kingdom who wins the heart of the queen by his songs. "The Big Pond" shows him as an enterprising magnate in a chewing-gum factory.

"The Big Pond" is based on a stage play of last season by George Middleton and A. E. Thomas. The story deals with a young Frenchman who, through the influence of some tourists, finds himself employed in a chewing-gum factory. When he starts neglecting his girl for his business, the fun begins. Claudette Colbert is his girl.

Five Leading Ladies Will Support Star

Charles Rogers is surrounded in his latest picture, "Safety in Numbers," opening today at the Paramount Theater, by five attractive girls, who are cast as his leading ladies.

The young ladies are Kathryn Crawford, Josephine Dunn, Carol Lombard, Virginia Bruce and Geneva Mitchell. Others in the cast include Roscoe Karns, Francis McDonald and Richard Tucker. Victor Schertzinger directed.

Completing the program are a number of short subjects headed by a Grantland Rice Sportlight, "Favorites on the Fairway." Other subjects are a song cartoon, "In the Good Old Summer Time," Paramount sound news, an Educational comedy, "Bitter Friends," and Milton Charles at the organ.

"Divorcee" Cast Wins Plaudits

"The Divorcee" is bringing note and increased emolument to those who are appearing in it at the Criterion Theater. Norma Shearer is given a fine chance to win first prize in the ten-best-pictures-of-the-year compilation now being made.

Mary Doran, who has an important part, has jumped from a bit to leading woman for William Haines in "Remote Control."

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

MAUDE ADAMS, now in Hollywood, will make her return to the stage to which she said farewell thirteen years ago, in a modern comedy written especially for her by John Colton, according to information reaching this desk late last evening from New York.

Production will be made by September. It is not definitely settled whether the opening will take place on the Pacific Coast or in New York, but my scout in the East reports there is a strong probability the Coast will be chosen.

Miss Adams, according to further report, came to Hollywood especially to make preparations for the staging of the play and to confer with Colton. Great secrecy has accompanied her visit and her every movement.

She is said to have been seen in the audience on the occasion of the opening of George Fawcett's play, "The Great John Ganton," at the Vine-street a week or so ago, but no verification of this could be obtained.

Since her retirement from the stage in 1917, after the final curtain on Barrie's "A Kiss for Cinderella," Miss Adams has been in seclusion. In fact, so shrouded in secrecy have been her activities and her life that to the younger generation of theatergoers, she seems as a mythical character.

Miss Adams is now 58. She played her first great role in "The Little Minister." Then came "Peter Pan," "What Every Woman Knows," "Quality Street," and "A Kiss for Cinderella."

Colton is one of the better known and brilliant contemporary playwrights. He wrote "Rain," with Clemence Randolph, the play in which Jeanne Eagels starred, "The Shanghai Gesture," with Florence Reed and "The Devil's Plum Tree" for Ruth Chatterton.

Wallace Smith Play Coming

Wallace Smith, writer, artist and adventurer, has made a play out of his novel, "Tiger's Mate." It will be presented in Los Angeles this fall.

The story along the local rialto is that Chadwick Morrissey, wealthy New York real estate dealer, now in Hollywood, who has sponsored several eastern productions, has instructed his western representative to lease a Hollywood theater for the showing.

Morrissey plans to recruit a cast from the screen colony, using to a large extent prominent players of the celluloid who want to gain experience behind the footlights.

Smith, under contract to R.-K.-O., has written some ten novels, which have been screened. He says that he wants to adapt several of these for the stage as soon as the producers' rights revert back to him as author.

Adrian Morris in "Last Mile"

Adrian Morris, brother of Chester Morris of the screen, will take his first bow before a Los Angeles theater audience when "The Last Mile" opens at the Majestic Theater Monday evening, an advance report on the cast of the play disclosed yesterday.

Others in the play will include Paul Fix, who was the husband in the Macloon production of "Chicago;" Earl Dwire, Talbot Henderson, Bruce Macfarlane, and James Gordon.

The leads, already announced, are, as most people know, Clark Gable, Edward Woods and Russell Hopton.

New Play at Music Box

A play called "The Glory Declared," by Ralph Culver Bennett, will be premiered at the Hollywood Music Box on June 22. It will run two weeks.

Bennett, a special lecturer in law at the University of Southern California, will play a part. The play is built around the activity of the Salvation Army during the World War. It was written from data assembled by Bennett, who was an officer overseas. It has been indorsed by the Salvation Army directors, the Church and Drama League of America and the Federated Council of Churches of America.

Bennett used to act when he was going to college. In fact, it is said, he paid his way through Yale by stage engagements.

John Moss, general manager for the Civic Repertory Company, is managing the production. Walter Gilbert will direct.

There will be one more Civic Repertory production before this play, probably "The Master Builder," Ibsen.

Work of Film Actress Wins Her New Title

Alice White has a new name. She is now called "America's Girl Friend."

The blond First National star earned it, it is said, by her work in such pictures as "Broadway Babies," "The Girl From Woolworth's," "Show Girl in Hollywood," and her most recent, "Sweet Mamma," which starts at Warner Brothers Downtown Theater tomorrow.

David Manners, who played in "Journey's End" as a film and three years of New York plays, is the leading man, and in the supporting cast are Kenneth Thomson, Rita Flynn and Lee Moran. Edward Cline directed.

Londoners Will See "Outsider"

Although the fame of Maurice Moscovitch, the famous English actor, has reached this country and it is understood that he is a great artist, his name is a by-word with the British theatergoers, it is said, and many of them plan to attend the star's debut Monday night at the Belasco Theater, when he will be seen in "The Outsider."

Songstresses Return to Footlights

Duncan Sisters

Will present diversified entertainment tonight and Saturday afternoon at the Philharmonic Auditorium. George Grandee, composer and comedian of note, will accompany the two.

"FORTUNE TELLER" CHOSEN

After a public voting contest, Victor Herbert's comic opera, "The Fortune Teller," was declared the first vehicle to be presented by the Ferris Hartman Comic Opera Company, starting Sunday night, June 8, at the Shrine Civic Auditorium.

Close on the heels of "The Fortune Teller" in public approval was "The Wizard of the Nile," which barely won over "Mlle. Modiste." These three numbers have been selected for the first three to be offered by the Hartman company.

Concurrent with the announcement of the winning production, additional members of the cast were James Liddy, who will essay the leading romantic roles in the operettas; Cricket Edwards will portray soubrette types, while Rolfe Sedan has been signed for comedy portrayals. Others in the cast, previously announced, are Ferris Hartman, Estaleah, Earl Askam, Carla Laemmle, Sydney Jarvis and the Albertina Rasch dancers.

Tropics Provide Locale for New R.-K.-O. Film

The United States marines in the tropics furnish the action in the Columbia talking picture, "Soldiers and Women," starting today at the R.-K.-O. Theater.

A swaggering marine becomes enmeshed in a love tangle which borders on tragedy. Grant Withers plays the part of the marine, and Aileen Pringle is seen as a sophisticated woman.

Helen Johnson, a newcomer to the films, plays the second feminine lead. Paramount roles are handled by Walter McGrail, Emmett Corrigan and Blanche Frederici. Edward Sloman directed.

The highlight of the R.-K.-O. vaudeville show is "Oklahoma" Bob Albright, assisted by Genevieve Herbert, Beverly Birks and Snowball. Other acts include the Zastro and White revue, Joe Terminin, somnolent melodist, and a farce, "Woman Crazy," with Harry Faber, Leta Wales, Lew Lehr and Nancy Belle.

Warner Baxter Portrays Bandit in 'Arizona Kid'

The Cisco Kid is back again. Warner Baxter again portrays this bandit figure in "The Arizona Kid," sequel to "In Old Arizona." The new picture opens today at Loew's State.

Mrs. Jiminez, the staccato-talking Mexican woman; Mona Maris, Carol Lombard, Teodor Von Eltz, Hank Mann and other players are also featured. Alfred Santell directed.

On the stage, Fanchon and Marco have turned the entire show over to Ted Healy and his Racketeers, clowns of "A Night in Spain," "Vanities" and other stage plays.

Young Director Wins Spurs in First Effort

"Crazy That Way," starting today at the Boulevard Theater, was produced by the Fox studio's newest find, Hamilton MacFadden. With only one directorial effort to his credit, MacFadden has already climbed to top rank with the old-timers of the Fox lot, it is said. He not only directed the new farce, but collaborated with Marion Orth in fashioning the screen play and in writing the dialogue.

Joan Bennett takes the feminine lead. Kenneth MacKenna plays the featured male role. Regis Toomey and Jason Robards are cast as the ardent lovers.

MEXICAN ARTIST WILL APPEAR HERE

Nelly Fernandez

Nelly Fernandez, said to be one of the most talented of the artists that hail from Mexico, is to make an appearance at the Million Dollar Theater for one week, starting today. She will head the "Rio Grande" revue, with Luis Arnold and Gaby.

All the dance numbers and songs are said to be typically Spanish. The actress was given favorable notice when she appeared in concert at the Philharmonic Auditorium.

'Cuckoos' Cast to Take Stage Bows Tonight

HUGH TREVOR

With Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey heading the list, all of the principals of "The Cuckoos," Radio Pictures' musical comedy now in its second week at the Orpheum, will make personal appearances tonight.

With these two comics will be June Clyde, petite blond charmer, Hugh Trevor, talented juvenile, and Ivan Lebedeff. The personal appearances are scheduled to take place promptly at 9 o'clock tonight, allowing patrons of both evening shows an opportunity to see the notables.

Rules Abandoned in Writing of 'Hell's Angels'

Many rules for screen writing had to be overlooked by Howard Estabrook and Harry Behn when they undertook to prepare the adaptation and continuity for "Hell's Angels," the stirring air epic now showing at the Chinese Theater. Although Estabrook has been writing plays and scenarios since he was 14 years of age, he admits he encountered some new problems in "Hell's Angeles."

The abundance of action and tremendous scope of details presented peculiar problems, according to Estabrook. The new technique of sound pictures is changing so rapidly, according to this writer, that each assignment presents problems that cannot be solved according to formulae that sufficed for years under the old regime.

PANTAGES THEATER TO OPEN SOON

Gala Event Scheduled at New Hollywood House on Wednesday

With the opening of the new Pantages Hollywood Theater near, final preparations are now being completed for the gala premiere which will take place Wednesday evening.

The opening will be attended by what is promised to be one of the most pretentious celebrations of the current theater year. Numerous motion-picture stars have already signified their intentions to attend.

Eddie Cantor, popular stage and screen star, will act as the grand master of ceremonies. The screen attraction will be "The Floradora Girl." Harry Beaumont directed for M.-G.-M.

Fanchon and Marco are now creating a special idea called "Rosegarden," which will be presented at the Pantages Hollywood Theater only. Slim Martin and his band will provide the musical part of the program.

WILDE PLAY WILL START AT MASON

"Importance of Being Earnest" Last Offered Here by Henry Miller

After a search of existing records it would appear that the presentation of Oscar Wilde's comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest," tonight at the Mason Theater by Maurice Colbourne, Barry Jones and their London company is the first professional production of the play in this city for twenty-nine years. Henry Miller played it here in 1901 with a cast including Charles Cherry, Jeannie Eustace, Florence Rockwell, Grace Elliston and Fred Thorne.

Wilde, like Shaw, wrote years ahead of his time. His characters in "The Importance of Being Earnest" are moderns, while the plot and dialogue are so pertinent to the present day that Mr. Colbourne, who staged this revival, insists upon costuming and setting it in the dress and fashion of the moment rather than antedating the presentation back to the time it was written.

Decoration Day to Be Observed at Fox Carthay

Decoration Day will have its appropriate musical setting at the Carthay Circle Theater when Abe Lyman's band will play a special program, preceding the presentation of "All Quiet on the Western Front."

Lyman's musical troupe offers a number of popular songs and a patriotic medley as an introduction to the Universal war film and on Friday Ted Ledford, soloist, will sing an added number or two as a tribute to the men of all nations who served.

"All Quiet on the Western Front" is now in its seventh week at the Carthay Circle.

President Plans Holiday Matinee

"Elizabeth Sleeps Out," the Leslie Howard farce-comedy which is current at the President, will have a special holiday matinee tomorrow, Decoration Day. The customary midweek matinee today will be omitted this week and the Friday afternoon performance substituted.

COUNTY SALARY BUDGET READY

Supervisors to Meet Today and Vote Adoption

Estimates Place Total for Year at $18,000,000

No Increases in Pay But New Employees Added

The Board of Supervisors will meet this morning to adopt the salary budget from which some 12,000 county employees will receive their wages during the fiscal year beginning July 1, next.

According to preliminary estimates, the budget will total approximately $18,000,000, and will mark an increase of practically $500,000 over the current budget.

Yesterday the Supervisors pared $362,000 from the estimates of the Bureau of Efficiency, according to Chairman Graves.

Supervisor Wright, chairman of the budget committee, said the salary budget will be completely drawn to permit the board to adopt it at the meeting this morning.

It was reported yesterday the budget does not provide for any salary increases for any employees under civil service, and that the increase in the total figure over the present budget is due almost entirely to the addition of new employees who at present are being paid from the unbudgeted reserve fund.

The Supervisors were working last night on preparation of the general budget, preliminary estimates on which are expected to be released prior to June 5, on which date Supervisor Wright leaves on a vacation trip to Alaska.

Second Honeymoon Followed by New Divorce Plea by Mrs. R. W. Carlisle

The second honeymoon of Norma Georgia Carlisle, and her husband, Robert Wolton Carlisle, film editor, was followed by a second divorce complaint yesterday, when Mrs. Carlisle declared again that her husband told her he "didn't love her" and ordered her from his house.

On two occasions, Carlisle went to Tia Juana without telling his wife, both times squandering his week's salary, she states. In her first complaint, Mrs. Carlisle asserted her husband had been infatuated with a film actress. The first separation was April 10, last, and the second separation the 14th inst.

Murder Suspect Freed on Bond

Eben Jones, chiropractor of 665 South Bonnie Brae street, will be released on bail pending his trial for murder. Municipal Judge Russill yesterday fixed his bail at $10,000.

Jones is facing trial for the death of Mrs. Rose Marshall, 20 years of age, of 5512 Willow Crest avenue, North Hollywood, following a criminal operation assertedly performed by him

BID FOR LEGION VISIT INDORSED

Business Leaders Approve of Conclave Project

Financing Program Details Given to Gathering

Assembly Here Would Bring Influx of 100,000

Unanimous indorsement of plans to bring the 1931 National American Legion convention to Los Angeles was given yesterday at a luncheon attended by leaders in all lines of business held at the Chamber of Commerce.

Preliminary steps already have been taken by a special convention committee of the American Legion, and these have been approved by the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting yesterday was for final consideration of the matter, and to explain methods and means proposed to induce the veterans to hold their great annual gathering here.

Means for financing the convention, which is one of the largest and most important held in the nation, and which is expected to bring more than 100,000 visitors, were outlined at the luncheon by Andrew J. Copp, Jr., general chairman of the committee, and Gurnsey Frazer, a member of the Legion convention committee.

AMOUNT REQUIRED

According to Mr. Copp, some $52,500 has been raised under a special financing plan, but about $30,000 more must be on hand by June 15, next, so that the raising of the finances may be reported to the national Legion headquarters. A certified check for $25,000 to cover expenses of national headquarters during the 1931 convention must be deposited with the treasurer of the national organization at the time of the annual convention this year, according to Copp, to assure Los Angeles receiving favorable consideration.

Hotel and restaurant owners, with a combined quota of $20,000, already have subscribed their full amount, it was announced, and Dwight Hart, hotel operator, declared that the $15,000 subscribed by members of the hotel organization is the largest ever made for a convention.

BOND ISSUE PLANNED

A $150,000 bond issue is planned by the convention committee, which has been incorporated and has applied to the Corporation Commission for authority to sell this amount of debentures at $100 each as a method of raising the required finances, Frazer explained.

If the Legion is successful in getting the convention the interest paid on the fund is to be used by the committee, but purchasers of debentures will receive choice of reserved seats at the Coliseum for the main events of the gathering or receive advertising in the official programs and publications at a one-fourth discount.

Sales of reserved seats at the Coliseum, a part of the plan proposed in the financing, also was indorsed.

August Primary Petitions Filed by Candidates

Nomination petitions were filed yesterday by five candidates for various State and county offices at the State primary election, August 26, next, it was announced by Registrar of Voters Kerr. Those who filed yesterday and the nominations they will seek are as follows:

George F. Gillett, 244 East Sixty-fifth street, Republican nomination for Assemblyman, Sixty-seventh District; Charles Olivier, 1122 East Forty-ninth street, Republican nomination for Assemblyman, Sixty-second District; E. H. Diehl, 406 Somerset avenue, Bellflower, justice of the peace, Downey Township; Harry W. Chase, 1470 East Wilson avenue, Glendale, justice of the peace, Glendale Township, and William La Plante, 746 South Bronson avenue, Assessor.

Aspirants seeking to have their names placed on the primary ballot have until noon of June 21, next, to file, Kerr stated.

Husband's Crime Career Cited to Get Annulment

MRS. HELEN-RUSSELL

The long and complicated criminal record of Walter P. Russell was unknown to his wife, Mrs. Helen Russell, when she married him, she testified in Superior Judge Guerin's court yesterday. But when Russell began cashing bad checks it came out that he had been convicted of forgery, Mrs. Russell said. Her sister, Mrs. Harley Gilson, corroborated her and Attorney R. M. Trezevant for the plaintiff offered to produce the records.

Judge Guerin granted an annulment.

Court Finds Nothing That Would Change Verdict

"Newly discovered evidence" presented by Miles H. Ledbetter and Walter E. Evans, former policemen, in a motion for a new trial on bribery charges would have been but cumulative to that introduced by them at the trial of the action, it was held yesterday by Division One, District Court of Appeals, in deciding against the pair's appeal.

Statement was also made that the action of the trial court in denying the motion for a new trial was tantamount to its decision that should a new trial be granted the "newl discovered evidence" would make no difference as far as the verdict of the jury was concerned.

PRINCIPLE EXPLAINED

The Appellate Court pointed out that the principle of law is outstanding that whether a new trial should be granted for the reason that since the trial of the action new evidence has been discovered rests in the sound discretion of the trial court.

"Unless it manifestly appears that the discretion lodged in the trial court has been abused," the opinion recites, in a discussion of the principle of law, "the Appellate Court will not disturb the judgment."

Ledbetter and Evens were convicted before Superior Judge Doran on testimony of Harry D. McDonald that they had accepted a $750 bribe not to arrest or prosecute McDonald on a charge of receiving stolen property. The evidence relied upon for a new trial was intended to show that the crime could not have been committed at the time contended by the State.

DECISION BY HOUSER

Although the new evidence would have discredited one of the chief prosecution witnesses, it was said in the opinion, no statement was made as to the sufficiency or insufficiency of the testimony of other witnesses to warrant conviction.

The decision was written by Justice Houser, with Presiding Justice Conrey and Justice York concurring.

BIRD WINS RELEASE ON $10,000 BAIL

Freedom for Ninety Days Granted Sportsman Who Killed "Best Friend"

Maj. Owen R. Bird, sportsman, found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the fatal shooting last November of Percival Watson, referred to as his best friend, yesterday was released from the County Jail under $10,000 bail for a period of ninety days. His release followed the approval by Superior Judge Schmidt, on motion of Attorneys John Cooper and David Welts, of a reduction in the amount of bail fixed a week ago by Superior Judge Hardy, the trial judge. Judge Hardy in offering the temporary freedom, had, on the 20th inst., fixed the bail at $15,000.

Unless a decision on his appeal is handed down in the meantime, Bird's freedom will be limited to three months, in accordance with the order of Judge Hardy. Bird is facing a one-to-ten-years' sentence in San Quentin and the appeal from his conviction now is pending.

Bird was convicted of killing Watson during a party in the Bird home. At the time of his arrest and throughout his trial he insisted he fired at Watson only to frighten him, believing the revolver contained only blank cartridges.

Jury Convicts Ex-Sales Chief in Assault Case

Burton Fitzgerald, former sales manager for the Olevelin Realty Company, was convicted by a jury in Municipal Judge Sheldon's court yesterday of assaulting Kenneth Jensen. He will be sentenced today.

Jensen, who was at that time a salesman for the company, and two other salesmen, E. A. Luy and George E. Landerville, testified that Fitzgerald entered the salesroom at 1701 South Grand avenue October 25, 1929, and struck Jensen, who was seated on a divan between the two other men. He then dragged Jensen outside the office and told him to "get out," the latter said. Betty Gilmore, then Fitzgerald's secretary, testified to a subsequent telephone conversation in which Fitzgerald warned Jensen not to return and said, "I've got a gun for offensive purposes."

Fitzgerald, on the witness stand, denied striking Jensen and said that he merely ordered him from the premises. He had been told that Jensen was trying to hire his salesmen for a rival concern, he declared.

BLEEDING WRITER FOUND SEEKING DEATH IN HILLS

After an all-night search of Laurel Canyon Detective Lieutenants Dickey and Everson early yesterday found Horatio R. Hardin, 54-year-old writer, whose mysterious disappearance had been reported Tuesday by a local attorney. With both wrists slashed and in a semiconscious condition the man was lying in the brush along the firebreak between Mulholland High Way and Laurel Pass. He was given emergency treatment at Dickey & Cass Hospital, later being removed to the General Hospital, where his condition is reported critical.

On Hardin's coat was pinned an "Ode to Death," and in explanation of his attempted suicide he told the officers only that he was "tired of life." The detectives learned that recently he had been working for and residing with Mrs. Gloria Gordon at 529 Laurel Pass.

Search for Hardin was launched Tuesday night when an attorney gave police a note he said had been received by Hardin's nephew, Floyd Hardin of Reedley. The note instructed anyone interested in finding the writer to follow a circuitous route up Laurel Pass to the firebreak.

Shamrock V Beaten for First Time

RYDE (Isle of Wight) May 28. (AP)—Sir Tnomas Lipton's Shamrock V suffered her first defeat today in a race over thirty-four sea miles, the Lulworth finishing twenty-six seconds ahead of the America's Cup Challenger. This was the first race in which the Shamrock had started against bigger boats without the advantage of a time allowance.

The Shamrock V sailed from scratch together with the royal yacht Britannia, Lulworth and White Heather, these four allowing six seconds per mile to the Candida and eight and a half to the Camoria. The Candida was first over the starting line, followed by White Heather. Cambria and Shamrock V crossed together. Lulworth was fifth away and the Britannia last, being one minute late in crossing.

STANFORD AIMS FOR RECORDS

Krenz, Rothert Expected to Establish New Marks in Weight Events

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) May 28. (AP) Predictions that the I.C.4-A. records for the shot put and discus events would be shattered to smithereens were heard on all sides today as Harlow Rothert and Eric Krenz, Stanford's great field performers, warmed up in the stadium to defend their championship titles here on Friday and Saturday.

ERIC KRENZ

Rothert's I. C. A. A. A. A. record for the shot put is 50ft. 3in., made last year, but yesterday he heaved the sixteen-pound ball better than fifty-one in practice.

Krenz has been tossing the discus in the stadium for the past two days and he appears capable of bettering his record of 154ft. 11in., made here two years ago, when the competition starts on Friday afternoon.

The three California teams worked out today in the stadi-

WALKER, SHADE BOUT PLANNED

Doyle Takes Steps to Stage Championship Fight

Wadhams Sends Out Feeler to Jack Kearns

Wrigley Field is Site if Match is Signed

BY PAUL LOWRY

First steps in the promotion of a Mickey Walker-Dave Shade battle for Walker's middleweight title were taken yesterday by Jack Doyle.

JACK KEARNS.

The latter ordered his matchmaker, Hayden Wadhams, to get in touch with Walker's manager in Chicago and obtain the lowdown on the terms for a championship match.

These negotiations followed the decisive thrashing Shade doled out to Ace Hudkins at the Olympic the previous evening.

Only one other man has ever beaten the Wildcat with such thoroughness in this city. That man was Walker.

Doyle proposes to stage the championship fight at Wrigley Field some time this summer.

Shade wants the chance at the title, and is willing to take 12½ per cent of the gate receipts for his end.

He agreed to a cut of 20 per cent to get Hudkins in the ring the other night. Hudkins received a guarantee of $12,500.

The paid attendance was 8088 persons, and the intake was announced as $27,754, gross. Shade's share in victory, therefore, was approximately $5000—less than half what Hudkins received.

As per orders Wadhams talked to Kearns in the Windy City over the long-distance telephone.

WANTS THE MOON

But as per usual Doc Kearns, who learned to talk in telephone numbers when quite small, wants the moon with a ring around it for Walker's end.

Before the Walker-Hudkins fight was consummated last fall Kearns asked for $150,000, and finally came down to $100,000.

Doyle refused the match at this price, and the upshot was an arrangement whereby Kearns became a co-promoter, standing to lose if the show flopped.

But the show didn't flop, and the gate was $150,000.

Walker wound up with $75,000, considerably more than he received for a similar defense of his title in a Chicago ring.

Doyle is willing to listen to the same sort of an arrangement this time, but Kearns told Wadhams that he wanted an out-and-out guarantee.

Negotiations were temporarily broken off at this point.

BEARDING THE LION IN HIS DEN

BRITISH CHAMPION LOSES AFTER BRILLIANT MATCH

Mackenzie Only Yank Star Beaten as Von Elm, Voigt, Johnston and Ouimet Score Victories

BY FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

ST. ANDREWS (Scotland) May 28. (AP)—In a great nineteen-hole match with a thrilling finish, Bobby Jones today defeated Cyril Tolley, holder of the British amateur title for which the American open champion is campaigning, and the only one he needs to complete his list of major golf honors.

Jones started his hard day of golf at 8 o'clock against Cowan Shankland with 500 early-risers trailing, and, with Tolley, finished a terrific fight with crowds estimated at 10,000 to 12,000 racing after them in uncontrollable excitement.

HARRISON JOHNSTON

It was a golfing crowd second only in size to the gallery which saw Jones win the open title here in 1927.

Bobby's matches were the feature of the third day of championship play, but other Americans advanced to the fifth round with him by successfully battling the winds and difficult putting conditions, although they did not have to fight the crowds.

Jimmy Johnston, George Von Elm and Francis Ouimet each won two matches and George Voigt the one he had to play. Roland Mackenzie, after eliminating H. L. Holden in the morning, fell before Kenneth Grief, St. Andrews Star, in the afternoon, reducing the Walker Cup survivors to five.

Ouimet made a great comeback in the morning, coming from behind to win at the twenty-first.

Dr. O. F. Willing, and Don Moe today saw the players who defeated them yesterday, William Spark and Rex Hartley, removed from the competition.

As for the remainder of the thirty Americans of all ranks, with

LA BARBA WINS FROM GRAHAM

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—Fidel La Barba, chunky featherweight from Los Angeles, managed to defeat Bushy Graham, bounding Utica veteran, tonight in a ten-round battle of former champions that closed the indoor season at the Garden and added nothing to the prestige of either.

FIDEL LA BARBA

One of the smallest gatherings of the faithful this season, about 5000, gathered to root the indoor season into the great outdoors for the summer and stayed under protest to sigh with relief and boo gently when it was over. The struggle was slow in all but the barest spots.

La Barba, brisk, tanned Los Angeles' youngster who gave up the flyweight championship two years ago to enter Stanford University, was willing to make a fight of it, but Graham, recognized as the bantamweight king in some quarters, would Death overtook the Cub pitching veteran at 3:35 a.m., today at his apartment in a North Side hotel. He arose shortly after 2 a.m., after a sleepless night, called his teammates, Riggs Stephenson, Kiki Cuyler and Cliff Heathcote, but died shortly after the Cub physician, Dr. John F. Davis, arrived.

TILDEN MAY PLAY FOR CUP

American Davis Committee "Would be Pleased" if Big Bill Would Join Tennis Squad

BY TED VOSBURGH

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—The stage will soon be set for that well-known tennis thespian, William T. Tilden, to make a dramatic capitulation to the pleas of his countrymen and take another fling at old rivals, the French, in the approaching Davis Cup challenge round.

The 37-year-old American champion has been playing at such a dizzy clip in Europe that the directors of the United States Davis Cup campaign have become convinced along with other eager followers of the game that the glamorous and still mighty Tilden can not be left out of the line-up even if he has to be drafted.

DON GEORGE WINS OVER LUTZE IN DUEL ON MAT

Don George, former amateur wrestling champion and Olympic Games star, rose a couple of notches in the local mat game last night at the Olympic when he defeated Nick Lutze, the well-known trial horse lifeguard, in two out of three falls at Lou Daro's show.

DON GEORGE

George took the first fall, lost the second and came back strong to take the third and deciding fall.

The affair was more or less even all the way, with both exhibiting plenty of speed and lots of entertainment. The grande finale came just as Lutze was picking up George to try a body slam. The fast Olympic giant turned on Nick and pinned him to the mat with a flying head-scissors, winning the fall and the match in the fast time of 20m. 36s.

The newcomer took the first fall in 21m. 7s., using a body-slam to put Lutze's shoulders to the mat. George had the edge throughout the period, wearing Nick down with a heavy barrage of reverse headlocks.

Lutze won the second fall in 13m. 22s. by means of a body-slam and double wristlock. Lutze had a slight edge in the early part of the second chapter, but George rallied and by applying a series of headlocks had Lutze groggy. George tried a flying tackle to send his opponent out of the ropes. Nick came back and returned the compliment in a like manner. George put Lutze down on the mat with another flying tackle and promptly pounced upon him. Nick, however, managed to untangle himself and applied the holds which won him that portion of the match.

MONTANA MAY BE OUSTED FROM COAST CONFERENCE

BY FRANK G. GORRIE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SEATTLE, May 28. (AP)—Whether the University of Montana will remain in the Pacific Coast Conference or be ousted from the organization is expected to be the most important question to be decided at the summer meeting of the graduate managers, coaches and faculty representatives of Pacific Coast colleges here next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Last year the officials of the Pacific Coast Conference eliminated the Grizzly school from the 1930 basketball schedule, and talk of excluding the Montana institution from all sports in the organization has been heard of late. Some officials believe Montana is too far away from the other schools in the conference to include the Grizzlies in the annual schedules.

In the northern division of the conference Idaho and Washington State College are known to be in favor of keeping Montana in the organization while Oregon and Oregon State College have been reported against the inclusion of the Grizzlies in the schedules on account of long-distances separating the schools. Washington is said to be neutral.

MIDWICK OPEN FOR PRACTICE

Southland Amateur Entrants Perfect Games

Brilliant Field Expected in Title Event

Brentwood Invitation Play Starts Tomorrow

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

FAY COLEMAN

Southern California's low-handicap golfers are missing no opportunities to perfect their games for the annual Southland amateur championship, which begins over the Midwick Country Club on Tuesday.

Fred Morrison, Midwick professional, reports that practically all of the leading entrants have played practice rounds over the difficult Monterey Park test, and many others are expected to go over the course during the remainder of the week.

The championship will be defended by Gibson Dunlap, University of California at Los Angeles senior. Dunlap is a member of the Rancho Golf Club and will lead a strong delegation of contenders from the Pico Boulevard club. Among the prominent Rancho golfers entered are Phil Carter, Paul R. Jones, Leon Keller, Dr. C. K. Manhart and Harry Atwater.

Carter has an interesting history, having been the youngest golfer, not excepting Bobby Jones, to qualify for the national amateur championship. Carter's career was hindered by the World War at a time when his game was reaching its peak. The Rancho player, who shoots to a 2 handicap, is a canny match player and will be one of the most dangerous players in the tournament.

Girard will have two strong contenders in Jack Gaines, club champion, and W. L. (Bill) Jelliffe.

Fay Coleman of the California Country Club, 1928 champion, and a fellow team-mate, Dave Martin, runner-up to Dunlap last year at Bel-Air, are considered among the leading challengers.

Los Angeles has a powerful battery of youngsters entered, including Winston Fuller, Harry Eichelberger, Jr., for Southern California junior champion, Phil Ayres and Jack Mackey. Johnny Arneill will also leave his beans long enough to play.

Midwick golfers hope to make a showing over their home course with E. S. "Scotty" Armstrong, J. F. Rhodes and J. L. Mothershed among the favorites.

The amateur championship qualifying round will be thirty-six holes, eighteen Tuesday and eighteen Wednesday. Match play starts Wednesday. The championship flight will be thirty-two, President's Cup flight, sixteen, and Secretary's Cup flight, sixteen.

SANTA MONICA TOURNEY DRAWS FINE FIELD

Brentwood's annual invitation tournament, one of the most popular events of its kind during the year, starts tomorrow, continuing through Saturday and Sunday. Freddie Tongue, Brentwood caddie master, is looking for a field of approximately 300. Members of the Santa Monica club invite outside players to be their partners, and play is best-ball two-ball over thirty-six holes.

STILL OPTIMISTIC

AS THE Coast boys pass out interviews in Cambridge anent the impending I.C.4-A. championships one notes Dink Templeton's defiant challenge that his Stanford boys will win their fourth straight title.

This, despite Southern California's dual-meet win and victory in the California intercollegiates.

Even the grizzled veteran of Coast track circles, Walt Christie of California, sticks with his youthful coaching rival at Palo Alto.

They expect the eastern teams to cut into S.C.'s potential points in the broad jump and low hurdles while Stanford sails along majestically in events where she is certain to count heavily.

The broad jump is always an uncertain event, and there is no better example of this than in the S. C.-Stanford dual meet and the California intercollegiates. Paul and Barber of S.C. led the Stanford jumpers in the dual meet, both leaping over the 24-foot mark. But in the intercollegiates, Dowell, West and Butler of Stanford placed in the order named with Dowell leaping 23ft. 10in. for first place. Paul was fourth and Barber was unplaced.

Then again, even a 24-foot jump may not assay a thing in the I.C.4-A.'s Remember the meet of 1927 which Stanford captured with a total of 36½ points. Bates of Penn won with a 24ft. 8in. jump. Meeks, Zombro and Dyer of Stanford jumped 24ft. 1⅝in., 24ft. 1¼in., and 24ft. ⅞in., respectively. They shut out all competition that couldn't hit over 24 feet flat.

A PITCHING FEAT

WHAT'S baseball coming to when the reporters write that Frank Shellenback "held San Francisco to eighteen hits."

It is true that Frank's mates won the ball game, but if there is anything that Frank did to hold the Seals then Noah Webster needs a new definition in his good book.

In the old days if a pitcher let the enemy down with two or three hits he could truthfully be said to have held them.

Anything above six hits was referred to as a free-hitting contest.

But this, I suppose, is just another sign of progress, and maybe in time the jackrabbit ball will give way to the rubber ball.

You can bounce home runs over the fence then.

REAL PENNANT RACES

THE topsy-turvy condition in both American and National League races continues apace.

Two despised spring training teams lead the parade—St. Louis in the National and Washington in the American.

The champion Cubs of last year can't get going, and the champion Athletics were squelched by the New York Yanks just as they appeared to be on the road to the top.

And the Yanks busted out of nowhere to turn the trick.

It's hard to explain, but then it makes a better pennant race, so what's the difference.

ANOTHER TITLE CHANCE

WOULDN'T it be peculiar now if Dave Shade would go on to beat Mickey Walker for the latter's middleweight title?

That five years after they fought for Walker's 147-pound crown they again should clash in a fight for a new crown—Walker's 160-pound diadem.

Shade won the 1925 fight, according to the majority of the newspaper stories, but was robbed of the decision.

Walker never gave him another chance at the title.

A WILDCAT MYTH

WHAT'S happened to the Wildcat? Is he reaching the end of the trail some have predicted he was approaching?

Certainly, he didn't look like the Wildcat of old against Shade.

Never an exponent of boxing technique Hudkins fought as if he hadn't seen the range for years.

Shade's ducking, bobbing and weaving had a great deal to do with this, but even then one could reasonably expect the Wildcat to score more frequently than he did the other night.

He was almost a total loss, and in addition wrecked the faith of his supporters by continued low hitting.

GERMAN TAKES MATTERS EASY

That Seems to be Opinion of Former Champion

Trainer Blamed for Letting Things Slow Down

Left Hand Improves, Benny Says in Report

BY BENNY LEONARD
Retired Undefeated Lightweight Champion

SCHMELING'S TRAINING CAMP, ENDICOTT (N. Y.) May 28. (NANA)—Max Schmeling's trainer, Ira Machon, I fear, does not agree with me that the German heavyweight needs more work.

The man who is to battle Jack Sharkey for the heavyweight championship of the world in the Yankee stadium on June 12, kept applying the brakes in his workout today, but at that he sparred seven rounds with three sparring-partners. Schmeling took on Stanley Poreda for two rounds, George Neron for three and then battered Jack De-Mave for the final two.

MAX SCHMELING

To me it looks as if Machon is thinking more of conserving the sparring partners until others can be secured than he is of letting his man take the bit in his teeth.

As I have pointed out in previous articles, the German is studying rather than fighting, although he does let himself go a little with De Mave. Neron is a big, husky fellow and I think Schmeling could cut loose with him, too, without doing either any harm.

I have spent much time with Schmeling in the last few days. We have talked of his plan of battle, of his training and of his golf. Max explained that he does not exert himself much in the golf games. He pointed out that of late it has not been hot here and the sun has had little chance to sap him.

"Remember, this is a fifteen-round fight, and I am used to traveling that distance, I am more used to long fights than Jack Sharkey is. When I do play golf you'll notice I don't do much other work. In golf I get a jaunt of about four or five miles, that's all, and we go along easily, resting now and then while waiting for the others to make their shots.

Schmeling is practicing a great deal with his left. He has done wonders improving it, but it really wasn't much to start with. I asked him why he was using his left so much and apparently neglecting his right which is his most powerful weapon.

"Benny, I know I punch well with my right hand," Max said, "and when you have something down pat, as you say in America, you never lose it. For instance, you learn how to ride a bicycle and you become proficient at it. Then, as long as you live and are able, you never lose the ability to ride a bicycle. You can't forget how to do it.

Schmeling is, as he says, doing very well with his left hand. The fellow is learning every day. He demonstrated the left on De Mave, but he did most of his real execution with the right. He showed he has not forgotten how to use his right hand when he shifted to his natural stance.

Al Baffert used a flying headlock to defeat Tommy Thompson in the opening match. The time on the bout was 23m. 50s. Thompson had all the best of the milling until Baffert put on the winning hold. Dr. P. A. Millikan refereed.

Baer Finishes Jack Linkhorn

OAKLAND (Cal.) May 28. (AP)—Max Baer from Livermore knocked out Jack Linkhorn from Modesto in the first round of their ten-round bout here tonight. A capacity house was present. Baer put Linkhorn down three times with right hooks. The third time down he took the count.

INGLEWOOD ANNEXES BAY LEAGUE TITLE

The Inglewood Sentinels annexed the Bay League swimming championship yesterday afternoon at the Huntington Park pool by running up a total of 50 points for first place. The Spartans nosed out Venice for second with 32 to 31 points. Redondo placed fourth with 10, while San Pedro took 5 points for fifth, with Santa Monica last with 4.

Two new league records were set, Babe Foster winning the 440-yard free style in 5m. 68.6s. for one, while Welz swam the 100-yard breast stroke in 1m. 17s. for the other mark.

WEIGHT-LIFTERS SET NEW MARKS AT CLUB

Four American weight-lifting records were bettered last night at the L.A.A.C. when Mercury strong men pulled and tugged at the weights to ruin a quartet of marks. Phil Oreco in the deep knee bend on one leg raised the record from 122 pounds to 127. Mario Berrani in the right hand snatch put the mark up to 154½ from 152. In the two-hand clean and jerk Leonard Welp set a new record of 257½ pounds. The old record was 263. Maurice Oroff in the two dumb-bell military press lifted 184 pounds. The old mark was 178½.

The SPORT LIGHT by Grantland Rice

(Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.)

WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED GOLF?

Something that millions love and hate,
Something that fills souls with despair,
Something for which they keep a date
To mingle in the open air.

Something that crowds curse and despise,
To which they cling, when old and gray,
And then look out beyond the skies
To other courses they may play.

It's full of poison and delight,
Of dreams and nightmares, joy and shame,
Where golden hopes soar up in flight,
Then seek some alibi to blame.

Something that makes men leave their wives,
Their homes and jobs, to sweat and curse
In sanded depths and bunkered dives,
In thickets, swamps and even worse.

A game, religion, a disease,
A heartache and a happy lure;
A germ from which the victim flees
And yet no medicine can cure.

Jones and Tolley

AFTER all the heavy beatings he had taken in the past from Bobby Jones, Cyril Tolley made the fight of his life to defend the crown he won a year ago.

Tolley is an in-and-outer, a great golfer one day and a floundering golfer the next, but he is always a fighter who will stick with all he has to offer. An average competitor, who has been beaten as badly and as often as Tolley has been by the Georgia star, would have been crushed in advance. Especially so as Tolley has a terrific admiration for Jones's game. There is a strong friendship between the two and to Tolley Bobby has always been the last word in golf.

Under these conditions his gallant battle to and through the final green to the nineteenth hole was a noteworthy accomplishment. It was also a heavy test for Jones to find an opponent he had beaten so badly in the past still hanging on as they hit the stretch, refusing to yield an inch of ground.

One can imagine the status of Bobby Jones's mind when they started for the first tee again to play an extra hole. Here was a man he had twice beaten by 12 and 11 in big matches over the thirty-six-hole route. And here was the same man all square at a point where one mistake might kill the Georgian's last big bid for the one title he has yet to win.

That first hole at St. Andrews is a treacherous one calling for a perfectly controlled pitch over heavy trouble to a keen, hard green. And Jones knew Tolley well enough to understand that the British star under such condtions is always likely to stick in a birdie 3, just as he beat Bob Gardner, years ago at Muirfield, with a 2 on the thirty-seventh green. Tolley belongs to the bold, daring type always willing to take a chance and to run any risk.

A few words in this connection should be said about the game rally Francis Ouimet made to win his morning round after being 4 down at the twelfth. Ouimet is another who is never beaten until the final putt is holed and the match is over.

The Five-Hour Thrill

Dr. Steve Hennegan reports that the output of humanity at the 500-mile motor speedway race at Indianapolis on Friday will possibly pass the 180,000 mark. This will set a new attendance record, a record far beyond anything baseball, football or boxing can meet because there are no accommodations in these sports to handle so many folks.

The race starts at 10 a.m. and ends about five hours later with a blur of cars spinning around the last turn.

Would a world series or a big football game draw 180,000 people if there was room enough to park all the spectators? A world series game might not, but an Army-Notre game would, and so possibly would a California-Stanford battle. And last fall the Harvard-Yale game would have come close to meeting these figures, possibly reaching them.

Fast Greens

They don't water the greens in England or Scotland as they do over here and after a few days of sun and wind they get as close to hard ice as nature can make them.

Few golfers in the United States can understand how difficult it is to pitch to these greens and hold them, no matter what the back spin, and few can understand how baffling the putting can become. Bill Mehlhorn tells of a case last year where he made a desperate effort to lay a four-foot putt dead and then saw the ball trickle three or four feet by the cup.

There comes a time when one is afraid to hit a putt and while this, as a sporting proposition, is as fair for one as it is for another, it is a nerve-racking proposition for all concerned. I've seen good putters over there afraid to go for a four-footer, being content to get the first one close, especially on a windy day.

ALL-NIGHT TENDER SERVICE FOR BARGE

HERMOSA BEACH, May 28.—All-night tender service to the big Olympic fishing barge, anchored two miles offshore here, will be available tonight, according to Capt. J. M. Anderson, skipper of the pleasure fishing vessel, who has made elaborate plans for Memorial Day on board the Olympic. Anderson states the tender Lillian L. will leave the Hermosa pier hourly all night long.

Fishing is improving daily, with large catches of mackerel, sand dabs, sculpin and halibut being brought ashore.

ALVAREZ AWARDED APOLOGY

Marathon Entrant Given Regrets of Committee for Omitting Name

The executive committee of The Times Pre-Olympic marathon, to be run here June 14, owes Severo Alvarez an apology. Severo finished tenth last year, running a fine race. This year he sent in his entry blank, it was officially accepted, but it was accidentally misplaced, and he was not assigned a number.

Yesterday a letter was received from Santa Paula's long-distance king. He was feeling just a trifle hurt because he had been one of the first to send in his entry blank, and here he was overlooked. "I only finished tenth last year," he wrote, "but I feel much better than I did then, and I expect to do better."

Charley Keppen, director of the marathon, called the executive committee into a hurried session and checked up on Severo's entry. It was quickly discovered, and Keppen declared that Severo had an apology coming, as well as official numer 59.

F. Y. Ehret, No. 21, has with a torn ligament in his foot. He suffered the injury about three weeks ago, and hoped to be recovered soon enough to run. However, a doctor told him yesterday that it would be three more weeks before he would be able to run. Ehret ran last year and promised to be an entrant in 1931.

of work wasted, as their cars either refused to function sufficiently for a track trial, or broke down under the pounding of the brick-surfaced course.

Babe Stapp, Los Angeles; Deacon Litz, Dubois, Pa.; Zeke Meyer and William Denver, both of Philadelphia; Dave Evans, Evansville, Ind.; Rickliffe Decker, Brendenwood, N. J.; Rolland Free, Indianapolis, and Harry H. Butcher, Wilmington, Ill., made the grade today.

They, along with two famous drivers from Italy and the cream of America's speedway and dirt track, will be sent off on a flying start to a goal 500 miles away at 10 a.m. (C.S.T.) Friday. Louie Meyer, South Gate, Cal., reigning American driving champion; Peter De Paolo, Los Angeles; Shorty Cantlon, Detroit; Lou Moore, Los Angeles; Billy Arnold, Chicago, and other death defyers are among the stars in the contest.

The foreigners are Baconi Borzacchini and Letterio Cuccinotta.

Litz, with an average of 105.755 miles an hour, showed the greatest speed of today's qualifiers. Stapp was next with 104.950. The others were under 100 miles an hour. The starting field in recent years has been limited to thirty-three cars. The racing powers this year, however, raised the limit to forty. At the same time they ordered back into his seat the riding mechanic.

CHICAGO LOSES STAR PITCHER

Carlson had been suffering from ulcers of the stomach for two years and often predicted just such a sudden death as overtook him. He was 36 years of age, married and the father of a 3-year-old child. His home was in Rockford, Ill.

Funeral services are to be held in Rockford Saturday afternoon. A brief ceremony was held at his bier here tonight, with his team-mates attending. The Cincinnati-Chicago game, scheduled for tomorrow, has been postponed in respect for the veteran ball player.

Carlson was one of the few members of the Cub pitching staff to cause any comfort to Manager Joe McCarthy this season. A veteran of many campaigns, he possessed remarkable control and a good change of pace that not only won many games for the champions, but saved almost as many in the relief role. He came to the Cubs three years ago from the Philadelphia Nationals for $30,000 and two players, Kaufman and Cooney.

While nothing official was heard, it was known tonight the Cubs are already looking for some one to take Carlson's place, preferably a veteran. The Cub pitching staff, as a whole, has been a big disappointment to McCarthy and the Wrigley purse is wide open if dependable pitchers can be bought at any reasonable price.

BILL TILDEN IS DAVIS HOPE

Davis Cup committee, said over the telephone from his office in Philadelphia today that he and Fitz-Eugene Dixon, nonplaying captain of the team, "will be very pleased" if Tilden will make himself available.

The matter undoubtedly will be settled abroad between Tilden and Dixon, Mr. Wear said.

Always spectacular, Tilden emphatically declared last winter that he had had his fill of Davis Cup competition and then proceeded to hit such a pace in tournament play along the Riviera and in the current French championships that he stands out as the leading American hope.

Not once since 1920, when he and Bill Johnston captured the cup from Australia, has Big Bill been missing from a challenge round.

AUTEUIL (France) May 28. (AP) The capture of the mixed doubles championship by Bill Tilden and his young German partner, Cecilie B. Aussem, and the stubborn opposition encountered by Mrs. Helen Wills Moody on her way to the fourth round in singles, featured the French hard-court tennis tournament today.

Tilden and Fraulein Aussem dethroned the defending champions, Henri Cochet of France, and Mrs. Eileen Bennett Whittingstall of England, in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4, in a somewhat tame and disappointing final match. Mrs. Moody was forced to produce her best game to defeat a courageous English girl, Phyllis Mudford, 6-2, 6-4.

Big Bill won in the singles from Nicholas Mishu of Rumania at 6-3, 6-0, 6-2, to reach the fourth round, and two other American players also won in straight sets. Helen Jacobs, who seems at last to have struck her stride, defeated Anna Payot, Swiss champion, at 6-0, 6-2, to reach the quarter-finals, and Wilbur Coen showed classy tennis in disposing of left-handed Georges Glasser of France, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3.

WALKER, SHADE BOUT PLANNED

the Messrs. Jimmy Maloney, Armand Emanuel, Frankie Campbell and Les Kennedy—and is not at all disposed to become generous with guarantees.

He passed out $25,000 worth that night, and the gate receipts fell below the outgo.

Shade's feat in winning ten straight rounds from Hudkins the other night was widely discussed yesterday, along with a rumor that Hudkins intended to retire from the ring as a result.

However, nothing emanated from the Hudkins headquarters to substantiate the rumor, and it is generally believed that the Wildcat will stick in the game a while and confine his fighting to the nonscientific type of pugilists.

He has never appeared at his best against boxers. His fight with Belanger in San Francisco was called "no contest." Walker chewed him to pieces, and Shade made a sucker of him. One exception was the Armand Emanuel fight. Emanuel, sporting a bad hand, was licked badly and beaten at his own game.

CAMPBELL TRAINS HARD FOR KIRBY SKIRMISH

Frankie Campbell will train at the Manhattan gymnasium for his fight with Tom Kirby next week. He switched plans yesterday. He had figured to finish work at Soper's ranch, where Dave Shade conditioned for the Ace Hudkins match.

The Italian Dempsey is superstitious about the Manhattan. He has trained there for ten of his string of thirteen knockouts. Frankie believes the place is lucky. It is for him as long as he keeps on hitting.

Tom Kirby is at Murietta Hot Springs, the Hudkins camp. Dan Carroll took Kirby out of town to train to give the Boston heavyweight a chance to condition for a tough battle. Campbell and Kirby meet at the Olympic next Tuesday night.

The record book shows that Kirby has fought some of the best eastern light-heavies and heavies. He knocked out Jack Gagnon, the tough heavy who stopped Tuffy Griffiths. Kirby has gone the distance with Tommy Loughran a couple of times, also Young Stribling. He fought Yale Okun a couple of times.

In his only start here Kirby defeated Jimmy Hanna. The latter had been a steady winner since coming to Los Angeles. In this fight Kirby didn't untrack himself until after three rounds. After that he looked like a good fighter.

Defeat Keeps Leliveltians Out of First Place

playing out at Wrigley Field this year.

Ike Boone, the league's leading hitter, failed to get any hits yesterday, but Delaney had so much respect for him that he twice passed him. Boone turned both of those walks into runs, which goes to show the power of a .470 batting average even if the possessor doesn't happen to be getting hits.

RED KILLEFER CHASED

Killefer got himself kicked out of the game in the seventh inning for too vigorously protesting one of Chet Chadbourne's decisions. Red kicked when Chadbourne called Burns's hit down the left-field line a foul, although it looked as though the ball hit a foot in fair territory. It looked as though the decision would cost the Missions a run, but Burns came back and hit a single into left center, where it couldn't possibly be called foul, and the visitors got their run anyway.

Cole also became quite peeved at Chadbourne in the second when things started breaking badly for him. Bert did his best to get kicked out of the game by protesting a plate decision when Moore scored, even going so far as to push the umpire around a bit. But Chadbourne evidently figured Cole wanted to get out before some Angel base hit tore his head off and didn't chase him to the showers. Chadbourne was absolutely right on the play at the plate.

The Missions scored first in the second when Boone walked, took third on Burns's single to center and counted on Rodda's long sacrifice fly to Moore.

ANGELS SCORE THREE

Cole blew up in the Angel half of the second and five singles put over three runs before the Mission southpaw could get the side retired. Schulmerich led off with a "bloody" single to right and Jacobs followed with a hit to the same spot. Mulligan played in for a bunt and almost lost his left ear when Fred Haney whistled a line single past him to left, Schulmerich scoring. Moore forced Jacobs at third on an attempted sacrifice and Skiff skied to Kelly. Delaney singled off Monroe's glove in back of second and Haney scampered over the plate. Sigafoos then singled to right and Boone's great throw to Brenzel made it a close play at the plate. But Moore skidded around the young Mission catcher to tally the third and final Angel run of the contest. Rodda stabbed Statz's grounder in back of second and tossed out the fleet-footed Jigger on a beautiful play to end the rally.

Another walk to Boone, Burns's single and a Texas leaguer to center by Rodda gave the Reds another run in the seventh. With men on first and second Delaney struck out Pinch Hitters Rosenberg and Hofmann to end the inning.

Monroe singled after two were out in the eighth and then came Hufft with his winning circuit wallop into the stands to swing the decision to the Mission delegation. Score:

Ducks Nose Out Oakland 5-to-4

PORTLAND (Or.) May 28. (AP)—The Portland Ducks nosed out Oakland today, 5 to 4, in a game featured by home runs and rain. Ken Williams of Portland hammered out a homer in the third with two on, and Lombardi of the Oaks did the same thing in the fifth just before a rain squall held up the game for twenty-five minutes. Portland had a 5-to-4 lead at the time and just managed to hold it in the closing innings. Score:

Bald Heads in Tennis Event

M. C. (Husky) Hall, Hotel Del Monte news bureau director, dropped into the city yesterday with the announcement of a novel old-timers' tennis tourney in the north June 20-22, inclusive.

"Husky" proposes to bring together some of the real old boys, and may pattern the competition after the successful century doubles tourney recently staged by the Los Angeles Tennis Club.

One of the first entrants from the north was Earle V. Weller, the Berkeley bald head who attended Occidental and University of Southern California in the old days. Weller is now boss of the Campbell-Ewald advertising service on the Pacific Coast.

Bowie Detrick will be in charge of the tourney, Hall announced. The latter returns to the north this morning.

JONES DEFEATS BRITISH CHAMP

the exception of Douglas Grant, who has long lived in London, they have gone the way all golfers go who cannot solve the varied and changing problems these famous old fairways and huge putting greens present.

Against the American bidders for the title, the British still can muster strong opposition. Roger Wethered, for instance, seems to have found his old-time form, and T. A. Torrance is going strong. John Nelson Smith, William Sutton and Maj. C. O. Hezlet are others capable of going through.

Jones, Johnston and Voigt are in the upper half of the draw and, if they win their morning matches, the open and amateur champions of the United States will clash tomorrow afternoon.

Conditions of play generally continued today as perplexing as was the case yesterday with a thirty-mile wind whistling directly across the fairways.

After defeating Shankland, 5 up and 3 to play, Jones garbed himself in heavier plus-fours and sweaters than he had worn in the morning match and entered on his nerve-racking clash with Tolley.

TERRIFIC BATTLE

From the outset the match developed into a terrific battle with neither player ever more than one hole in the lead. The match was squared six times.

The play was adventurous all the way with the drives scattering the crowds at many holes. Jones's shots hit spectators four times and while he received a lucky break at the seventeenth when his ball bounded back on the green, he was equally unlucky at the ninth when his ball bounded from a spectator deep into bushes, completely out of sight.

Tolley's tremendous drives coming home were among the longest shots ever seen at St. Andrews.

Jones made a great putt at the seventeenth to halve the hole with a birdie 4 and Tolley made good a difficult one at the home hole to halve and carry the fight on to the nineteenth.

After each player had had three shots at the extra hole, Jones's ball was within inches of the cup while Tolley was seven feet away and directly behind his opponent's ball. It was a dead stymie and the British champion had to make an effort to jump it. He failed and the great match was over.

THIRD ROUND

Robert T. Jones, Jr., Atlanta, defeated Cowan Shankland, St. George's Hill, 5 up and 3 to play.

Harrison R. Johnston, St. Paul, defeated Col. Moore Brabazon, Royal St. George's, 6 up and 5 to play.

George Von Elm, Detroit, defeated D. B. Anderson, St. George's Hill, 3 and 1.

Francis Ouimet, Boston, defeated A. G. Bower, Bromley, 1 up, 21 holes.

Roland MacKenzie, Wilmington, Del., defeated H. L. Holden, Sandiway, 6 and 4.

Harry Brower, New York and Dinard, France, defeated William Spark, Victoria, Montrose, 2 and 1.

R. B. Foster, New York and London, defeated J. B. Gwaltney, New York, 3 and 1.

T. A. Torrance, London, defeated W. G. Fovargue, Aberdeen, Wash., 5 and 4.

Kenneth Forbes, Cramond Brig, defeated Rowland Saunders, Miami, Fla., 3 and 2.

John McCredie, Mortonhall, defeated Frank Sweeney, New York and London, 6 and 5.

FOURTH ROUND

George Voigt, New York, defeated Maj. G. N. C. Martin, Portrush, 3 up, and 1 to play.

Jones defeated Cyril J. H. Tolley, 1 up, 19 holes.

Johnston defeated Reginald Staker, 3 and 2.

Von Elm defeated W. H. Ricardo, West Cornwall, 5 and 3.

Ouimet defeated J. Lyndon Jones, Cardiff, 7 and 6.

Douglas Grant, London, defeated Robert Harris, 1 up, 20 holes.

Kenneth Grieg, St. Andrews, defeated MacKenzie, 4 and 3.

Gordon Simpson, St. Andrews, defeated Foster, 5 and 3.

George Waddell, Edinburgh, defeated Frank C. Stevens Jr., Hollywood, 1 up, 19 holes.

The pairings for the fifth round tomorrow for the Americans:

George Voigt vs. William Campbell, Cambuslang.

Robert T. Jones, Jr. vs. G. O. Watt, Broughty Ferry.

Harrison R. Johnston vs. D. C. Murray, Duddingston.

George Von Elm vs. Hon. Michael Scott, St. George's.

Francis Ouimet vs. Lister Hartley, Chislehurst.

Douglas Grant vs. Kenneth Grieg, St. Andrews.

The field tonight was reduced to 32 and tomorrow night there will be but eight. Two rounds on Friday's play will result in naming the two survivors, who will fight out the final over 36 holes Saturday.

BOSTON, May 28.—After three postponements because of rain, the Braves and Phillies got into action on the ball field today and Harry (Socks) Seibold hurled Boston to a 5-to-1 victory. Seibold, who has yet to leave a game before it was finished this season, gave the Phillies only six hits and only once did he allow more than one to an inning. He has won seven games and lost two.

Walter Berger, sensational young Brave recruit, continued his heavy slugging by clouting out his eleventh home run of the season. Score:

CUBS COLLECT

CHICAGO, May 28. (AP)—A drastic rearrangement of the Chicago Cubs line-up had its good effect in the first inning today and enabled the Cubs to defeat the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 5. Chicago scored four runs in the opening frame and barely outlasted the Cincinnati rallies.

A triple by Hack Wilson and a fluke homer by Kiki Cuyler in the first brought about the downfall of young Benny Frey, who had beaten the Cubs twice before. Cuyler's homer bounded along the first-base line and into the right-field seats. Score:

BELL AND BANNING WILL TANGLE TODAY

Marine League baseball teams get together in the sixth round of play today. In the feature contest of the day Bell and Banning high schools get together for the championship game of the league. Each school has won five and lost none. Each school boasts a club of heavy hitters, although Banning has an edge on the Eagles. However, the Bell team has an impressive defense record. Only five runs have been scored against them, only one being earned and that was a homer.

Three other games are scheduled, Narbonne at Riis, Washington at Torrance, and Jordan at Gardena.

Southern California Yachtsmen Will See Action This Week-End

TWO CRUISES ARE SCHEDULED

Three-Day Race to Keller's Shelter is Feature

Annual Ensenada Race Has Large Field

Commodore Christie Buys Sloop Lanai

BY FRANK ROCHE

AL CHRISTIE.

Southern California yachtsmen start the ball rolling tomorrow for the summer season. Two events of importance in Southland sailing circles will occupy the spotlight over Decoration Day and the week-end. They are a three-day cruise to Keller's Shelter, which includes a series of races off Santa Monica, and the annual Ensenada cruise from the California Yacht Club. The Keller's Shelter sailing event has attracted a classy field of sloops, schooners, yawls and ketches.

Commodore Al Christie of the Los Angeles Yacht Club, under whose auspices the cruise will be staged, has more than seven racing boats entered to date and he is confident that many more will face the starter's gun tomorrow morning at 11 a.m.

The boats already entered are the Pandora, owned by H. W. Rohl, which will be skippered by Ted Conrat; the Monsoon, Don Ayer's sea charger; Tom Smith and Hugh Angelman's Ocean Waif; Bill Watson's Wilettie; Owen Dresden's Clio; Al Christie's Highlander and his former R-sloop Heather, which now belongs to the Newmark boys.

The Ensenada cruise has attracted a large field. Besides a number of sailing vessels a fleet of power boats will make the journey to the Mexican port. Pierpont Davis, commodore of the California Yacht Club, will send the boats away in this event. The fleet will return from Ensenada Sunday night. It is strictly a stag affair and all members of the crews of the entries must sail back with their craft.

The Keller's Shelter program calls for a sail over a leeward and windward course. A stake boat has been anchored off Malibu Beach. On Friday and Saturday the Los Angeles Fleet will race from that point to Santa Monica and back. Sunday they will hike for the Los Angeles Harbor breakwater where the cruise officially ends. Besides the sailing events a large barbecue will be staged by the yachtsmen on Malibu Beach.

An interesting item to Coast yachtsmen came to light yesterday with the announcement that Commodore Al Christie has purchased the Lanai, a famous eastern six-meter sloop. She will be shipped here on the 31st inst. from Larchmont, N. Y.

Commodore Christie plans to put up a Los Angeles Challenge Trophy in the near future for six-meter competition. This trophy will foster competition among the sixes such as the San Francisco perpetual trophy has in the past. Southland yachtsmen in fact expect it to rival the Bay City event.

The semiannual meeting of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club will be held on June 7. William C. Evans, secretary of the club, urges all members to attend as many important items will be taken up at the gathering. Newport, incidentally, will be the scene of the 1930 Southern California yachting championships this summer.

Far Eastern Paddlefest Draws Stars

TOKIO, May 28. (AP)—The far-Eastern swimming championships opened today in the new Meiji Shrine pool with 8000 spectators, including Prince and Princess Chichibu, jammed in the stands. Thousands were turned away. Yokoyama of Japan won the 1500-meter free-style swim in 20m. 3 2-5s. In the 200-meter relay Japan also took first honors, the Philippines placing second and China third. Japan's time was 1m. 46 2-5s.

The Chinese baseball team pounded out a 15-to-4 victory over the Philippine nine in the series connected with the far-eastern Olympics. Y. Chung held the Philippine nine to nine hits, while the Chinese pounded Bautista, Oncinnian and Navarro for fifteen bingles. Afo and Pung led the batting assault with two triples.

um. When they finished, Eddie Farrell led his Harvard team, one of the best-balanced track assemblies in the East, inside of the ivy-covered walls for its final workout before the championship events.

The stadium will be closed tomorrow to give the Harvard workmen a chance to get the track and field into first-class shape for the record-breaking performances expected during the two-day title games.

None of the other thirty-four teams entered in competition reached Cambridge during the day. Most of the absent athletes were held up by examinations, forcing them to enter Friday's trial events without the benefit of a previous workout on the stadium track or enclosure.

Gagnon Kayoed by Von Porat

CHICAGO, May 28. (AP)—Battered to the floor six times, Jack Gagnon, the Boston sailor, fell a knockout victim before Otto Von Porat's heavy right-hand blasts in the sixth round of their scheduled ten-round battle in the Chicago Stadium tonight.

The Norwegian heavyweight, opening his new campaign for recognition as a contender for the championship, felled Gagnon twice in the second round, again in the third, and three times in the sixth before Gagnon was counted out.

The battle was witnessed by 12,000 with gate receipts estimated at approximately $38,000.

Gagnon fought a courageous battle in face of heavy odds. He was outweighed seventeen and one-quarter pounds, scaling 187 3-4 pounds to 205 for Von Porat. The Boston sailor absorbed Von Porat's terrific punches until he became leg-weary, but he was full of fight until the last left hook to the body knocked him sprawling for the count.

JEFFERSON NINE WINS FROM HOLLYWOOD, 5-4

Coach "Ching" Duhm's Jefferson High nine nosed out the Hollywood ball club yesterday by the score of 5-to-4 on the Foothillers' diamond. The game was a hectic affair featured by thirteen errors, seven Democrat miscues and six Hollywood errors, Jefferson winning because its errors were not committed at crucial moments.

Both of the hurlers, Moore of Jefferson and Capt. Fernando Collins of Hollywood pitched nice games, with the Sheik moundsman having the better of the argument. Hollywood tossed away several runs during the contest, one when Reuman failed to touch first base on a long double in the seventh inning. In the ninth inning, the Foothillers rallied and scored a run, but the rally was cut off when a Hollywood base runner overran third for the final out.

SANTOS STOPS CADENA IN THE SECOND ROUND

Sammy Santos scored a two-round knockout over Ad Cadena in the eight-round main event at the Ocean Park Arena last night. Beryl Whitehead won a decision over Mickey McLaughlin in the semi-wind-up, and Homer Gaines stopped Bolo Mission in the third round of the special event. In the preliminaries Babe Mumez took a decision over Joe Rich and Henry Gaitan and Bobby Mewton fought a four-round draw.

ANGELS THRICE LEADERS

The Los Angeles ball club leads the league in three-base hits and stolen bases. The local club also leads the circuit in the fielding averages. The Angels have averaged less than one error per game this season.

LA BARBA WINS FROM GRAHAM

not mix. Bushy bounced all over the ring, rarely came to grips, and held frequently. The decision of the referee and judges was unanimous.

Graham's bounding, unorthodox style bothered La Barba all the way. Bushy had a discouraging system, dancing backward on his toes, hands at his sides, flicking occasional jabs to the face, only to grab and wrestle when the tireless La Barba finally caught him and went to work at close quarters. Graham was a substitute for Kid Chocolate, the Cuban bon-bon who was injured in an automobile accident.

For the first five rounds, although Graham did little to advance his own cause, he managed to keep La Barba from going anywhere in particular. Fidel forced the fighting but his short, accurate left hook, the best weapon in his armory, was useless against an opponent who was usually half the ring away. The faithful, hoping for a fight, groaned and booed the bout, but neither they nor the fighters could make anything of the situation.

Graham slowed up a bit after the midway mark and occasionally fell afoul of La Barba's left hook. Bushy's nose bled in the sixth and he was slammed around somewhat, but he rallied, outpunched and outsmarted Fidel in the seventh. Graham subsided in the eighth, was almost floored by one heavy left hook to the chin, and La Barba coasted home.

La Barba, inaugurating a stern campaign he hopes will lead to a shot at Bat Battalino's featherweight title, weighed 124 pounds, Graham 125¼. La Barba probably will renew his quarrel with Chocolate outdoors this summer. The Cuban Negro won a close decision in their first meeting here.

A game veteran of the glove wars, battered old Joe Dundee, former welterweight champion, gave the customers a thrill and twinge in the ten-round semifinal staged after the main bout. On courage and experience alone, the ring-worn Baltimorean managed to nose out a decision over Harry Mason, former lightweight champion of England.

POLY MECHANICS WIN OVER MANUAL TOILERS

Coach "Cap" Mahoney's Poly Mechanics took a 7-4 decision over the Manual Arts Toilers yesterday afternoon on Dunn Field, Polytechnic. Poly took an early lead, holding a 3-2 edge until the seventh, when with the babses loaded Capt. Goodman and Hank Ybarra each slapped out a double, bringing four runs across the plate.

Ybarra was the big star of the day, getting two doubles and two singles in four trips to the plate, besides holding the heavy-hitting Toilers to eleven hits.

LOCAL SWIM LAURELS ARE AT STAKE TONIGHT

Clyde Swendsen will stage another water fiesta at 8:15 at the Hollywood Athletic Club tank tonight. Four Southern Pacific Association titles for men and several record attempts will feature the meet, which is open to the public.

The national outdoor back-stroke champion, Frank Walton, is favored to win the S.P.A. 150-yard dorsal for men. Weston Kimball, defending champion, enters the 100-yard free style titular as another Hollywood favorite. The Hollywood combination of Walton, Kimball and Lloyd Varney in the 300-yard medley relay S.P.A. championship just about assures the high-point score to the Orange "O" team, which enters three squads in the relay.

An outsider is named for the men's 220-yard S.P.A. breaststroke championship. John Paulsen of Santa Maria High School ranks among the favorites, since he won the junior national title over that distance. Dr. Dick Gunter of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, however, is another prominent entry as holder of the junior national 440 crown.

The women's century S.P.A. free style mark may meet its Waterloo at the hands of Olive Hatch of L.A.A.C., in a record attempt. Farid Simaika, Egyptian Olympic diving star, will make his first appearance in exhibition at the Hollywood pool since arriving here recently.

Entries were released by Swendsen yesterday. Southern Pacific Association championships:

RAILSPLITTERS BEST FRANKLIN NINE, 11-5

As a result of an 11-5 win over Coach Bill Lopez's Franklin High baseballers yesterday, the Lincoln High nine coached by Frank Malette are today leading the City League with four wins and no defeats. The game was held on the Broadway High diamond in Glendale.

Joe Aprato, Lincoln third baseman, put on the best exhibition at the platter, collecting two safe hits out of fourt trips. The Tigers collected fourteen safe hits off three Franklin hurlers, while Mialo and French, Lincoln second-string hurlers, let down the Panthers with five well-scattered hits. McCue and Allaire did the best work at the plate for the losers.

THE NEW Gillette Blade has restored thousands of damaged, old type Gillette Razors to active shaving service.

These veteran razors had become damaged through years of daily use. They were dropped on the floor. The corners of the razor caps and the guard teeth were bent. Poor shaves resulted, for the bent corners forced the blade out of alignment.

The New Gillette Blade remedies this defect

The dented corners of the razor caps and the bent teeth can no longer spoil the shave.

A glance at the illustrations will show you how this sweeping improvement has restored thousands of these discarded razors to useful service.

But of course the New Gillette Blade in a New Gillette Razor is the best shaving combination.

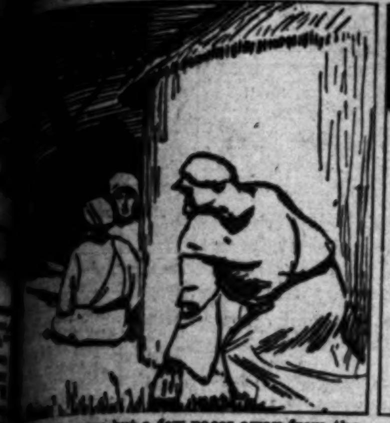
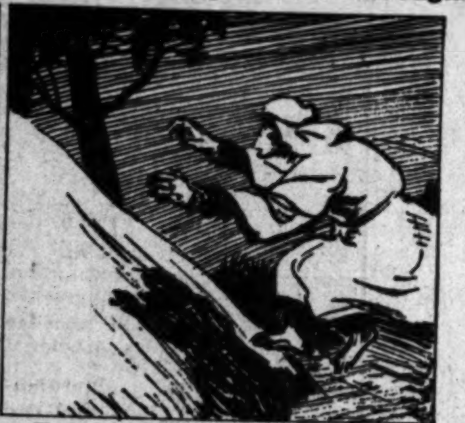
ZAN AND THE JEWELS OF OPAR

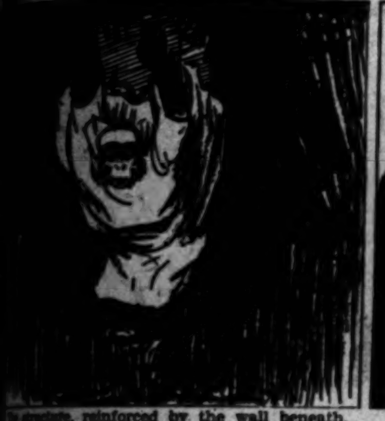
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



sentries were but a few paces away from the hut, but Taglat did not dare expose himself, even for an instant, to those feared and hated thundersticks which the Tarmangani knew so well how to use, if there were another and safer method of attack. Taglat wished there was a tree nearby from the overhanging branches of which he might spring upon his unsuspecting prey; but though there was no tree, the idea gave birth to a plan in his wicked brain.



The eaves of the hut were just above the heads of the sentries—from them he could spring upon the Tarmangani unseen. A quick snap of his mighty jaws would dispose of one of them before the other realized that they were being attacked, and then it would be easy to dispose of the second. Taglat withdrew a few paces to the rear of the hut, gathered himself for the effort, ran quickly forward and leaped high in the air. He struck the roof directly above the rear wall of the hut.



The structure, reinforced by the wall beneath, held his enormous weight for an instant. Then he moved forward a step. The roof sagged, the thatching parted and the great anthropoid shot through to the interior. The sentries, hearing the noise, leaped to their feet and rushed into the hut. Jane Clayton tried to roll aside as the great form lit upon the floor, so close to her that one foot pinned her clothing to the ground. The ape reached down and gathered her up in one mighty arm.

The burnoose covered the hairy body so that Jane Clayton believed a human arm supported her. From the extremity of hopelessness a great hope surged through her that at last she was in the keeping of a rescuer. The two sentries hesitated, knowing not what had caused the disturbance. Their eyes, not yet accustomed to the darkness of the interior, told them nothing. Nor did they hear any sound, for the hairy monster stood silently awaiting their attack.

Business Men Pledge Help For Sheriff's Program

Employment of Discharged Prisoners Sought

Pontius, Austin and Frith Talk at Meeting

Support of the Sheriff's office program for rehabilitation of discharged prisoners of the County Jail was pledged yesterday by approximately 135 business and professional men who gathered for luncheon in the jail assembly room on the fourteenth floor of the Hall of Justice.

The luncheon, the third of its kind since the establishment of the Sheriff's contact office in 1927, was followed by a number of brief addresses, the speakers being introduced by D. W. Pontius, president of the Pacific Electric Railway and chairman of the contact committee, who acted as toastmaster.

Preceding his introduction of Mr. Pontius, Sheriff Traeger recited briefly the history of the contact division, its purposes and work accomplished by county road camps. The Sheriff pointed out that a revolving fund of $5000 was made possible by E. L. Doheny in 1927 for the purpose of making small loans to discharged prisoners and that since that time 1572 such loans have been made.

Addresses also were made by Mr. Pontius, Col. R. E. Frith, in charge of the contact office, who stated that during the last three years the office has made 8661 contacts with prisoners in an effort to aid them in becoming useful citizens; J. Wiseman McDonald, attorney, and John Austin, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Several impromptu talks also were made.

Those present were asked to further the rehabilitation work by the employment whenever possible of worthy discharged prisoners.

Following the addresses, a number of the diners were escorted through the jail by Sheriff Traeger.

ACTOR AND DIRECTOR MAKE WAGER ON RACE

A wager on the outcome of the annual automobile race to be held in Indianapolis tomorrow has been made by Mel Brown and Richard Dix, director and star at the R.-K.-O. studio. The former has backed a local boy, Pete De Paolo, to win, while Dix also has chosen a local representative, "Babe" Stapp. The loser is to donate $100 to any local charity and in addition is to wheel the winner around the studio lot twenty-five times. Brown's selection is to receive the personal support of his backer, as the director left last night for Indianapolis to attend the race. Incidentally, it was learned from Brown, previous to his departure, that he is to be joined in Chicago by Amos 'n' Andy, who will accompany him to the event.

CHILD ILLUSTRATOR TO TELL OF CRASH

Marjorie Voorhees

Marjorie Voorhees, 7 years of age, will take the stand in Superior Judge Sproul's court today to describe the accident March 3, 1929, when an automobile in which she was riding was run down by a Pacific Electric car near Dominguez Junction.

As a result of the crash the girl, her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Voorhees, and Josephine Ramsey are asking $25,000 each for injuries received. While waiting to testify, Marjorie spent her time helping Bailiff Bishop draw pictures to illustrate the new western novel he is writing.

Flare as Clew to Lost Flyer Stirs Interest

Arrival of a discharged parachute flare found by a sheep man near Zion Canyon, Southern Utah, yesterday, was awaited with interest but with little hope that it may furnish a clew to the disappearance of Maurice Graham, according to Fred Goodcell of the Western Air Express Company, for which Graham was a pilot.

The flare was turned over to H. H. Lunt, postmaster at Cedar City, Nev., who forwarded it to Los Angeles. Mr. Goodcell said there was little likelihood that Graham would have been as far off his regular course as the spot where the flare was found. Further, he said, it might have been dropped by any aviator within the last two or three years. There are no identification marks on the flares used by the company. Graham has been missing since he left Las Vegas in a snowstorm last January.

CAPT. BEAN WILL KNOW FATE TODAY

Question of Discharging or Retaining Accused Officer Soon Will be Decided

Whether Capt. James Bean, now under suspension from the police department, will be reinstated or dismissed is to be determined at 10 a.m. today, Chief of Police Steckel announced last night. At that time Chief Steckel will sit in conference with three police captains, whose names he declined to give, and together the four will fix their brother officer's fate.

Chief Steckel announced the conference following a statement by Mayor Porter that the matter is entirely in his hands. Mayor Porter, in turn, had referred the decision to the Chief at the conclusion of another conference held yesterday.

The matter yesterday stood exactly as it did ten days ago, Chief Steckel said, adding that it was thought a fresh investigation might adduce new evidence either in favor of or against the suspended officer. Yesterday's session, however, failed in this respect.

Capt. Bean was suspended several weeks ago as a result of a collision between a police car he was driving and another machine on Angelus Mesa Drive. Some witnesses have asserted he had liquor on his breath at the time, while others, including a police surgeon, have insisted there was no trace of it.

DAM BREAK BLAME PUT ON FAULTS

Foundation's Flaws Held Responsible for St. Francis Disaster by Professor

When the St. Francis Dam gave way on March 13, 1928, and snuffed out the lives of more than 500 persons, the disaster was caused by faulty foundations of the structure instead of an earth movement, in the opinion of Prof. F. L. Ransome, economic geologist at the California Institute of Technology.

Prof. Ransome was called as a witness in rebuttal yesterday in the closing hours of the trial of the $175,000 damage suit brought by Ray E. Rising against the city of Los Angeles for the deaths of his wife and three children, who perished in the flood following the breaking of the dam.

The geologist testified there was no seismograph record of an earth movement, or earthquake at the time immediately preceding the breaking of the dam.

The calling of Prof. Ransome was an effort on the part of attorneys for the plaintiff to offset any attempt the city might make to prove that the collapse of the dam was caused by what is known in legal parlance as an act of God.

The hearing, which is being held before a jury and Superior Judge Mahon, will continue today.

ONE KILLED IN TRAFFIC COLLISION

Two Others Near Death; Driver of Second Car Slightly Injured

One woman was killed and two others probably fatally injured in a collision between two automobiles at Laurel Canyon Road and Magnolia Boulevard, North Hollywood, early yesterday morning.

The dead woman was Mrs. Dora E. Sammons, about 50 years of age, of 1850 Rodney Drive. The two not expected to recover are Miss Alice L. Hornaday, 39 years of age, of 3845 Motor avenue, Palms, and Miss Etta Russell, about 30, of 1850 Rodney Drive. Miss Hornaday was driving, the other woman being her passenger.

Manfred Kuttner, 28, of 13906 Magnolia Boulevard, driver of the other machine, was injured, but not seriously, according to the report of Detective Lieutenant Ward. All were taken to the North Hollywood Receiving Hospital.

Both machines, Ward stated, were apparently traveling at a high rate of speed when they collided. Miss Hornaday's car, he said, skidded for 100 feet from the point of impact and turned over, while Kuttner's machine skidded for about half that distance and also turned over.

ROCK PLANT SUIT DELAYED

Continuance Granted for Injunction Hearing in Row Over Bell Project in Santa Monica Hills

Hearing of the injunction suit growing out of the controversy following the passage of city ordinances which would give the Alfonzo Bell interests permission to maintain cement mills in a fashionable residential district of Los Angeles, was called late yesterday by Superior Judge Bowron and continued to June 4 next on a motion of the plaintiff.

The continuance was asked for the reason that Attorney Byron Hanna, who with Attorney C. A. Border is counsel for the plaintiff, is at present engaged in another court trial.

The action is the one brought by Wilkie Woodard, as a property owner and taxpayer, against Robert Dominguez, City Clerk of Los Angeles, to restrain him from certifying to the sufficiency of petitions circulated for a referendum election. The referendum is sought following the city's action in adopting two ordinances changing private property in the Santa Monica Hills from residential zoning to industrial zoning permitting the Bell interests to establish rock crushing plants in the area.

Woodard asks that the City Clerk be enjoined from certifying to the petitions for a referendum election on the grounds they do not have a sufficient number of names of qualified voters requesting such an election.

A temporary restraining order was signed by Superior Judge Doran March 26, last. The plaintiff now is seeking to have the order made permanent.

A decision of the Supreme Court on a petition for a writ of mandamus sought by those who are seeking to force the City Clerk to certify to the petitions so the election can be called, will await the outcome of the injunction proceedings before Judge Bowron.

CENSUS TALLY DELAY SEEN

Supervisors Say Plan to Announce Employment Data Will Require Extra Week's Work

The proposal of the United States Census Bureau in Washington that Federal census supervisors compile and announce the number of unemployed persons along with population figures may delay until June 9 the local arrangement of supervisors to compile Los Angeles' population figures next Monday.

In the first place, the supervisors pointed out yesterday, they are not entirely agreed whether the bureau orders them to announce the number of unemployed or whether announcement is optional. Most of them believe they are ordered so to do. Inquiries to clear the question have gone by telegraph to the capital.

MEETING MONDAY

In the next place, the supervisors said, it will take them a week or so from next Monday to compile the necessary unemployment figures. They said they can have the population figures by that time. They are of the opinion that they will meet Monday and agree on a policy in the matter even if they do not compile the city's population total.

Supervisor Kincaid said that if the number of unemployed must be announced it will take his office about ten days to get the figures ready for Beverly Hills, Santa Monica and Culver City, whose populations he already has announced. Supervisor Ballentine said his office could in a week announce unemployment figures for Monrovia, Pomona, Alhambra, Whittier and his cities, whose populations already have been announced.

Supervisor De Coudres said he has forwarded his original portfolios to Washington on Long Beach and that if such information be announced for Long Beach the data must be sent back from Washington after compiling there. He said he could still get up the data on Inglewood, Redondo, Compton and most of the other cities in his district.

OTHER DATA SENT EAST

Similarly, Supervisor Chenoweth's office has sent to Washington its portfolios on Pasadena, Glendale and most of the cities in his district and if the information is compiled it must be done in Washington. Under the bureau rules it would be sent back for announcement.

Kincaid has never gotten an answer, it was said at his office, to his request that permission be given to announce the population of certain parts of Los Angeles as the population of Hollywood just as if Hollywood were a city of itself instead of a section of Los Angeles.

DRY GINGER ALE

Tastes in ginger ale differ . . . but even the most careless palate senses—instantly—the clear, old-world delicacy of Clicquot Sec. And Sec is aged 6 months in the making to a smooth maturity that needs no connoisseur to appreciate. "The finest ginger ale in America," say those whose taste is for real dryness. "Quick-process" ginger ales cannot compare in any way with Sec—the difference is so great. Try it . . . and make the distinction yourself.
